

My Ideal.

If ever I a helpmate choose, She must be this, to meet my views;

A maiden young with sparkling eyes As blue as are Italian skies, With silken hair as smooth as wax

Would she as well approve me, though? Would she accept me for her beau?

Montreal's Philanthropist.

"JOE BEEF" MAKES HIS DEBUT AS A ORATOR AND POET—HE DENOUNCES THE "WITNESS" AND VINDICATES HIMSELF BEFORE THE WORLD.

"Joe Beef" is one of the peculiarities of Montreal. In his own way he is a benefactor to his kind, and does an incalculable amount of good to those over whom the public charities exercise no control.

A Voice—"Put on your hat." Joe Beef—"It's only in this country that I've got a hat. In Ireland, where I came from, I didn't have a hat or a boot."

[At this point, the 'lecturer' dodged as an egg came flying over his shoulder, and scattered on the wall behind.

The 'lecturer,' however, bravely continued, making some strange allusions to D. I. K. Rine, Henry Ward Beecher and Sir Sidney Smith.

On the orator's return, he was hailed with demonstrative cheers, in response to which he thanked his hearers most kindly for the reception with which they had honored him.

"Whether I rise or fall, I'll stand by the poor of Montreal." (Cheers.) He spoke of the wood famine of 1874, when people were perished for the want of a stick of wood, which sold at $17 a cord.

"Sandfield was drinking, Brydges winking, Allen about his ships thinking, And Cartier blinking;

(Great laughter and cheers.) He alluded to the case in which a poor man went into the Witness office and asked for a 'copper' for something to eat, but as he smelt of liquor he was shown out.

great laughter, although the jokes were not of the most refined character. He retired from the gallery amid the cheers of the crowd, who were evidently well pleased with the free and laughable treat afforded them.

This anecdote of President Lincoln was recently told by Bishop Simpson although it may have been in print long ago: 'I was informed one day that a committee from New York, composed of leading citizens, went to see him in reference to the conduct of the war.

The Greatest Medical Discovery since the Creation of Man, or since the Commencement of the Christian Era.

There never has been a time when the healing of so many different diseases has been caused by outward application as the present. It is an undisputed fact that over half of the entire population of the globe resort to the use of ordinary plasters.

DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS are acknowledged by all who have used them, to act quicker than any other plaster they ever before tried, and that one of these plasters will do more real service than a hundred of the ordinary kind.

Physicians in all ages have thoroughly tested and well know the effect of Capsicum; and it has always been more or less used as a medical agent for an outward application; but it is only of very recent date that its advantages in a porous plaster have been discovered.

CATARRH.

Constitutional Catarrh Remedy CURES CATARRH.

Hear what a Reverend Gentleman says of the Constitutional Remedy.

T. J. B. HARDING, Esq., Brockville, Ont.—DEAR SIR—It is now two years since your "Constitutional Catarrh Remedy" was introduced to me. I have waited this long to see if the cure would remain permanent before doing this, my duty, to you, as at first the happy effects seemed to me to be "too good to be true."

I was afflicted in my head for years before I suspected it to be Catarrh. In reading in your Circular I saw my case described in many particulars. The inward "drop" from the head had become very disagreeable, and a choking sensation often preventing me from lying long. I would feel like smothering and be compelled to sit up in the bed. My health and spirits were seriously affected. When your agent came to Walkertown in August, 1876, I secured three bottles. Before I had used a quarter of the contents of one bottle I found decided relief, and when I had used two bottles and a third, I quit taking it, feeling quite cured of that ailment, and have not used any since until of late I have taken some for a cold in my head.

A sense of duty to sufferers from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, prompts me to send you this Certificate, unsolicited, with leave to make what use of it you may see proper. Yours truly, W. TINDALL, Methodist Minister. Port Elgin, Ont., Aug. 24, 1878.

Ask for Littlefield's Constitutional Catarrh Remedy and take no other. T. J. B. HARDING, Dominion Agent, Brockville, Ont.
