Charges Mentally Ill Mistreated

TORONTO, (CP)—Treatment of mentally ill patients at Toronto's Don Jail is not much ahead of the Dark Ages, a former inmate of the jail charged Monday.

In an anonymous letter to the legislature's select committee on reform institutions, the former prisoner said he saw one mental patient senselessly beaten by a trusty. Another patient, he charged, had been beaten twice by a trusty and a guard and tied to his bed for the rest of the night.

The writer of the letter, which was sent to Rev. A. W. Downer,
