Northam Notes
Best wishes and congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Campbell on their recent marriage March 8th. Their many friends and relatives wish them many years of happy wedded life.
The many friends of Mrs. Earnest Newcombe are pleased to know that she is somewhat improved in health. Mrs. Newcombe has been a patient in the Prince County Hospital for several weeks.
Friends and relatives of Mr. Wilfred McDougall will learn with regret of his illness. All join in the hope that he will make a quick and complete recovery.
It is pleasing to note that Mr. Woodland Colwill is able to be around and about again having been confined to his home through illness for the past week.
The Junior Calf Club held a social evening in the Northam School, Friday evening, March 2nd. A very large number were in attendance. The young farmers are very enthusiastic and are busily making their summer plans. A nice sum was realized which will go in aid of their club.
Friends of Master Brian Colwill will be happy to learn that his condition is now much improved, and all join in the hope that he will make a speedy and complete recovery.
The Northam Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Ivan Linkletter on Thursday evening, March 8th. Roll call was answered by twenty-two members present and also a number of visitors. A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Linkletter for her kind hospitality, after which lunch was served by the hostess and the committee in charge.
LONDON—(CP)—After watching from a nearby scaffolding a thief slipped into the house of Mrs. Dora Goldberg, 80, and stole jewelry and cash valued at $2,100.

"Easy to be Lux Lovely."
says this beautiful star
"My beauty care makes skin softer, smoother," says this lovely star. "First I work the rich lather well in, rinse with warm water, finish with a splash of cold. Then pat with a towel to dry. Nothing like a Lux Soap beauty facial to give skin quick new loveliness." You try this fragrant white soap famous Hollywood Stars depend on!
