Thrilled By Moore-Parker Toronto Fight Spectacle

Ringside—Archie Moore-James J. Parker fight. We are sitting, we should judge, somewhere in the vicinity of the pitcher's box in Maple Leaf Stadium, Toronto. Archie Moore, the grand old man of boxing, is doing most of the pitching with Parker, the people's choice, on the receiving end. A perfect night for outdoor boxing, and a record crowd of over 25,000. The event is a smashing success, both financially and from the standpoint of a boxing spectacle, but Jack Solomons' "luxury dream" fell flat on its aristocratic face. Fighting with the idea of renting a tux, we finally decided to go in ordinary garb but were afraid we were going to look like Daniel in a den of social lions. The fear was groundless. Among the "working press" tuxedos were rare. About one in twenty, we should say. Perhaps it was just as well. If this "luxury and fish" idea had caught on, next thing Solomons would be serving tea and crumpets to the boxers between rounds. Glamorous usherettes came round and pinned carnations on all the pressmen, however.

Reds Cut Braves' Lead To 2 1/2 By Sweeping Two From Pirates

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Staff Writer Cincinnati chopped Milwaukee's National League lead to 2 1/2 games Sunday by sweeping a pair from Pittsburgh while the Braves were losing a single game at Philadelphia. Brooklyn also gained a half game on the Braves but lost a chance to close important ground when they dropped the second game to Chicago for a split. Pee Wee Reese's eighth inning homer gave the Dodgers a 1-0 opener behind Don Newcombe but the Cubs took the second, 4-2. As a result the third place Dodgers are four games back with a four-game series opening against Milwaukee tonight.
