THE RIFLE.—The remainder of the Island team left for Ottawa this morning.

POLICE COURT.—This morning a Scott Act case and the cases against the 82nd Battalion bandsmen were adjourned for one week.

THE RING.—A San Francisco despatch of the 28th inst., says: "LaBlanche, the marine, knocked out Jack Dempsey in 32 rounds at the Athletic club last night."

To overcome the marks of age, all who have gray beards should use Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers, the best and cleanest dye for coloring brown or black.

THE M. A. STARR.—The steamer M. A. Starr, left last evening. She carried a full cargo and a number of excursionists on return to Wallace.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR restores color and vitality to weak and gray hair. Through its healing and cleansing qualities, it prevents the accumulation of dandruff and cures all scalp diseases. The best hair dressing ever made, and by far the most economical.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by purifying and enriching the blood, improves the appetite, aids the assimilative process, strengthens the nerves, and invigorates the system. It is, therefore, the best and most thoroughly reliable alterative that can be found for old or young.

BROKE HER RECORD.—The steamer City of Paris, which arrived at New York on Wednesday, has broken her record again, beating her own best time from Queenstown by three hours and forty-nine minutes. The actual time from Queenstown to Sandy Hook lightship was five days, nineteen hours and eighteen minutes. Distance, 2,788 miles.

THE HOME MISSION FIELD.—The home mission field is an important one. In the Belleville, Ontario, police court the other day, one Benjamin Cole was called, but as he did not understand the nature of an oath, he was not sworn. He stated that he was 18 years of age, had never attended day school, church or Sunday school and did not know what a Bible was.

THE MARITIME CIRCUIT.—The well-known trotting horses Confidence and Whistler left this morning to attend the Maritime Circuit, beginning with Truro. The former is owned by Mr. R. McLeod, of Summerside, and the latter by George Essory, of this city. It is understood that Miller's Maud M. and Rodd's Minnie M. will leave for Moncton next week. Both will be in charge of Mr. P. S. Brown.

HE WANTED A WIFE.—The following advertisement, printed apparently in the best of faith, appeared in a recent edition of the London Chronicle:—

MATRIMONY.—A young man, aged 33, of good healthy habits, thoroughly domesticated and sociable, profession a compositor, violinist, possessing the gifts of the poet, with an accumulation of 120 poems in 6,000 lines, also 7,000 lines of prose fiction, all original and unpublished, is wishful to make the acquaintance of a Christian young person, between the age of 24 and 32, with friends abroad (United States preferred;) widow with little means not objected to; view, matrimony and emigration. Address W. R. Barnes, 12 Marlborough Crescent, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

FOR BOSTON.—The steamer Worcester, Capt. Nickerson, left for Boston, last evening, at six o'clock. She carried the usual general cargo. The passenger list bears the following names: Annie Green, Mary McKenna, R Freeman, J Needham, Miss Barr, C L Berry, Master Berry, H Gillis, Miss Matheson, Miss Jenkins, S Lane, Annie Mullins, S Flynn, Mrs S Field, Kate Murphy, S Burke, Mrs Pears, F Pears, Clara Pears, J A Leslie and wife, R E Elwyn, M T O'Connor, G J Tweedy, Miss Wright, J McAleer, R McKenzie, Mrs Lydiard, A Lydiard, Maggie Lydiard, W Lydiard, Miss Moody, Angus McPhee, F Trainor, W Summers, L E Embree, Mrs K McAtee, M A O'Hara, F McLean, and the Misses Moore—40.

A MATRIMONIAL ESCAPADE.—Some time ago the heads of two families living in a flourishing settlement not many miles from Charlottetown, held a consultation at which it was decided that the daughter of one of the parties should wed the son of the other. It was also decided that the marriage ceremony be performed at an early date. The result of the conference was communicated to the young pair. The man took kindly to the business, the girl did not. But her parents insisted upon her carrying out the bargain they had made. Now, the girl had a young man in Boston to whom she was very much attached, and to him she wrote, telling of her trouble. The young man promised to help her out—which promise he faithfully kept. One morning last week the girl came to town, promising to return the same evening. This she did not do, sending word home that she would remain in the city over night to consult an oculist. The next night her lover arrived from Boston, and the following morning the twain left on return to Uncle Sam's domains. Their wedding has probably taken place before this. We have not heard how the love-lorn swain who was left behind took his medicine. In matrimonial affairs it is always well for parents to consult their children before completing arrangements.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

The Great Strike.

LONDON, Aug. 29.

At 4 p. m. the strike was still at a deadlock. The wharfingers have submitted to the dock companies, and the strikers' plan for the settlement of the questions at issue included the proposal to make the American clauses in the bills of lading inoperative as far as they are concerned. The wharfingers and granary keepers representatives of the companies declined to accept this solution of the difficulty, and are preparing a manifest in which they will declare that they will only pay 5 pence per hour. The telegraph construction and maintenance company's men at Greenwich have struck. The tailers are joining the strike. The crew of three American cattle ships have joined the strikers. Burns says that the dockmen will firmly adhere to the position taken, and will not reduce their demand.

Behring Sea Matters.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.

A letter was received from an officer of the U. S. steamer Richard Rush, by the steamer St. Paul, which arrived from Ounalaska Tuesday night, stating that, on Aug. 6th the Rush captured the British sealing schooner Lily in Behring Sea, while taking seals in Behring Sea. The schooner was searched, and 300 skins found and placed on board the Rush. A prize crew of one man was placed on board, and the Lily sent to Sitka. The seized sealers will have their cases tried in the Alaskan District Court.

The White Caps Again.

OTTAWA, Aug. 29.

White caps have appeared in Wellington County, Ont., and last night a farmer living near Guelph was dragged from his bed by masked men and a severe thrashing administered to him. He had been warned several times lately that something would be done by this society, but he did not heed the warnings until four stout men came into the room, taking him out of bed. He presents a terrible appearance, his face being kicked to a jelly and his body all black and blue.
