

Canucks Blank Bruins; Red Wings Whip Toronto

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
 Montreal Canadiens opened their National Hockey League season Saturday night with a 3-0 shutout of Boston Bruins while the Detroit Red Wings, outshot and outplayed by a younger Toronto club, made the most of their scoring opportunities for a 4-1 victory over the Maple Leafs.

Canadiens count in each period on goals by Floyd Curry, Tom Johnson and Jean Beliveau but the NHL champions and Stanley Cup holders suffered a set-back in the loss of Henri (Pocket Rocket) Richard.

The little centre, charged by Leo Labine of the Bruins, was taken to hospital with an injured right knee.

The teams steamed up in the final period when referee Frank Udvari handed out 13 penalties, including majors for fighting to Fern Flaman of the Bruins and Dickie Moore of Canadiens.

BIG BROTHER COOLED
 The slugging match came almost simultaneously with the injury to the little Rocket. Big brother Maurice — team captain this season — promptly took a hand in the affair and jostled with Labine. Both were given penalties for high-sticking, plus a penalty to Labine for charging.

Goalie Jacques Plante of Montreal handled 25 shots. Canadians fired 38 shots at Boston goalie Terry Sawchuck.

The Red Wings managed only 17 shots on rookie Ed Chadwick in the Toronto net but capitalized on four of them. The Leafs, with three newcomers in their lineup, got through frequently to test Glenn Hall but the Detroit goalie was superb in turning aside all but one of the 27 shots directed his way.

Johnson (M. Richard, H. Richard) 1:56. Penalties: Peirson 2:33, M. Richard 6:46, Boivin 12:15.
