She motored to the island and expects to return to Toronto, Ont., in two weeks' time. While here she is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Campbell of Augustine Cove.

A wedding in Toronto that attracted a lot of attention in this section of Prince County was the DeLory-Myers wedding. Mr. Heath DeLory is a native of North Tryon, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Parker DeLory. He formerly taught school in the Apple Road district and Hampton School. Mrs. DeLory was the former Doris Jean Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. of Hampton, P. E. Island.

The road construction crew of the Curran and Briggs contracting firm of Summerside are building up the turn at Noonan's corner at the junction of the Arnett Road. They are putting in a large fill as this point is a low section of the road. They plan on having this road gravelled by fall and perhaps paved to the Albany Zion Baptist Church.

Mr. Wilbur Waddell of Mount Tryon has been a recent daily visitor to Albany, North Tryon and Tryon. He is assisting his son, Mr. Wyman Waddell with his mail-driving operations. Mr. Wyman Waddell is one of the earliest and most courteous mail drivers ever to operate on this route. He has had his route extended to take in the Leard Point route.

A lot of trucks hauling pulp wood have been passing through Albany the past week. Many of these trucks are owned by the Derby Trucking Co., of Kinkora and are hauling pulp wood to Summerside to be loaded on the S. S. Palmino, sailing for England with 1300 cords of pulp wood.

Mr. Allison Farmer and Mr. Gordon Hamill of Kinkora are agents for the shippers, the P. E. Produce Company of Kensington.
