

Nerves...

Wasted and Shattered by Worry or Overwork are Revitalized by Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food

"Nerves"—what a world of meaning this word has to scores of thousands of women who, through the strains of social life and the worry of home cares, are fast approaching the grave. Nervous headaches, dyspepsia, irritability by day, restlessness and sleeplessness by night. Pains and aches in the body, derangements of the organs peculiarly feminine, loss of energy and ambition, despondency and despair. These are some of the symptoms known to the woman of exhausted nerves. These are symptoms which entirely disappear when Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food is used. By creating new, rich blood and nerve tissue this great food cure of Dr. A. W. Chase restores and revitalizes the wasted nerve cells, puts new vigor and vitality into the system and frees woman of many ills which are due to exhausted nerves. Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food cures by the building-up process, which makes the body round and plump, and restores the glow of health to the pale, sallow cheek. For Business Men

Vanderbilt on Money Making.

"Never tell any one what you are going to do until you have done it," said Cornelius Vanderbilt. The man who would succeed in business must keep his affairs to himself. Vanderbilt declared that he owed his fortune to his rule, together with the following maxims: "Never sell short." "I bide my time." "Never sell what you haven't got." You will notice that great business men don't tell the secrets of their business. Men who do this often give their competitors a chance to ruin them. Great men of affairs, as a rule, are close mouthed. The man who is always telling his secrets freely, rarely has the full confidence of the community in which he lives. It is the men who think a great deal and talk little, men of action and a few words, who are entrusted with great responsibilities. It is said that Washington was once asked by an officer, on the morning of a battle what his plans were. He asked in a whisper: "Can you keep a secret?" "Yes," said the interrogating party. "So can I," the general added.

Watch the Advertising Baby.

Govern your advertising as you would your child. When it is young feed it carefully and nurture it tenderly. About the only comfort you'll get out of it at this stage in thinking what its going to be if it lives.

When it begins to creep keep your eye on it from morning to night. It'll get itself and you into serious trouble if you are not careful.

A little later when it walks alone you'll either have to keep a fatherly eye on it or hire a trained servant to do so. If you don't, it'll get into evil ways.

Study it as it grows; don't let it get away from your influence a day. It'll begin to bring money into the family early if it's brought up rightly.

After it's past its boyhood days you can lean upon it. Don't let it fall into its second childhood.

If it passes the teething, croup and measles period you calculate upon its survival to a ripe old age—unless you starve it to death.—Plain Talk.

Keep Your Temper.

Be good tempered. It pays in every way; it pays, if you are an employer; it pays, if you are an employee; it is profitable, in every walk of life. And this is taking the most selfish view. You owe it to others to be good-tempered; you owe it to your own manhood, to your own self-respect. In making others comfortable, you are making things agreeable for yourself; you are gaining and keeping goodwill, which may be of value and help to you hereafter; you are accumulating a capital of popularity and good report, which may be used to good advantage, perhaps, at a critical time. Good temper is a great factor in success.—Business.

Then—Advertise.

Advertising will not work miracles. It will not make a badly managed business pay. It is not a substitute for careful buying, cash discounts, wise arrangements or effective organization. You must have the right article, purchased or manufactured to the best advantage, handled in the best way, offered at the right price, or advertising will prove a useless expense. Organize your business so as to secure for the public the best that is going for the money; buy in the best market; get your cash discounts and all other advantages and—advertise!—Des Moines (Ia.) News.

It is Steam Power,

It is the momentum of advertising that carries a business along. It is like the steam power which carries along the railroad train. Cut off the steam and the train will move on for some distance without any perceptible diminution of speed. But gradually it comes to a full stop. It is the same way with advertising. The only way to keep the business engine going, whether the engineer be an individual or a combination is to keep up steam.—Morse.

It's True.

That advertising doesn't pay—unless it's followed up properly.

That an advertisement which costs nothing is usually worth nothing.

That no advertising man ever was successful who didn't learn from his mistakes.

That a little fire may start a big blaze—but if you don't keep on feeding it, it'll go out.

That many a man lays a failure, due to loose business methods, at the door of his advertising department.—Plain Talk, Chicago.

The progressive advertiser thinks not of what he did yesterday, but of what he is going to do to-morrow—Fame.

To print announcements that are not believable is almost an absolute waste of space.—Printers Ink.

WONDERFUL ASTHMA RECOVERIES.

Clarke's Kola Compound Officially Tested by the British Columbia Government, at the Home for Incurables, Kamloops, B. C., the Medical Superintendent Pronounced Long-standing Cases Cured.

Many temporary relief asthma remedies have during the past few years been placed before the public, but until the introduction to the medical profession of Clarke's Kola Compound, nothing has been found to have any effect on preventing future attacks. The Medical Superintendent for the Home for Incurables in Kamloops, B. C., has had probably the best chance in Canada to thoroughly test this wonderful remedy for asthma. He reports that on the three cases of asthma where Clarke's Kola Compound has been tried, in not a single instance did it fail to cure, and on one particular case a lady had been confined to her bed most of the time for nearly a year previous to taking this remedy, and less than three bottles have completely cured her. Over one year has now passed, and there has not been the slightest indication of asthma returning. Three bottles of Clarke's Kola Compound are guaranteed to cure any case of asthma. Over 500 cases have already been cured in Canada alone by this remedy. Sold by all druggists. Free sample bottle sent to any person. Mention this paper. Address The Griffiths & Macpherson Co., 121 Church Street, Toronto, or Vancouver, B. C., sole Canadian agents.

A Crippled Rheumatic Restored by Dods's Kidney Pills

Woodstock, Ont., May 22 —Never, in the social history of this town since the Birchall trial, has such great interest been shown as the "Cutmore Case" has caused.

Mr. C. J. Cutmore, 91 Main Street, was crippled by Rheumatism and Lumbago during five years. He couldn't stand straight, and had to be helped from his room.

To-day he is straight and strong; sound in every limb, thanks to Dods's Kidney Pills. Other remedies were used, but did no good. Dods's Kidney Pills cured him, and straight, and had to be helped from his room.

Croup Quickly cured.

Mrs. J. Sims, Mt Pleasant, Vancouver, B. C. writes:—If there ever was a never-failing remedy for a disease, it is Griffiths' Menthol Liniment for croup. We have frequently administered it to our children, even the baby, and never knew of its failure to cure in a few minutes. No home should be without it. 25 cents at druggists.

Chronic Eczema Cured.

One of the most chronic cases of Eczema ever cured is the case of Miss Grace Ella Aiton, of Hartland, N. B. On a sworn statement Mr. Aiton says: I hereby certify that my daughter Grace Ella was cured of Eczema of long standing by using four boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment. William Thistle, Druggist, of Hartland also certifies that he is in four boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment which cured Grace Ella.
