OBITUARY.

It is with feelings of deep regret we are called upon to record the death of Andrew Hynes, of A berry Plains, who passed peacefully away on Thursday, 11th inst., at the advanced age of seventy-nine years. Up to the time of his death he was about as usual. On Wednesday morning he complained of not feeling well, and shortly after failure of the heart set in and he gradually grew worse. At eleven o'clock on Thursday night he expired in the presence of his loving wife, sons, and daughters, who did all in their power to comfort his last moments. The last rites of his church were administered to him by his pastor, R. V. Dr. Doyle. The deceased was a man of sterling integrity, who by his amiable disposition won the love and esteem, not only of those with whom he associated, but of all who knew him. By his death Alberry Plains loses a charitable neighbor, the Catholic Church a pious and devoted member, and his beloved wife, sons and daughters a loving husband and father. On Sunday the 14th inst., his remains were followed by a very large concourse to St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River, which was fully draped for the occasion. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Doyle, after which the remains were taken to the cemetery, where all that was mortal was laid to rest to await the sounding of the trumpet which will call us all together. To his bereaved wife, five sons and four daughters, two brothers and four sisters, we tender our heart-felt sympathy. May his soul rest in peace.

Dearest father thou hast left us,
 And our loss we deeply feel;
 But 'tis God who has bereft us,
 He can all our sorrows heal.

FATHER McCALLEN'S TRIBUTE TO THE VALUE OF
 "THE DIXON CURE"

FOR THE LIQUOR AND DRUG HABIT.

On the occasion of a lecture delivered before a large and appreciative audience, in Windsor Hall, Montreal, in honor of the Father Mathew Anniversary, Rev. J. A. McCallen, S. S., of St. Patrick's Church, without any solicitation or even knowledge on my part, paid the following grand tribute to the value of Mr. A. Hutton Dixon's medicine for the cure of the alcohol and drug habits.

Referring to the PHYSICAL CRAVE engendered by the inordinate use of intoxicants he said: When such a crave manifests itself, there is no escape, unless by a miracle of grace or by some such remedy as Mr. Dixon's Cure about which the papers have spoken so much lately. As I was, in a measure responsible for that gentleman remaining in Montreal, instead of going farther West, as he had intended, I have taken on myself without his knowledge or consent to call attention to this new aid which he brings to our temperance cause. A PHYSICAL CRAVE REMOVED, the work of total abstinence becomes easy. If I am to judge of the value of "The Dixon Remedy" by the cures which it has effected under my own eyes, I must come to the conclusion that what I have longed for twenty years to see discovered, has at last been found by that gentleman, namely a medicine which can be taken privately, without the knowledge of even one's own intimate friends without the loss of a day's work, or absence from business, and without danger to the patient, and by means of which the PHYSICAL CRAVE for intoxicants is completely removed. The greatest obstacle I have always found to success in my temperance work has been, not the want of good will on the part of those to whom I administered the pledge, but the ever recurring and terrible PHYSICAL CRAVE, which seemed able to tear down in a few days what I had taken months and even years to build up. Therefore, on this Father Mathew anniversary do I pay willing and hearty tribute to "The Dixon Remedy" for the cure of alcohol and morphine habits. I do so by a sense of duty towards those poor victims who cry out for relief from the terrible slavery under which they suffer. It is the first time in my life that I have departed from that reserve for which our clergy are noted in such circumstances. If I do so now it is because I feel that I am thus advancing the cause of temperance. (Montreal Gazette, Oct. 23.)

NOTE.—Father McCallen is president of St. Patrick's Total Abstinence Society, of Montreal and the cure to which he refers above can be had of the discoverer, Mr. A. Hutton Dixon, 20 Park Avenue, Montreal, who will send full particulars on application.

ACCIDENT YESTERDAY.—Yesterday afternoon about half-past five o'clock as Mr. Charles McGregor, the well-known contractor, and two of his workmen, Messrs. Fred Evans and Nathaniel Smith, were at work shingling the roof of a house on Weymouth Street occupied by Mr. S. A. McLeod, the scaffolding upon which they were standing gave way and all three were precipitated to the ground. A barn in the vicinity broke the fall of Messrs. McGregor and Evans; but Mr. Smith fell the entire distance and his head struck the ground with force. He was picked up as quickly as possible and carried to the residence of Mr. M. J. Moren near by where all that could be done for him was done. Drs. S. R. Jenkins and H. D. Johnson were soon on the scene, and about half an hour later the injured man was removed to the Prince Edward Island Hospital. He was suffering from several scalp wounds, and was in an unconscious condition until a late hour last night. Today he is reported doing as well as can be expected. Mr. McGregor did not sustain any injuries. Mr. Evans' ankle is somewhat injured.
