Easily Mistaken.

It really takes sharp eyes to avoid mistaking our preferences for our needs.
One of the easiest things in the world is to persuade ourselves that we need that to which our desires prompt us.
It is often the saddest idler of the school-room who fancies that his health will break down unless the long vacation arrives speedily. Lazy people always need rest. Those who do least for themselves are most positive that they need outside help.

It is safe for most of you to give more thought to the needs of others than to your own. Think of mother's need of rest, of your invalid neighbor's need of entertainment, of the poor and sick and suffering about you, with their unsatisfied longings. When we see what the majority of people do without we shall be less likely to place undue emphasis upon the desires we have mistaken for needs.—Canadian Churchman.

Giving and Getting.

As we give so will we get. We save ourselves by saving others. "There is that maketh poor and yet maketh rich." And so the church that is imbued with the true missionary spirit is always blessed with domestic prosperity. Take the case of congregations. In exact proportion as they support missions is in nine cases out of ten the measure of their own prosperity. Show us a congregation zealous in the work of missions and we will show you a congregation whose parson is paid up to the day, whose church is liberally maintained, whose finances are elastic and where everything, as the saying is, runs on four wheels.—Church Work.

We are so bitterly jealous and suspicious of each other, so afraid that one denomination may steal a march on another, that we have been willing to rob our children of the priceless boon of religious instruction. We love religion a good deal but we hate each other more. This is the case as it stands in all its naked undisguised ugliness.
It is the fault, not of infidels or sceptics or unbelievers or of the indifferent and worldly minded, but of people who say that religion is the most precious thing in the world.—Church Work.

—To pray as God would have us; to pray with all the heart and strength, with the reason and the will; to believe vividly that God will listen to your voice through Christ, and verily do the thing He pleaseth thereupon—this is the last, the greatest achievement of the Christian's warfare on earth.

—The diamond is intended to flash out its brilliancy to the world, but it cannot do so until it is mined and polished. The mind, the brilliancy of man is intended to shed forth its lustre, but cannot do so until it is developed and cultivated.

A religion without mysteries would be like a ladder in the air. It would lead nowhere. The mysteries, so called, of religion are only mysteries because we cannot see to the end of them. They are the bridge between the visible and invisible.

The man who thinks that he will be saved by his correct belief alone, is like the savage who hung a bottle of medicine round his neck as a charm against disease.

The Old Hymns.

There's lots of music in 'em—the hymns of long ago, An' when some gray-haired brother sings the ones I used to know I sorter want to take a hand—I think o' days gone by,
"On Jordan's stormy banks I stand and cast a wistful eye.

There's lots o' music in 'em—those dear, sweet hymns of old, With visions bright of lands of light, and shining streets of gold;
And I hear 'em ringing—singing, where Mem'ry, dreaming stands, "From Greenland's icy mountains to India's coral strands,"

They seem to sing forever of holier, sweeter days,
When the lilies of the love of God bloomed white in all the ways; And I want to hear their music from the old-time meetin's rise Till "I can read my title clear to mansions in the skies."

We never needed singin' books in them old days—we knew The words—the tunes of every one the dear old hymn book through!
We didn't have no trumpets then—no organs built for show; We only sang to praise the Lord "from whom all blessings flow."

An' so, I love the old hymns, and when my time shall come—Before the light has left me and my singing lips are dumb, If I can only hear 'em then I'll pass without a sigh
"To Canaan's fair and happy land, where my possessions lie."

Asthma Cure vs. Asthma Relief.

It is a recognized fact among those suffering from asthma that the longer they use the temporary relief asthma remedies which require to be burned, the worse they become, until it loses its effect entirely.
Clarke's Kola Compound is not among this class, but will permanently cure the worst case of asthma in from 60 to 90 days. Mr.
F. J. Painton, proprietor of Painton's Music Store, Vancouver, B. C., writes: "I have been a great sufferer from asthma in its worst form for over 15 years, and had consulted many physicians both in England and Canada, but obtained no relief. A friend of mine who had been cured by the Kola Compound advised me to try it, and three bottles have entirely cured me. It is now over two years since my recovery and asthma has not troubled me since; and previous to taking Clarke's Kola Compound I have many nights had to sit up nearly all night. It is truly a wonderful remedy, and it affords me much pleasure in attesting my appreciation of anything so worthy." Clarke's Kola Compound is sold by all druggists. Free sample bottle sent to any person. Mention this paper. Address The Griffiths & Macpherson Co., 124 Church street, Toronto, or Vancouver, B. C., sole

ONLY FOUR BOXES

of Dodd's Kidney Pills Were Needed to Cure Mr. Willis.

Woodstock, Ont., Apr. 3.—There are many Woodstock people who owe their good health, and others who are indebted for their lives, to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Among the former is Mr Nasa Willis, 295 Dundas Street, who has recently made his story public.

"For several years," says Mr Willis, "I have suffered from Kidney Troubles, pain in the small of my back, etc. I got slight relief from some of the various medicines I used. My son, who was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills, urged me to try them. I did so. I used four boxes and can safely say I am cured."

Fertilizer Facts!

The value of all Fertilizers consist in the amount of soluble Phos. Acid, Nitrogen, and Potash they contain, and the brand which shows the greatest value in these is the one to buy, on the same principle that milk testing 4 per cent. butter fat is more valuable than 3 per cent. milk ENGLISH MAN-URES costing the same price, contain 20 per cent. to 25 per cent. more Phos.
Acid, Nitrogen and Potash than any other complete Fertilizer on the market.
Or in other words the Plant Food contained in a ton of other Fertilizer costing, say $35, can be purchased from us for about $28. All fertilizers are sold under a guaranteed analysis enabling any who may, to verify the above, and the superior quality of these Manures is being shown by actual test year after year by the really wonderful results produced wherever used.
