St. Joseph's Convent

THE DISTRIBUTION OF PRIZES.

A VERY enjoyable afternoon was spent in St. Joseph's Convent, on Wednesday last, the occasion being the distribution of prizes.

About two hundred and fifty children were ranged round the Sodality Hall, a spacious apartment in which the meetings of the ladies of St. Joseph's Society are held.

A pleasing entertainment, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, was given by the pupils of the Institution, which, to say the least, was very creditable, the choruses were lively and sung with perfect harmony. The duets, "Always take Mother's Advice," by Misses Josie Handrahan and Sarah Trainor, and "Dear Little Pansy Blossoms," by Misses Sarah Callaghan and Ida Doyle, were greatly admired. The parting address was read by Miss A.
Orman, in an easy and feeling manner.

Among those present we noticed His Lordship Bishop McIntyre, Revs. Jas.
McDonald, V. G., Angus McDonald, Pius McPhee, Charles McDonald, James Eneas McDonald, Rev. Allan McDonald, Dr.
Chaisson, Laughlan McDonald, Rev. S.
Boudreault, Dr. Walker, Dr. Grant, A. J.
McIntyre, F. X. Gallant, J. McLean, Edward Roche, Esq., Professor Caven and

A Newspaper Man's Fortune.

The Annapolis Spectator man (Mr. W. D.
Tanton, formerly of Charlottetown), who is jubiling in Halifax, had his fortune told the other day. From a long newspaper experience he has learned not to place much faith in human predictions, and seeing the wonderful feats of a trained canary as a "looker into the future," he concluded to have his destiny unveiled by the little warbler. If the predictions come true (and he has no doubt they will) the brethren of the fourth estate will envy the Annapolis scribe. He is to be rich, immensely rich, but his fortune is not to come from printing newspapers. He is to live in a stone front, drink the best of wines (he is a lodge member), and smoke the choicest cigars. His life will be one of ease and enjoyment, with fourteen boys to play around his knee, and the delinquent subscriber and dead best advertiser he will know no more.—Amen.
Annapolis has at least a prospective millionaire.—Herald.

Give Them a Chance!

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air-passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.
When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.
Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you, you may depend upon this for certain.
