

Saints Roar Back To Earn Deadlock

Saint Dunstan's Varsity hockey squad threw the Island Senior Hockey League's greatest surprise to date when they roared from behind a 4-0 deficit Saturday night at the Red and White arena and skated off the ice tied with Charlie Hogan's P.E.I. Aces at 5-5.

Saints who absorbed a 10-4 lounding from Perfection Penguins Thursday night seemed, for the first part of Saturday's game, headed for a similar fate. They trailed 4-0 with more than 30 minutes of play completed and the future wasn't looking bright.

But then it happened. Tony Demers finally beat Thane Mann at 15:35 of the second period and the university rink crowd roared its approval. It was Tony's first of three markers. Before the session ended the scholars had banged home another, Russ Browne sinking Reg Ryan's pass with 37 seconds of the stanza remaining.

This set the stage for a furious third period onslaught by the Saints who finally had things even by 4:30 on two goals by Demers. Tony made it 4-3 at the :58 second mark and then got things all even a little less than four minutes later, with Cough and Des Champs drawing assists.

However, it seemed as though the great comeback was all in vain when Coke Grady made it a 5-4 hockey game with Ivan St. Julien resting in the penalty box. The little didn't bother the Saints one little bit and it took them only seven seconds to knot the score at 5-5. It was Russ Browne again and the helpmate was Reg Ryan.

Saints trailed 3-0 after one period of play on goals by Greg Delgan, Benny Grady and Paul Schurman. The score, however, didn't indicate the play as Saints passed up several great opportunities to get on the score sheet. Their own wildness around the net plus some great goaltending by Thane Mann had them trail-

Aces Will Host Royals Tonight

Sandy's Royals of Charlottetown and Hogan's Aces of Summerside meet once again at Civic Stadium in Summerside tonight, and if they can put on a repeat performance of the game that was played last Friday evening, fans are bound to be happy. Not very often in the past few years has there been a more exciting hockey match played at the Stadium than that battle between the Royals and Aces Friday.

The Charlottetown club smarting from that unexpected defeat by the P.E.I. Aces will certainly

Trotters, YMCA Notch Victories

A sustained drive late in the second half brought LePage's Trotters from 11 points down to victory by one point in the last few seconds over the BYC Trotters, in a City Hoop League tilt. The final score was 45-44.

In the second game of the doubleheader, YMCA romped to a 57-49 win over St. Dunstan's. It was the first one-sided win in the schedule so far this year.

The Basilio Youth Club with Gillis, Cumiskey and MacDonalld breaking sharply for the basket on long passes which caught the Trotters off balance rolled to a 19-14 lead at half-time and increased it to a 11-point spread midway through the second.

However, the Trotters tightened their defence and their shifty centreman, MacLean, sank rebound after rebound to cut the margin. With a minute and a half to go and down five points the Trotters kept pressing until they sank the basket which gave them victory by one point seconds before the horn sounded. MacLean racked up 21 points.

Patchell was the top scorer for the "Y" team in the second game potting eight field goals and three foul shots for 19 points. Ed Murphy, before he was banished by the referee had 12 points to lead the Saints scorers. Poor shooting by the SDU team foiled their attempts to keep pace with the heavier "Y" squad, who also exhibited a good passing attack

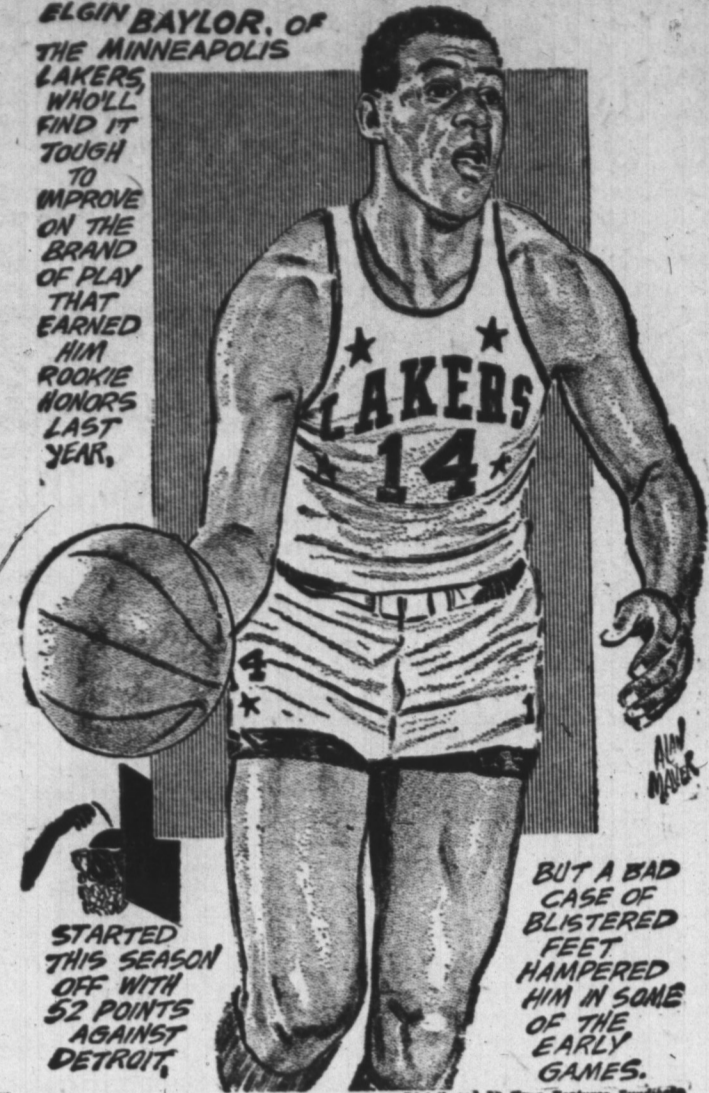

Ingo Is Disgusted

GOTHENBURG, Sweden (Reuters)—A "fed-up" Inzemar Johansson said Sunday he was "almost losing interest" in a return world heavyweight title fight with Floyd Patterson.

Inzemar, visiting his hometown before beginning a three-week exhibition tour of South America on Wednesday, complained to reporters about the boxing scandals and other repercussions that broke out in the United States after he blasted the world title from Patterson in New York last June.

"Everything is in such a terrible muddle," he said. "I am getting fed up and almost losing interest in a title bout."

Minor Hockeyists Have Busy Day

Saturday was another action-packed noisy day at Sports Arena as hundreds of young hockeyists ranging from 7 to 18 years of age worked out under the watchful eyes of a goodly number of enthusiastic volunteer coaches who plan to give an hour or so of their time each week to help their young charges enjoy themselves and get a chance at some good wholesome exercise.

There was almost 100 per cent attendance on all teams Saturday, but a few of the younger boys seemed to get a bit mixed on the timing of their sessions. All boys and parents are re-

Hawks Score Lopsided Win

By THE CANADIAN PRESS Some of Saturday night's National Hockey League interest shifted to the bottom of the league as the front-running Montreal Canadiens continue making the top a runaway.

Chicago Black Hawks picked up their fourth win of the season with a decisive 6-2 triumph over New York Rangers at Chicago and moved into a fifth-place tie with Rangers. It was Hawks third win this year over the skidding New Yorkers who have gone seven games without a victory.

The Canadiens meanwhile stretched their unbeaten string to 17 with a slim 1-0 win over Detroit Red Wings at Montreal. Jacques Plante marked up his second shutout of the season while Jean Beliveau rapped in the winning goal at 19:32 of the second period. It was Jean's 11th this year.

LEAFS, BRUNS TIE In the other Saturday game, the Maple Leafs salvaged a 2-2 tie with Boston Bruins at Toronto, lifting the Leafs into a second-place deadlock with Detroit.

Rookie Stan Mikita paced the Chicago attack on Rangers' new goalie Marcel Paille with a two-goal performance. Bob Hull, Ron Murphy, Ken Wharram and Eddie Litzenberger counted the others. Camille Henry and Dean Prentice potted the New York goals. Defenceman Tim Horton was the Toronto savior, connecting late in the third period for the tying goal. Ron Stewart got the other. For Boston, Doug Mohns and Don McKenney were the marksmen.

Bus' Can Carry Fans To S'ide

A bus carrying Sandy's Royals to Summerside for a hockey game tonight will leave the Charlottetown Sports Arena at 6 o'clock. Anyone wishing to attend the game is welcome.

Bombers Retain Grey Cup; Prevail Over Ticats 21-7

By JACK SULLIVAN Canadian Press Staff Writer TORONTO (CP)—The fumble is still the best play in football. Winnipeg Blue Bombers proved that point Saturday when they capitalized on a Hamilton Tiger-Cat fumble to send them on their way to a 21-7 Grey Cup victory over Ticats in a final 10-minute offensive surge that produced 18 points and turned an unspectacular game into a roaring close.

The final gun sent the grandstand quarterbacks scurrying into sessions that will continue for days. It also boomed out Winnipeg's second straight Cup triumph over the Bengals and the fifth for the west in the last six years.

The Bombers had been throttled in their own end of the soggy field for nearly 50 minutes by Ticats whose unimaginative offence sputtered and died when they were within striking range of the Bomber goal line. In that period it was an uninspiring game for the record 33,133 Eastern Canada football crowd at the waterfront Canadian National Exhibition Stadium.

QUICK KICKS The Tiger-Cats spotted the western champions an early 3-0 lead and went on the prowl to average the 55-28 beating they took from Winnipeg in 1958, but great defensive play by the Bombers and alert, booming quick-kick punts by fullback Charlie Shepard turned them back.

It was an unusual game in many respects. The Bombers had been able to penetrate into Hamilton territory only twice from the opening kickoff until the first play of the fourth quarter.

Ticats narrowly missed scoring a touchdown in the second quarter when the ball squirted from veteran Vince Scott's grasp in the Winnipeg end zone after he had blocked a kick. There was the third-quarter play when the Hamilton board of strategy called for a third-down field goal with Tiger-Cats in possession on the Winnipeg two-yard line and Ticats behind only 2-1.

But the big play, and the one that will be talked about, was the fumble by fullback Gerry McDougall early in the final session that Bombers turned into their winning touchdown and an 11-7 lead.

SHEPARD TOPS The 23-year-old Shepard, formerly with North Texas State and Pittsburgh Steelers, scored from 45 yards out after the fumble. He booted four singles—two of them on quick kicks—was top ground gainer for the Bombers with 54 yards on 16 carries and voted by sports writers and broadcasters as the outstanding player in the game.

The Bombers started to move after Steve Oneschuk had kicked his second field goal at 14:46 of the third quarter, a 27-yarder that put Tiger-Cats in front 7-3. That, as it turned out, was the dying gasp of the Tiger-Cats, the team that steam-rolled over Big Four opposition during the season and that had whipped an injury-riddled Bomber team 32-7 in the 1957 cup final.

The big crowd sensed that a break was necessary to blow the game wide open and it wasn't long coming. Shepard kicked his first single, a 36-yarder, at 2:48, and just more than two minutes later Bombers got their first touchdown.

McDougall's fumble was picked up on the Hamilton 43 by tackle Buddy Tinsley, at 3:48, and the "old man" of the Winnipeg club and a tremendous performer throughout the afternoon.

PERFECT PASS The spirited Tiger-Cats didn't know what hit them. While Bombers lined up and McDougall was being verbally spanked by coach Jim Trimble in front of the Tiger-Cat bench, quarterback Kenny Ploen whipped a perfect strike to end Farrell Funston at the five and he was downed on the three.

Shepard smacked over from there on the play that broke up the tight-fitting game. There was an ironic twist to the touchdown. Ralph Golston, the best deep pass defender in Eastern Canada pro football, had just returned to the Hamilton bench from the dressing room where he had an injured ankle frozen and Trimble had inserted sophomore Len Chandler in his spot.

The 23-year-old Canadian, who had been used mainly on kick-off runbacks during the season, was practically deked out of his uniform by Funston, a late cut this season by Cleveland Browns of the National Football League. Funston had been touted as the man to watch in pre-game gossip and his catch justified his press clippings.

Nothing could stop the inspired Bombers. In the final seconds they took over on the Hamilton 33-yard line when a third-down pass from punter Cam Fraser to Chandler failed to gain the necessary yardage. Ploen passed to end Ernie Pihls in the Tiger-Cat end zone for the final touchdown.

Gerry James, a left-footed kicker, made good on the converts. He also kicked a 21-yard field goal immediately after the game's opening kickoff when Bombers moved downfield from their 23-yard line. Hamilton's near-touchdown occurred early in the second session with the Bombers scrimmaging from their own 18 after Eddie Bevan, an old running mate of Scott's, gathered in a fumble by Winnipeg rookie Henry Janzen after a Fraser punt.

Scott charged in to block the kick with his chest, knocked the ball into the end zone and galloped after it with three Tiger-Cats on his heels. He appeared to fall on the ball and it bounded away from him. Ticats had to settle for a single when Bomber Jack Delveaux roared in past Hamilton players to pounce on it.

President Jake Gaudaur of Tiger-Cats disagreed with the official call. "As long as you have momentary possession of the ball behind the goal line, it's a touchdown," he said.
