FARMERS

There are indications of a farm labor shortage this Spring. It is known that a number of Dutch immigrants will be available. It is hoped to induce some of these to come to Prince Edward Island.
If you are thinking of obtaining a Dutch farm hand it will be necessary to complete application forms, which are forwarded to the Canadian Immigration authorities. While no guarantee can be given that all orders will be filled, it is hoped to fill most of those received. It will be appreciated that the Dutch workers who come to Canada pay their own passage and are immigrants, not homeless people without means.
