The world's greatest contralto in speaking of the Heintzman Piano says:

"The tone was rich and full—all that a singer could desire. It has been my privilege to sing before the pianos of leading makers in all parts of the world, but my experience with the Heintzman & Co piano justifies me in saying that it will take a position along with the best of them."

The SCOTCH WHISKY chosen by the Red Cross Society, London, for use by the invalided troops and hospitals in South Africa, is the famous WHITE HORSE CELLAR' brand of MacKie & Co., Distillers, Limited, Islay and Glasgow, one of the oldest firms in the trade. On intimation of this, Messrs MacKie, with usual generosity, presented 200 cases free of charge, and shipped them by first steamer to the Cape.

One of the family is a volunteer in the Imperial Yeomanry, and on his way now to the Cape. It is hoped that he may give a good account of himself.

SAID UNCLE JOSH.

"When I wuz a boy," said Uncle Josh, "Things wuzn't ez they be now, by gosh!

"In them old days it wuz thought that a boy didn't need fer 't hev anything 't enjoy. All thet he wuz good for wuz jest 't work. An for his amusements—why, there wuz th' kirk. An there every Sunday he had 't go. Whether he wanted to or no. They didn't pin cabbages on their coats. An git out an yell 't split their throats. An didn't wear ribbons ner carry a cane. Ner wear hair ez long ez a horse's mane. Mabe, uv course, they wuz stidder then, An mabe they turned out 't be better men, But I'm bound fer 't say thet when thet's said an done

They didn't begin 't hev ez much fun, An ez fer their beln so much beyond 't 't boys uv th' present I wuz 't pretend. Thet it mayn't be so, but ez my name's Josh, I don't believe it; I don't, by gosh!

"Last week I hitched up an druv 't town 't git some groceries an wife a gown, An uv all th' doin's I ever see There never wuz nuthin thet touched thet spree. Th' tavern wuz filled with collidge boys, An each one wuz tryin 't make th' most noise; They yelled an hooted 't beat th' band. An said somethin I couldn't understand 'Bout raw, raw, raw, an somethin more, An all they wuz talkin about wuz th' score, I listened awhile, an then I said 'T one young man with a shaggy head, 'Ef you wuz my boys, ez my name is Josh, I'd luther ye all; I would, by gosh!

An then he laughed, an he told th' rest, An every last one uv 'em round me pressed, An almost afore I could even wink. Some one suggested I needed a drink. They hustled me out—although I s'pose They didn't hev fer 't tear my clothes 'Count uv my holdin back—an then They stood me up, an they bought an bought, An I dranked with 'em until I thought, Ez certainly ez my name is Josh, Thet I'd bust wide open; I did, by gosh!

"Then they tuk me in, an I et my fill, An they paid th' tavern keeper's bill. I guess I wuz full ez a billygoat, Fer I let 'em pin cabbages on my coat An cover me over frum head 't foot. With ribbins an give me a horn 't toot, An when they had deckerayed me out They marched me down an begin 't shout, 'Here is our mascot—m-a-s-c-o-t. 'What a mascot, an I said yes. 'But a mascot is hain't no idee, But of you fellers says I'm one, why, I be; Ez certainly ez my name is Josh, You bet I'm a mascot; I be, by gosh!

"An then I marched with 'em down th' street, Fearnin every minute thet I would meet Some feller who know'd me and who'd say I, Fer an oldish woster, wuz Flynn high. 'I see th' game frum a bully seat. An I yelled an yelled when our side beat; Rode back 't the tavern along with th' team. An they treated me bully, an thet's no dream. I staid 't supper an went 't th' train 'T see 'em start hum through the pourin rain, Then hitched up my horses an started too— Fergot th' arrants I had 't do— Got jawed by wife when I druv in th' barn, But I told her I didn't care a darn; I hed hed the bulleest day uv my life. Then I took off my cabbidge an laid it away In th' bure drawer, where it's goin 't stay 'Till th' football season comes ag'in, Then I'll put it on, an I'll help 't win Another game; ez my name is Josh, I certainly'll do it; I will, by gosh!"

—Minneapolis Journal.
