

SPANISH WOMEN PREPARE FOR REFERENDUM

Three Spanish women look for their names on voting lists in Madrid Tuesday which qualify them to vote in tomorrow's national referendum.

NFL, AFL Super Bowl Set For Los Angeles, Jan. 15

NEW YORK (AP)—The Super Bowl between the champions of the National and the American Football leagues will be played Sunday, Jan. 15, at Los Angeles Coliseum with joint television coverage by the Columbia Broadcasting System and the National Broadcasting Co.

Rights for the game brought a reported $2,000,000. Under the agreement, the game will be carried exclusively in three subsequent years on an alternating basis with CBS, NBC and CBS in that order.

The total payments for the four-year agreement, running through 1970, will be $9,500,000. The rights will be worth $2,500,000 each year after the first year.

In order to hold the Super Bowl Jan. 15, the AFL title game has been moved from Dec. 28 to Sunday, Jan. 1, the same date as the NFL championship game.

Both the AFL and NFL games are to be played in the home parks of the Eastern Division champions. That will be either Boston or Buffalo in the AFL and Dallas or St. Louis in the NFL.

The AFL game will see the Eastern winner taking on Kansas City Chiefs. The NFL game will see the Eastern winner facing Green Bay Packers.

BOTH TO BE SEEN ON TV
Both title games will be televised, the AFL game by NBC and the NFL game by CBS.

Commissioner Pete Rozelle announced the new contract jointly with William C. MacPhail, vice president of CBS Television Sports, and Carl Lindemann Jr., vice president of NBC Sports.

Rozelle also announced a re-scheduling of the All-Star games of both leagues. The AFL game will be played Saturday, Jan. 14, at the Oakland Coliseum. The NFL Pro Bowl game will be played Jan. 22 at Los Angeles.

The Playoff Bowl, between the two NFL runner-up teams, will be played as scheduled Jan. 8 at Miami in the Orange Bowl. Capacity of the Coliseum for the Super Bowl will be 80,000.

Of the gross receipts after deduction of expenses and rental, more than 70 per cent will go to the players in the form of player shares and payments to the player benefit plans in both leagues.

Each winning share will be $15,000 and each losing share $7,500.
