Murray Harbour Citizen Honoured

...Despite adverse travelling conditions, a large group of citizens from Murray Harbour and surrounding districts gathered in the Murray Harbour Community Hall on Monday evening March 30th to do honor to one of their most highly respected citizens, in the person of Mrs. Payne MacLeod, who on that day celebrated her 70th birthday.

After a brief period of music and dancing the chairman, Mr. J. A. McCordle, invited the gathering to order and invited the guest of honour to the platform where Miss Valda Harris, on behalf of the citizens, read an appropriate address to Mrs. MacLeod and presented her with a well-filled purse.

Although taken completely by surprise and quite visibly moved by this unexpected pleasing gesture on the part of her friends, Mrs. MacLeod, as she is fondly called, made a most fitting reply. A beautiful four tier birthday cake, suitably decorated, which was made by Mrs. Gerald Frowse, was presented to Mrs. MacLeod during the course of the evening. Lunch was served to all present after which dancing continued until midnight. Music for the occasion was supplied by Messrs Percy Nicolle, Cecil Chapman and Buddy MacDonald.

The following is the address to Mrs. MacLeod by Mrs. Payne MacLeod. "We, a small group of your friends, are gathered here this evening to do honour to you on this, the anniversary of your birth. The idea which has prompted this gathering is not the one of custom but rather because we, your neighbors and friends, realize in a measure at least your worth to our community.

"Scanning back over the years, and there are many, we see standing out as clearly as the light-houses along our coast those outstanding achievements of yours that have contributed so much to the moral, physical and mental welfare of Murray Harbour. "Your associations with the church as organist, the Sunday school as teacher and superintendent, the Women's Institute as president, the library as librarian and the school board as its efficient secretary show better than mere words the depth and breadth of your contributions to the worthwhile activities of life.

"In the field of entertainment too you have done much to lighten the heavy burdens, ease the overcast and troubled minds by bringing to us brief repites with your truly wonderful interpretations of life's more humorous characters. The monologues of Payne MacLeod are considered a "must" for those who really want the best of good entertainment.

"Your attendance at the local skating rink here to revel in the pleasures of others and the keen interest you still reveal in our national game of hockey, point to a mind that refuses to grow old with the years, but rather holds with the vitality and interests of youth. Youth is a glorious experience and the lovers of youth must themselves be worthy of the evening two anthems "Sunrise On A Hill" (soloist: Mrs. F. N. Young), and "Open The Gates of the Temple" were rendered by the senior choir. The theme of the evening message was "On The Road To Emmaus". A special offering was received for the Canadian National European Flood Relief Fund.
