LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

"The Tramp."

SIR,—I am glad that the threatened re-appearance of "the Tramp" has called forth editorial comment; but I am surprised at the remedies suggested by one of your correspondents. Lyncing is, of course, out of the question, and boycotting is impracticable. Simple and effective means can be made use of without breaking the law or wasting time in boycotting. If a vagrant become a nuisance, the authorities give him so many hours to follow the Kerry Grit's advice and "love the country." There never was a greater nuisance, nor a more troublesome vagrant, than this man, whether he be guilty or not, and if he be arrested as a nuisance as soon as he comes to town, and ordered to leave the city within a few hours, upon pain of imprisonment, we will quickly be rid of our dangerous visitor, without resorting to protracted or illegal measures.

Yours, &c.,
A. H. A.

The Montague Address.

SIR,—I am sure you will agree with me that the address of our Montague Grits is one of the most unique productions that has appeared for some time. It has been published in the Patriot. It is addressed to Messrs. Davies and McIntyre, M. P.'s. The addressers begin by declaring themselves "the electors of King's County," "happy to convey to you the thorough confidence we repose in you as our representative." Mr. Davies is generally looked upon as the Grit member for Queen's. Our Montague Grits, it would appear, claim him as "our representative." In the next paragraph they (the addressers) call to mind "the great assistance you rendered in obtaining for this Province freedom from the bondage of landlordism." Pray what did Mr. Davies do to abolish landlordism? The Conservatives passed the Compulsory Land Purchase Act, which led to the extinction of landlordism on this Island. Mr. Davies may have assisted some, as a lawyer in the courts, but for his services as such, he was handsomely paid, and deserves no thanks whatever. As for Dr. McIntyre, what did he ever do for the down-trodden tenantry? His antecedents, as well as his present ambitions, are all in favor of landlordism and its accompanying evils.

Then we are told that the conduct of these two M. P.'s, with reference to the Franchise Act, is highly commendable. The words of this part of the address deserve to be quoted in full: "Your strenuous opposition to the disgraceful Franchise Bill last session, whereby our young men have been deprived of a heritage they enjoyed from the Liberal party for a quarter of a century." And just here comes a full stop—and no wonder. Now, a young man requires to be 21 years of age before he is entitled to vote under any Franchise. Therefore "our young men," having enjoyed the right of voting for the last 25 years, must be, according to this, exactly 46 years of age. Rather old boys, these! What a shame to deprive them of their heritage? It so happens that no young man in this Province has been deprived of his vote. All who have voted hitherto have still that right preserved to them under the new Franchise law. What more do the Grits want?

Further on, reference is made to Free Trade and the Fishery Award; and what barefaced misrepresentation this part of the address displays. Mr. Davies is lauded to the skies for the part he played in connection with the Fishery Award. The addressers must have a very low opinion of the people of this country if they expect them to believe that Mr. Davies is sincere on the fishery question. How he feathered his own nest out of the fishery business is now matter of history, and still we are asked to swallow all these partisan Grits say about his "noble efforts" and "able advocacy." Out upon such rot. The fifth paragraph is quite a curiosity in literature. It is a sort of literary hodge-podge, made up of C. P. R. timber grants, grants of coal, exorbitant (Manoah) printing charges, etc. The sentence which follows, however, written, as indeed was most of the address, if I mistake not, by the individual who in dancing the double shuffle got left behind, is more easily understood. It is, "doubtless, intended as a heavy home-thrust in behalf of popular rights." "Wilkes and Liberty" was at one time a very popular cry in England. A similar cry here would not be worth a cent to our local political martyr. "Served him right" would take much better in his case.

I pass on to the concluding words of the address, which are strung together in a sort of a prayer. Divine Providence is trusted to spare the lives of the two M. P.'s, that they may continue to oppose the present Government in all its undertakings, and thus lead to the "elevation and advancement" of their fellow-countrymen. The words just quoted explain the whole situation. A few ambitious Grits, who are pleased to style themselves the Southern Reform Association, want to be elevated and advanced, that is to say, some of them want to get into Parliament, while others are in search of the offices. And it is no use in their trying to hide it. Everyone knows who runs the Grit machine here, and for what purposes? Not for the elevation and advancement of our fellow-countrymen. No such thing. It is run simply for the purpose of trying to elevate and advance the interests of a few disappointed politicians and office hunters, and for no other purpose whatever. And this fact fully explains the true inwardness of that economic, sy-cophantic, smashed-up-English address that was read the other night at the meeting.

Yours truly,
Montague, Oct. 1st, 1885.

Obituary.

DEPARTED this life, on Saturday, the 26th ult., at the residence of her brother, Mr. Andrew Bowness (Kensington), Adelia, aged 29 years, beloved wife of Solomon J. B. Leard, Esq., J. P., of Her Majesty's Customs, Crapaud, and daughter of James and Sarah Bowness, Brooklyn. Deceased was married November 1st, 1873, and came to Crapaud, where she since resided, until some time last summer, when, on account of delicate health, she went on a cruise to see her parents, and at the same time to have the benefit of the medical attendance of Dr. Darrach, M. D., of Kensington, her former medical adviser. But though everything was done that could be, both by her attending physicians (Drs. Alex. McNeill and D. Darrach) and kind friends to retard the progress of the disease (consumption), all efforts proved fruitless, and death ultimately claimed her for his own. She died in perfect peace, trusting in the merits of her Saviour. Mrs. Leard was known for her many amiable qualities while she resided in our midst, and endeared herself to a large circle of friends, whose sincere and heartfelt sympathies are with the bereaved husband in his sore affliction. He (Mr. Leard) has been confined to his house for some days through illness, but we are glad to see him out again, though looking thin and weary.—Cosm.

Crapaud, Oct. 3, 1885.

Boston Markets.

BOSTON, Sept. 30.
POTATOES.—The market for potatoes is a little firmer, with sales of Aroostook Rose at 50 to 55c., other Eastern at 45 to 48c., and Northern at 35 to 45c per bushel.

EGGS.—There has been a further advance in Eggs, with sales of Eastern extras at 21½ and 22c, New York and Vermont at 20½ and 21c, and Canadian and Island at 20 and 20½. We quote P. E. Island at 20½.

FISH.—The jobbing trade is falling off and round lots are not so easily placed. The outlook for the shore catch is a little more favorable, but receipts from fleet continue light and prices are firm. Sales from pickle have been made at $5.75 per brl. without brl. and $6.50 and $7 with brl. Separate lots of No. 3 are held at $4.50, and No. 1 are firm at $18 to $20 per brl. No. 2 are plentiful at $7 and $8 per brl. as to quality. Several lots of P. E. Island have been received, but no reliable quotation can be given, as the brand is no indication of the quality in the barrel. Fat No. 1 command full prices. Nova Scotia No. 3 are quiet at $5.50 to $6 per brl. With large receipts of Nova Scotia dry Bank Codfish prices are easier, two or three cargo lots having been disposed of at $3 per qtl. Medium sizes are scarce, and command $2.50 per qtl. Pickle cured Bank are steady at $3 for large and $2.50 for medium. Pickle cured Shore command $3.50, and dry Shore are worth about $4. Hake are in fair demand at $2.25 per qtl. Pollock and Haddock inactive and nominal. Pickled Herring are in liberal receipt from the Provinces, a cargo of 2,947 brls. Labrador, with other lots, having arrived since Saturday, but prices are fairly maintained. Sales from the Labrador cargo at $4.75 per brl. Shore Herring are also arriving more freely, with sales at $3 per brl. Canned Mackrel are getting quite scarce, and some dealers have withdrawn their stock altogether. Others are holding at 90 and 95c. per dozen.

NOTES.

Not the promissory, but facts about WELCOME SOAP, an article that does not contain one particle of the adulterations used to reduce the cost of "Pure Goods," but does possess the value of legitimate Washing Qualities, the demand for which proves the advantage gained by the use of the genuine over Soaps of doubtful character. None should be deceived even by Red and Yellow Wrappers,
