Prexy Raps Fingers

Canon Ferguson, the president of the Prince County Softball League, has rapped our fingers for throwing a brickbat at his executive for their suspension of two Enman Drug players. He takes up the cudgels for them in a letter which we received over the weekend. Before answering the charges, we want to make it clear that we think Canon Ferguson has done and is doing a fine job as president of this League. Not familiar with softball when he took over, he has become an avid fan, and has learned the fine points of the game surprisingly fast.

First of all, the criticism we handed out was somewhat confused by an eerror of omission in the print. We said the executive went all the way from a field mouse to mighty mouse in making their decision. "Mighty mouse" was omitted, taking away any meaning or point the metaphor may have had in the first place. Also, while we're at it, in that column we said fighting a "duel" not "dual", and that Dunc Wheeler would have to look "to" his laurels, not "at" them.

Canon Ferguson said: "Foul language was used, and for this there can be no justification." (Agreed). "Small boys are constantly in the bleachers behind the backstop and must not be subjected to such examples." (We concur). "We will continue to deal severely with players guilty of such conduct." (Hear, hear). We have no argument against any of these things, and we suspect that what we said was misunderstood).

Try To Explain

Let's try to explain. Supposing the penalty for stealing sheep were ten years in the pokey, and those who were convicted always got ten years. Then the lawmakers held a meeting and decided that those sheep stealers should get twenty years. So without proclaiming this change, they hauled a sheep-stealer into court next morning, convicted him and gave him twenty years. Not fair, say we. The change in the penalty should have been made known before it was put into effect. Now we hope no one will gather from this that we are in favor of sheep-stealing.

As far as our knowledge extends, no player thumbed out of a softball game in this area had ever received an additional suspension of a game or games. We understood this to be a new policy calculated to curb umpire-baiting which admittedly has been too prevalent here.

If these players had ever been warned that game suspensions would follow a heave-ho, we were unaware of it. Canon Ferguson says further: "If it were a case of a new player, the circumstances might be different." In other words, how players behaved in other years will help to determine their sentences this year. But how do we know that some of these new players were not thrown out of a lot of games in some other leagues last year. If we're going to keep track of the past history of players, let's make a thorough job of it, and get "crime sheets" duly attested to, as players shift from one league to another. As far as sports are concerned, letting bygones be bygones seems to be a wiser course to follow.

We recognize the need for stern measures by umpires and executive in this league, and we must congratulate the present umpires on their resolve not to take abuse from players. But let's make sure that even-handed justice is a part of our system of control.

Last Week's Bouquet

To Dunc Wheeler a hearty "well-done";
Better average than his there is none.
But the blooms to Nick Fillmore,
To his credit there's still more.
He hit Legion's first grand slam home run.

DUST FLIES ON THE TURN

With seven-eighths of a mile left to go in the mile-and-a-quarter Queen's Plate, Askum leads the way with Guiding Wave following close on his heels and Warrior's Day (number 11) moving up. An estimated 29,000 racing fans watched the race, the richest in Canadian racing history. (CP WIREPHOTO)

Canebora Emerges First In Richest Queen's Plate

By JACK SULLIVAN
Canadian Press Sports Editor

TORONTO (CP) — Canebora, a racehorse no one wanted two years ago at the asking price of $7,500, won the richest Queen's Plate in its colorful 104-year history Saturday and returned his multi-millionaire owner, E. P. Taylor of Toronto, a handsome $54,850.

Leftover at Taylor's annual pre-priced yearling sales in September, 1961, Canebora whipped a cumbersome 19-horse field with a hard-driving finish by Panamanian jockey Manuel Ycaza.

At the end of the 1¼-mile classic the colt was a length in front of Son Blue and another half length ahead of Warriors Day who came in for the show money.

Fourth place was taken by Royal Maple, owned by J. Louis Levesque of Montreal, a straining neck behind.

It was his eighth triumph in the last 15-years for Taylor.

Canebora's victory came before 29,308 fans at the suburban Woodbine layout.

TAKES LEAD IN STRETCH

Ycaza gave him a masterful ride. He broke from the 10th starting stall, moved steadily from the outside to go in front just before the field headed into the stretch. He was challenged by both Son Blue and Warriors Day and, with the finish line in sight, Ycaza applied the whip to win easily in 2:04, two seconds off the plate record set by Victoria Park, another Taylor horse, three years ago.

The 3-to-1 choice paid $8.40, $4.40 and $3.10. Son Blue, owned by Wilf Farr of Weston, Ont., returned $5.50 and $4.00 and Warriors Day, a $1,500 purchase by Conn Smythe, former president of Toronto Maple Leaf Gardens, paid $4.40.

Ron Turcotte, 22-year-old riding sensation from Grand Falls, N.B., who was aboard Royal Maple, said he "rode the best horse."

'He broke (from the gate) so badly that by the time I had him straightened out he was a sixteenth of a mile behind the leaders. My horse had too much ground to make up."

Norman Wins Ontario Open

WOODBRIDGE, Ont. (CP)—Moe Norman of Toronto, probably Canada's most colorful golfer, blasted a third-round two-under-par 69 Saturday to win the Ontario Open title at Pine Valley Golf and Country Club with a 54-hole 211 total.

Tied with two amateurs and two pros after 36 holes, the 32-year-old Norman, formerly of Kitchener, whistled through the final round to win by two strokes over amateur Gary Cowan, 24, of Kitchener.

The classic-style Cowan, winner of the 1961 Canadian Amateur title, shot a final round 71 after rounds of 69-73 in the two-day tournament.

Norman had a first-round card of 70 followed with a 72 Saturday. The win earned him $750 first prize money. He won the title in 1958 with the same score.

Last year's open winner, 44 year-old Nick Weslock, of Port Credit, Ont., shot a creditable one-over-par 214 to share third-place with young Copetown, Ont., professional Ron Capra. Weslock, the Pine Valley course record holder with 66, posted 71-73-70 for 214. Capra had 72-70-72.

$1,116 Double Is Highlight

SACKVILLE DOWNS, N.S. (CP) — Saturday night's eight-dash harness racing card here was highlighted by big pays with the daily double returning a whopping $1,116.

Maryland Miss, owned by C.L. Lavers of Three Miles Plains, N.S., — a 90-1 shot — combined with Lady Texas, owned by J. Scott of Lower Sackville, N.S., to return the biggest daily double of the year.

Magic Rapid and Mr. Heekin paid $389 in the quinella. Trixie and Glen Allan yielded $43 in the exactor.

Ferraris Capture Honors In Le Mans

LE MANS, France (AP)—Ferraris captured the first six places in an amazing windup of the Le Mans 24-hour speed and endurance automobile race which ended Sunday, with two Italians breaking the record for distance travelled.

Ludovico Scarfiotti and Lonzo Bondini of Italy covered 2,834.1 miles at an average speed of 118.1 miles an hour in the grueling race which began Saturday and which was marred by one fatal crash.

The previous record distance was 2,781.6 miles, set in 1961 with a Ferrari driven by Phil Hill of the United States and Olivier Gendebien of Belgium.

Bino Heins, 28, of Brazil died when his French-built Alpine skidded on an oil patch into two overturned cars ahead of him. His car burst into flames and he died on the way to hospital.

Only 13 of the original 49 cars which roared away Saturday finished the race in which the accent this year was placed on endurance.

John Surtees of Britain and Willy Mairesse of Belgium had led in a Ferrari for the first 14 hours and looked unbeatable with a lead of more than one lap. Then they were forced out by a motor fire.

SUFFERS BURNS

Mairesse was at the wheel and he pulled the car over and jumped out with burns on his face, right leg and left arm.

The race, however, was a Ferrari festival all the way. During the last two laps, the six Ferraris flashed by in a phalanx, rolling almost together.

But the biggest cheer came for the first jet-powered auto ever to appear in a race. It was a BRM chassis powered by a British Rover turbine which had been especially invited but could not officially compete.

It was driven by Ritchie Ginther of the U.S. and Britain's Graham Hill and bettered expectations by averaging about 108 miles an hour. A special prize of $5,000 had been offered if a jet car finished and maintained an average of at least 93.1 miles an hour.

Island Rifle Team Grabs Inter-Maritime Shoot Sat.

SUSSEX, N.B. (CP) — Prince Edward Island finished strongly at 600 yards to capture the inter-Maritime team rifle shoot here on Saturday by a margin of five points over Nova Scotia and a substantial 17 over New Brunswick, the winner a year ago.

The Islanders turned in a score of 765 out of a possible 840 at 200, 500 and 600 yards. The eight Nova Scotians totalled 760 and New Brunswick 748.

Both Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia posted scores of 260 at 200 yards, with New Brunswick's 258 keeping the hosts in contention.

Nova Scotia pulled in front of Prince Edward Island by four points with 259 at 500 yards against 255, as New Brunswick fell farther behind with 252. The Islanders came right back with 250 at 600 yards as Nova Scotia slipped to 241 and New Brunswick to 238.

W. A. Goss, of the Nova Scotia team was the day's top individual star with 99, made up of a possible 35 at 200 yards, 33 at 500 and 31 at 600. M. Susick, Prince Edward Island, scored the only other possible a 35 at 600 yards. Lieut. Arnold Parks, Saint John; Gnr. D. B. Gibson, Moncton, and S-Sgt. A. E. Lockett, Camp Gagetown, led the New Brunswickers, each with 96.

Shooting as a member of the Nova Scotia team was H. M. Oliver, who will shoot as Bisley for the Canadian team this year. The HMCS Cornwallis man turned in a 95 on Saturday.

Following the shoot, the three teams were guests of the New Brunswick Rifle Association at a dinner in the sergeants mess of the 8 Canadian Hussars (Princess Louise's) (militia) at Camp Sussex. Chairman of the NBRA president, Sgt. F. G. Palmer, Saint John.

Sgt. Palmer extended a welcome to the visitors and presented the trophy to the Prince Edward Island team and individual awards to each of the members of the squad.

Scores were:

Prince Edward Island: R. Barwise 33-31-32 — 96; P. J. Landrigan 32-33-30 — 95; R. A. McCabe 31-34-31 — 96; E. MacLean 30-30-20 — 89; P. C. Taylor 34-33-31 — 98; A. K. Mutch 34-34-30 — 98; H. Jones 34-30-32 — 96; M. Susick 32-30-35 — 97 — 765.

Ump. Al Barlick Quits NL Sunday

CINCINNATI AP) — Umpire Al Barlick suddenly quit the National League staff Sunday. He called Fred Fleig of the National League office to tell him that:

"He was fed up with the whole thing, and was going to quit and go home."

Fleig said, "I have been unable to contact him and hope he will change his mind. He is a good umpire and a fine person."

Barlick came to the National League from the International League toward the close of the 1940 season. He missed the 1956 and 1957 seasons because of illness. Barlick was a protege of the late Bill Klem.

Barlick had long made little secret of his feelings that the National League should have a supervisor of umpires, as does the American League. He was understood to have repeated this opinion at an informal gab session with writers in Cincinnati Saturday night.

RUNS OVER STAFF

Giles runs his own staff of umpires, with league secretary Fleig handling their assignments.

The big balk controversy in the National League earlier this year—at one stage the umpires had called a record 96 to only eight in the American League—was probably increased by umpire dissatisfaction over the arrangements.

The rash of balks was finally stopped by an order from Giles, plus a rule change.

At the time Giles stopped what he had started earlier by calling for strict interpretation, Barlick was quoted as saying he intended to continue to call them as he saw them.

Augie Donatelli, another veteran umpire said he wouldn't call another balk all season, and he hasn't.

3 Double Winners Seen On Harness Racing Card

Hurrah, Chief's Gal and Billy Rice emerged as double dash winners on Saturday night's harness racing program at Charlottetown Driving Park.

Chief's Gal, driven by Clarkie Smith and Billy Rice, reined by Doug Hill, race to new race records on their first trips on this nine-dash card. The Gal now owns a 2.11.3 tab and Billy Rice, a green horse, got a 2.13:2 mark from owner - driver Hill in his first mile.

Countess Alice got a great drive from Walter Craig in the night's third dash and was very much a surprise winner. The four-year-old Cyclonie mare dropped her mark from 2.15:1 to 2.13:2. Miss Flamingo, with Lorne Hennessey in charge, captured the other half of this event in 2.14:4.

The night's single went to Stan Mayhew's Ernie Spencer in 2.18.

Jack Ferguson got himself another couple of victories with that outstanding pacer, Hurrah. The Rodney gelding had the best time of the night, 2.10:2.

Top mutuel pay was for the quinella combination of Countess Alice and Dot's Boy. It was a resounding $108.80. Daily double pays were $6.70 and $5.00 and each exactor ticket on Miss Flamingo and Dot's Boy was good for $16.30.

Countess Alice provided by far the night's greatest upset by breezing to her triumph in dash three. Win tickets on Dr. Preston MacIntyre's mare were each worth a tidy 27.00.

Amigo Mike paid $14.60 to place in dash two and a beautiful $10 for a show ducat.

Next racing program at the local raceway is scheduled for Wednesday night of this week.

A 50-lap endurance race with each driver making two mandatory pit stops featured Saturday night's races at the Covehead Kart Park. The feature covered a distance of 12 miles and took the winner, George Scantlebury, a member of the Hobby Shop Marauders, exactly 22 minutes to cover.

Going into the endurance race, the final point event of the evening, Ray Birt was leading pointgetter for the night but had to give way to Scantlebury after finishing sixth in the race.
