master's heart.
A bark now in the silence of night? But no, a deeper "woof-woof!" That is Blackie, shaggy black dog and patient docile pet of granddaughter's and the small lad in the house across the lane—a heeler and promising, but dear dear, as James remarked today "Compared with Pard, why, he hasn't an ounce of brains in his head!"
Until tomorrow — Diary—Good-night.

KIDNEY ACIDS Rob your Rest.

Many people never seem to get a good night's rest. They turn and toss—blame it on "nerves"—when it may be their kidneys. Healthy kidneys filter poisons and excess acids from the blood. If they fail and poisons stay in the system—disturbed rest often follows. If you don't rest well get and use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's help the kidneys so that you can rest better—and feel better.

Maritimes Well Represented At Women's Club Meeting In Montreal

Women from all parts of the Maritime Provinces now residing in Montreal are shown attending the annual scholarship bridge held by the Maritime Women's Club of Montreal. Three scholarships to Maritime Universities are awarded each year and this year the recipients were the University of New Brunswick, Kings College, Halifax and St. Francis Xavier University, Antigonish. In addition the club awards a scholarship each year to a Maritime student attending the McGill School for Graduate Nurses. The Maritime Women's Club has completed a very successful year with an increase in Membership and finances, as noted by the retiring President, Miss D. L. Gass. Donations were given to nine charitable organizations, parcels sent to needy families in Britain and the sum of $500 was spent to provide comforts for the Maritime veterans in St. Anne's Military Hospital, Mrs. A. J. Moore and her committee composed of Mrs. R. P. Freeman, Mrs. R. J. Russell and Miss Florence Sutherland visited the hospital every second Friday throughout the year. At the December meeting of the Club the members brought gifts which were distributed to the men at Christmas. At that time, Mrs. Moore reports, she packed 52 boxes but at the present time there are 65 Maritime men being looked after.

The following is the slate of officers for the ensuing year: Mrs. R. P. Freeman, President; Mrs. R. W. Horton, vice-president for Nova Scotia; Mrs. H. T. Mitchell, vice-president for New Brunswick; Mrs. J. G. Joyce, vice-president for Prince Edward Island; Mrs. M. G. MacNamara, corresponding secretary; Miss Margaret Thomson, recording secretary; Mrs. N. H. Wylie, Membership secretary; Miss Jessie Fraser, treasurer.

Provincial representatives: Nova Scotia, Mrs. K. C. Vossnick and Miss M. Andres; New Brunswick, Mrs. W. Jonah and Miss M. Cameron; Prince Edward Island, Mrs. H. E. Youngusband and Mrs. Alex Wilson; Newfoundland, Miss Dia Joyce and Miss Sue Howlett.

Chairman of standing committees: Arts and Letters, Mrs. John Trainor; historical, Miss Helen Muir; house and door, Miss Mabel Shannon; social, Mrs. Claude S. Richardson; Ways and means, Mrs. H. E. Youngusband; social service, Mrs. A. J. Boyd; Press, Miss Ethel Atkinson; St. Anne's Military Hospital, Mrs. A. J. Moore.

BRUSSELS, June 21—(Reuters)—Burgomasters of six Belgian towns lying between the Dutch frontier and Zebrugge, on Belgium's north sea coast, want the area declared a Red Cross "safe" zone, where women and children and the old and sick could gather in any future war. Belligerents would be called on not to bomb the area.

CLEVELAND, June 21—(AP)—Except for white bathing suits, Cleveland women can wear just about anything "respectable" they wish on the city's four beaches and nine pools. The white suits, Capt. Hazel Witt of the Police Women's Bureau explained today "will always be out because they tend to become transparent in water."
