IN MEMORIAM

JEREMIAH B. NOONAN

The community of Albany was shocked and saddened on Nov. 26th when it was learned of the death of Jeremiah B. Noonan after a serious illness of two weeks. Born at Albany on Oct. 26th, 1888, a son of the late William E. Noonan and Caroline Creamer, he lived his entire life in Albany where he was a successful farmer. On account of ill health he retired a year ago. Mr. Noonan lived a quiet and honorable life and gained the respect of a large circle of friends who regret his passing. He was a devoted member of the Catholic Church and received the last rites from his pastor.

He leaves to mourn his sorrowing widow, formerly Miss Mary Hogan; seven daughters, Kathleen (Mrs. Archie McDonald), Lancy, N.S.; Mabel (Mrs. W. F. MacCormac), Albany; Gertrude, Mrs. L. McDonald, Lunenburg; Hazel, Mrs. William McDonald, North Carleton; Muriel (Mrs. Edmond Fader), Halifax; Lillian (Mrs. Joseph Harnett), Halifax; and Ruth, at home. Two sons, Basil and Raymond, Albany, and one daughter, Mrs. Wilbert Muttart, died several years ago. Three brothers, James and Thomas, Albany; William, Borden; Eliza (Mrs. John Murray), Summerside, and Jennie, Mrs. John Farmer, Kinkora; also twenty-two grandchildren whom he dearly loved.

The funeral was held on Saturday morning from the home of Wilfred MacCormac, Albany to St. Peter's Church, Seven Mile Bay, and was largely attended by friends who came to pay their last respects to a dear friend.

Requiem Mass was sung by the pastor, Rev. R. McDonald. The pallbearers were Messrs E. H. Boulter, A. C. Green, Frank McKay, Russel Noonan, Douglas Crossman and Joseph Arsenault.

Card Of Thanks

Mrs. Jeremiah B. Noonan and Family of Albany wish to sincerely thank Fr. LeClair, Fr. Reginald MacDonald, the Doctors and Nurses of the Prince County Hospital, the kind friends and neighbours who helped in any way during their recent sad bereavement.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. FRANK H. NEWSOME

There passed peacefully at rest at her home in Rose Valley, on Saturday, November 4th, 1950, a woman loved and respected by all who knew her in the person of Mrs. Frank Newsome. Although not in the best of health for a past year, her death came as a great shock to her family and friends for the joy of the home. Her memory will long be cherished in the community in which she lived. Few people knew their Bible better than she.

Born in Rose Valley on October 20th, 1881, a daughter of the late Donald and Janet Nicholson, she had lived in the community all her life. The deceased was a member of the Rose Valley United Church where she will be greatly missed as she was one of its leading and most willing workers; as long as her health permitted, her home was for its hospitality where she was ever-ready with her smiles and a welcome for all.

Her passing away has left a vacancy which will indeed be hard to fill. Her funeral which was held on Tuesday, November 7th, was very largely attended. After a short service at the house the remains were conveyed to the Rose Valley United Church where service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. B. MacPhail. The hymns sung were The Lord's My Shepherd, Abide With Me and Safe in the Arms of Jesus. Mr. Murdoch MacLeod, cousin of the deceased, sang a solo, In the Garden.

Besides her husband she leaves to mourn her passing, three children, Millin of South Boston; Annie, Mrs. George Sherren, rapid, and Willie at home. Also five sisters, Katie, Mrs. Albert Stewart, Washington, D. C.; Jessie, Mrs. Edward Harris, Newton Centre, U. S. A.; Annie, Mrs. Lewis Nye, Dorchester, Mass.; Euphemia, Mrs. John Kerr, Boston, Mass.; Margaret, Mrs. John Crane, Boston, Mass.; two brothers and one sister predeceased her some years ago. The pallbearers were J. W. MacKendzie, Donald Gillis, William Matheson, Reuben Chappell, Murdoch MacLeod, George Sherren.

Interment in Bradabane Cemetery.

ALMA W. I.

The annual meeting of the Alma Women's Institute was held at the home of Miss Zena Barbour with the president opening the meeting. Eighteen members answered the roll call by paying fees. A vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. John P. Wallace for the use of her home for chicken supper. Committees gave their reports and new ones were appointed. The election of officers resulted as follows:—President, Mrs. Ralph Rennie. Vice President—Mrs. Isaac Dunbar. Secretary—Mrs. Jack Clark.

The president thanked all for their co-operation during year. The secretary-treasurer reported $57.00 on hand.

The contest was won by Mrs. Archie Barbour.

Mrs. Arthur Rennie invited members to her home for December meeting.

Roll call to be answered by donation to grab-bag.

colm Lodge were invested into "Scouting" by Scoutmaster Ray Hickey.

Talks on "Preparedness" by Com. Stan McInnis and a theme of "Once a Scout, always a Scout" by Mr. P. Carrell, who held the boys spellbound with one of his plentiful supply of true stories, this one based on language and the Scout good turn.

The meeting was brought to a close with a vote of thanks by the boys to the Charlottetown Headquarters Council, Tape, and Scout Silence. —A.
