

In the Spring: Purify the Blood by way of the Kidneys. This is Nature's way of doing it, and the way

DODD'S Kidney Pills Do It!

See that you get DODD'S. Imitations are dangerous!

thinness The diseases of thinness are scrofula in children, consumption in grown people, poverty of blood in either. They thrive on leanness. Fat is the best means of overcoming them. Everybody knows cod-liver oil makes the healthiest fat.

in Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil the taste is hidden, the oil is digested, it is ready to make fat.

When you ask for Scott's Emulsion and your druggist gives you a package in a salmon-colored wrapper with the picture of the man and fish on it, you can trust that man.

50 cents and $1.00

Scott & Bowne, Chemists, Belleville, Ont.

New Patent Washer

A long felt want supplied. The Double Action Washing Machine and Star Wringer are beyond our highest expectations. We willingly leave them on trial and show you how to use them, so that you may fully prove them. It washes on the same principle as hand rubbing, yet so gentle as not to injure the finest fabrics, and accomplishes as much work in an hour or so as would otherwise occupy the greater part of the day. A child can work them and wash perfectly. Any person desiring to have them on trial please leave your order at Dadd & Bigger's, J. J. Prowse, or John Prowse's, Royalty East, Sole agents for City, Royalty and Lots 2 and 33. Be sure you get the double action as they are the only machine guaranteed. The ladies who have purchased them cheerfully give their testimonials: Mrs. F. Haritz, Mrs. R. McMillan, Mrs. D. Henderson, Mrs. T. Dadd, Mrs. G. Tweedy, Mrs. W. Seller, Mrs. F. Abbott, Mrs. W. Mellet, Mrs. E. Love, Mrs. E. T. Carbonell, Mrs. John Mellet, Mrs. John Horne, Mrs. Parsons, Mrs. A. Robertson, Mrs. H. Swan, Mrs. Wallace Rodd, Mrs. W. Prowse, Mrs. Philip Prowse, Mrs. P. H. Trautman, Mrs. J. J. Prowse, Mrs. H. Love, Mrs. H. E. Lewis. To our patrons—remember the old stand. Makers of Iron Horseshoes, Saddlers, repairs of all kinds of machinery, carriage work and painting. Horse-shoeing work warranted.

JOHN PROWSE, Charlotetown Royalty.

Apr 17—f

CHATEL—COMFORTING.

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST—SUPPER.

By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided for our breakfast and supper a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly assimilated frame." Civil Service Gazette.

JAMES EPPS & CO., Ltd.

Homoeopathic Chemists, London, England.

For Bookbinding

AND JOB PRINTING

TRY

J.D. TAYLOR,

QUEEN STREET.

Charlotetown, April 15, 1896.

P. E. Island Electric Co.

Notice is hereby given that the Annual General Meeting of the Stockholders of the above Company will be held at their office in Charlotetown on WEDNESDAY, the 13th day of May next, at 10 A.M. 1896, at the hour of 12 o'clock, noon.

Dated 27th day of April, A. D. 1896.

JAMES WADDELL,

ap28—246 tl ditte Superintendent.

BOARDING & TRAINING STABLES

Grafton Street, Opposite Court House.

JOHN M. NICHOLSON, Prop'r.

Having opened a public Stable on Grafton Street, I am prepared to take Gentlemen's horses and Collies at all seasons of the year to board, train, break or keep in good condition for immediate use. Horse Clipping also at tender. Terms reasonable.

Nov 27—374 w 3m

Robb-Armstrong Engines.

Correct Design.

Best Workmanship.

ROBB ENGINEERING CO., Ltd.,

Amherst, N. S.

ap22—dy 6m

GODFREY'S WHITE QUEEN.

BY EDWARD RAYMOND.

On the morning after Mrs. Neville's conversation with Godfrey, Audine was up early, long before breakfast, gathering a handful of gardenias out of one of the bushes in the garden. As she returned towards the house, and stopped to speak to him.

"I cannot shake hands," she said, laughing, "but I will shake hands with you. One was full of flowers the other engaged in keeping in order the numerous dogs that surrounded her."

"Why should you not shake hands with me?" cried Godfrey, suddenly. "The word—sculpture me!"

"No, no," he said, very sadly; "I have done with sculpture."

"You are suffering from having worked too hard," said Audine. "Never mind; the great men go through the same; genius always suffers."

Godfrey sighed heavily. He looked so ill and depressed that Audine was grieved. "You have indeed been doing too much," she said, in her sweet earnest way. "You must rest here, and only amuse yourself with some little trifling thing. My Psycho would make a great hit as a statue. One thing, patting the head of the shaggy little Italian greyhound."

"Rather a pretty piece of Dresden china," she said, looking at the dog. "Yes, is your mother up yet?"

"No, I have not seen her. She could not sleep last night, and she said she was very tired. Oh, I am so sorry! Perhaps I had better not disturb her."

"You disturb her. Oh no; you are like the fresh dew on a parakeet and thirly land."

The color mounted into Audine's face, and calling her dogs round her she went on to the hall, in her sweet earnest way. "You must rest here, and only amuse yourself with some little trifling thing. My Psycho would make a great hit as a statue. One thing, patting the head of the shaggy little Italian greyhound."

"Rather a pretty piece of Dresden china," she said, looking at the dog. "Yes, is your mother up yet?"

"No, I have not seen her. She could not sleep last night, and she said she was very tired. Oh, I am so sorry! Perhaps I had better not disturb her."

"You disturb her. Oh no; you are like the fresh dew on a parakeet and thirly land."

The color mounted into Audine's face, and calling her dogs round her she went on to the hall, in her sweet earnest way. "You must rest here, and only amuse yourself with some little trifling thing. My Psycho would make a great hit as a statue. One thing, patting the head of the shaggy little Italian greyhound."

"Rather a pretty piece of Dresden china," she said, looking at the dog. "Yes, is your mother up yet?"

"No, I have not seen her. She could not sleep last night, and she said she was very tired. Oh, I am so sorry! Perhaps I had better not disturb her."

"You disturb her. Oh no; you are like the fresh dew on a parakeet and thirly land."

The color mounted into Audine's face, and calling her dogs round her she went on to the hall, in her sweet earnest way. "You must rest here, and only amuse yourself with some little trifling thing. My Psycho would make a great hit as a statue. One thing, patting the head of the shaggy little Italian greyhound."

"Rather a pretty piece of Dresden china," she said, looking at the dog. "Yes, is your mother up yet?"

"No, I have not seen her. She could not sleep last night, and she said she was very tired. Oh, I am so sorry! Perhaps I had better not disturb her."

same, glory, triumph, and pain; the other Happiness, with its attendant peace and calm, domesticity and respect—would you choose Happiness?"

"If both come from God, and I might serve God equally with either, I would," said Audine, seriously.

"I had thought better of you, you tame-spirited little thing!"

"Aunt Mary, why are you so harsh to me to-day?" and Audine hid her face to hide the tears that would come.

Mrs. Neville sighed impatiently. "If happiness is so pleasant a thing," she said, "why are you so sad?"

"I want to have some tableaux vivants," she said, looking at the dog. "Quite delightful! I should enjoy it of all things. We will ask the very prettiest people."

"I have thought of several good subjects," said Mrs. Neville, speaking very fast. "What do you think of a scene from the Huguenots, and Rebecca and Rowena, and Sylvia and Claudio. One thing, I have quite set my heart on." She stopped as if out of breath.

"Yes, dear Aunt Mary?"

"I want to cross you up like Godfrey's White Queen."

Mrs. Neville fell back upon her pillows, watching Audine's face. "Very well," said the girl, laughing. "If you do not think it too bold and presuming."

"Oh, what fun! what fun! I must have out the costume-book and see what I can find." She stooped to kiss Mrs. Neville, then ran up with a little cry. Oh, my poor flowers!

They were quite crushed, bruised, and broken.

(To be continued.)

A Russian Remedy. "Some years ago," said Paderewski the other day in The Chicago Evening Post, "I dined with an official of the Russian army. The official had in his command an officer of great ability who was addicted to strong drink. It was arranged that the next day I should take dinner along with us that day. Instead of soup, the first course served to him was brandy, which he must swallow a spoonful at a time, just as he would have swallowed soup. After the first spoonful he was so sick that he implored to be spared. Under cover of a drawn revolver the official commanded him to swallow every spoonful in the plate. The officer never drank a drop of liquor after that. Trip to drink champagne from a cup or liquor that man was forced to drink it. It will make you deathly sick."

World Not Eat the Flag. An Englishman in Washington at dinner declined to eat an ice frozen in the shape and colors of the American flag. This he did because he held it to be bad form to absorb the national emblem. The incident was significant as showing the distinction and difference between the British idea of patriotism and our own. Englishmen carry their hats when their flag is carried past, and rise when the National Anthem is played in theaters and music halls. No true Briton would do anything to show the flag of his country for advertising purposes.—Boston Saturday Evening Gazette.

Pots and Plants in Harmony. The decorated stone pots so largely in use in drawing-rooms for growing plants should be selected with care. They should not only be adapted in coloring to the plants they are to hold, but there should be a harmony in the jars themselves, as no matter how beautiful each individual one may be, if there is incongruity in the coloring the whole effect will be unpleasant. Even an unadorned eye is attracted by the inharmonious effect without being able to discover the cause.—April Ladies' Home Journal.

A Pretty Charity Fad. There are fashions in soliciting for charities, and the newest of such fashion is in New York City. A small silk bag is sent to a person who is likely to contribute to any particular object, with a polite request that he will place in the bag coins to the number of his age. The coins may be pennies, quarters, dollars or other pieces. The denomination is adapted to the generosity of the donor. If he desires to hide his real age he generally will send back so many coins—a hundred, for instance—that his age is revealed. Unless, indeed, he flies to the opposite extreme and gives so little that it cannot possibly bear reference to his years.

It is said that these silk bags never come back empty and that many a worthy object has been largely assisted through them. The bags are made by women interested in the particular charities or by poor people who have no regular employment, and who are thus enabled to earn small wages.—New York Press.

Victor Hugo's Daughter. Most people have forgotten that Victor Hugo had an insane daughter, who is still living in a lunatic asylum near Paris. A day or two ago a family gathering was held to appoint a guardian in place of M. Auguste Vaquerie, who held the office till death. The trust now falls upon Victor Hugo's next surviving brother, M. Paul Maurice, to be succeeded in case of an earlier vacancy by the poet's grandson, Georges Hugo. The story of Adele Hugo is sad and romantic. She eloped with an English officer to India, and there was married without the French legal formalities. Her wedded life was unhappy, and her mind gave way under the strain. The husband died less than seven years ago at Singapore.

IF YOU DOUBT the efficacy of Scott's Sarsaparilla write any of the following before purchasing: J. D. Todd, druggist, Queen St. W. Toronto; Miss M. J. Gould, Lloyds, Ont. J. Morrow, merchant, Fullerton, Ont.; Wm. T. Thompson, Zephyr, Ont.; Geo. Denham, druggist, Petrolia, Ont.; W. S. Bond, merchant, Lloyds, Ont.; Joseph Duncan, farmer, Petrolia, Ont.; Miss Mattie Delaney, 175 Crawford St., Toronto; M. N. DeCoe, merchant, Zephyr, or Wm. Cornish, Fullerton. Over 5000 other names on application.

Old people, and young and middle aged as well, should fortify themselves for spring by enriching the blood and purifying the system. There is only one reliable and effective medicine for this purpose and that is Scott's Sarsaparilla.

Machine Work and Handwork. It is to be remembered that, notwithstanding all we hear of the vast superiority of machine over handwork, this machinery must itself possess as great, if not greater, accuracy and refinement than the product manufactured by it. No machine can in this respect be superior to the hand of a man who produces sufficiently accurate and good work at a lower cost than if made by him. The first sewing machine of a kind, built by skilled machinists or toolmakers, is at least as good and as accurately made as any subsequently manufactured by machinery, and the same men can duplicate it more exactly than can any machinery, but machines built thus would cost far more than people could afford to pay for them, and that is all there is to the talk of the substitution of the "certainty and accuracy of machinery for the uncertainty and inaccuracy of handwork."—Scribner's Magazine.

ODDS AND ENDS. You gray lines, that fret the clouds, are messengers of the day.—Shakespeare.

THE ONLY HELP. A Victim of Bright's Disease for Many Years—Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

NEPHEW. (Special May 4.—Mrs. T. H. McKee, formerly of Listowel, came here as a last resort. Had suffered ten years with Bright's disease. Reported to be cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

It is to be remembered that, notwithstanding all we hear of the vast superiority of machine over handwork, this machinery must itself possess as great, if not greater, accuracy and refinement than the product manufactured by it. No machine can in this respect be superior to the hand of a man who produces sufficiently accurate and good work at a lower cost than if made by him. The first sewing machine of a kind, built by skilled machinists or toolmakers, is at least as good and as accurately made as any subsequently manufactured by machinery, and the same men can duplicate it more exactly than can any machinery, but machines built thus would cost far more than people could afford to pay for them, and that is all there is to the talk of the substitution of the "certainty and accuracy of machinery for the uncertainty and inaccuracy of handwork."—Scribner's Magazine.

ODDS AND ENDS. You gray lines, that fret the clouds, are messengers of the day.—Shakespeare.

THE ONLY HELP. A Victim of Bright's Disease for Many Years—Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

NEPHEW. (Special May 4.—Mrs. T. H. McKee, formerly of Listowel, came here as a last resort. Had suffered ten years with Bright's disease. Reported to be cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

It is to be remembered that, notwithstanding all we hear of the vast superiority of machine over handwork, this machinery must itself possess as great, if not greater, accuracy and refinement than the product manufactured by it. No machine can in this respect be superior to the hand of a man who produces sufficiently accurate and good work at a lower cost than if made by him. The first sewing machine of a kind, built by skilled machinists or toolmakers, is at least as good and as accurately made as any subsequently manufactured by machinery, and the same men can duplicate it more exactly than can any machinery, but machines built thus would cost far more than people could afford to pay for them, and that is all there is to the talk of the substitution of the "certainty and accuracy of machinery for the uncertainty and inaccuracy of handwork."—Scribner's Magazine.

ODDS AND ENDS. You gray lines, that fret the clouds, are messengers of the day.—Shakespeare.

THE ONLY HELP. A Victim of Bright's Disease for Many Years—Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

NEPHEW. (Special May 4.—Mrs. T. H. McKee, formerly of Listowel, came here as a last resort. Had suffered ten years with Bright's disease. Reported to be cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

It is to be remembered that, notwithstanding all we hear of the vast superiority of machine over handwork, this machinery must itself possess as great, if not greater, accuracy and refinement than the product manufactured by it. No machine can in this respect be superior to the hand of a man who produces sufficiently accurate and good work at a lower cost than if made by him. The first sewing machine of a kind, built by skilled machinists or toolmakers, is at least as good and as accurately made as any subsequently manufactured by machinery, and the same men can duplicate it more exactly than can any machinery, but machines built thus would cost far more than people could afford to pay for them, and that is all there is to the talk of the substitution of the "certainty and accuracy of machinery for the uncertainty and inaccuracy of handwork."—Scribner's Magazine.

ODDS AND ENDS. You gray lines, that fret the clouds, are messengers of the day.—Shakespeare.

THE ONLY HELP. A Victim of Bright's Disease for Many Years—Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

NEPHEW. (Special May 4.—Mrs. T. H. McKee, formerly of Listowel, came here as a last resort. Had suffered ten years with Bright's disease. Reported to be cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

It is to be remembered that, notwithstanding all we hear of the vast superiority of machine over handwork, this machinery must itself possess as great, if not greater, accuracy and refinement than the product manufactured by it. No machine can in this respect be superior to the hand of a man who produces sufficiently accurate and good work at a lower cost than if made by him. The first sewing machine of a kind, built by skilled machinists or toolmakers, is at least as good and as accurately made as any subsequently manufactured by machinery, and the same men can duplicate it more exactly than can any machinery, but machines built thus would cost far more than people could afford to pay for them, and that is all there is to the talk of the substitution of the "certainty and accuracy of machinery for the uncertainty and inaccuracy of handwork."—Scribner's Magazine.

ODDS AND ENDS. You gray lines, that fret the clouds, are messengers of the day.—Shakespeare.

THE ONLY HELP. A Victim of Bright's Disease for Many Years—Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

NEPHEW. (Special May 4.—Mrs. T. H. McKee, formerly of Listowel, came here as a last resort. Had suffered ten years with Bright's disease. Reported to be cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

It is to be remembered that, notwithstanding all we hear of the vast superiority of machine over handwork, this machinery must itself possess as great, if not greater, accuracy and refinement than the product manufactured by it. No machine can in this respect be superior to the hand of a man who produces sufficiently accurate and good work at a lower cost than if made by him. The first sewing machine of a kind, built by skilled machinists or toolmakers, is at least as good and as accurately made as any subsequently manufactured by machinery, and the same men can duplicate it more exactly than can any machinery, but machines built thus would cost far more than people could afford to pay for them, and that is all there is to the talk of the substitution of the "certainty and accuracy of machinery for the uncertainty and inaccuracy of handwork."—Scribner's Magazine.

If You are Going to BOSTON

PLANT LINE.

Direct Service from Charlotetown

STEAMER FASTNET.

W. W. CLARKE, Agent.

Beaver Line Steamers.

Wants, Lost, Found, &c

DR. H. D. JOHNSON

W. W. CLARKE, Agent.

Beaver Line Steamers.

Wants, Lost, Found, &c

DR. H. D. JOHNSON

W. W. CLARKE, Agent.

Beaver Line Steamers.

Wants, Lost, Found, &c

DR. H. D. JOHNSON

W. W. CLARKE, Agent.

Beaver Line Steamers.

Wants, Lost, Found, &c

DR. H. D. JOHNSON

W. W. CLARKE, Agent.

THE MUTUAL LIFE Insurance Company of NEW YORK.

Statement for the year ending December 31, 1895.

Total Income—$48,597,430.51

Total Paid Policy-holders in 1895—$23,126,728.45

Insurance and Annuities in force—$899,074,453.78

Robert A. Graunis, Vice-President.

JOHN MACEACHERN, Resident Agent, Charlotetown, P. E. I.

WILLIAM L. STRICKLAND, Attorney and Counsellor-at-Law.

DR. H. D. JOHNSON

W. W. CLARKE, Agent.

Beaver Line Steamers.

Wants, Lost, Found, &c

DR. H. D. JOHNSON

W. W. CLARKE, Agent.

Beaver Line Steamers.

Wants, Lost, Found, &c

DR. H. D. JOHNSON

W. W. CLARKE, Agent.

Beaver Line Steamers.

Wants, Lost, Found, &c

DR. H. D. JOHNSON

English Manures SUPERPHOSPHATES AND CHEMICALS.

Sole Agents for P. E. Island for THE BRADLEY FERTILIZER CO., the largest concern of the kind in the world.

We can also supply the same goods (Ground Slag) as offered by our would-be competitors as "English Fertilizer" at at least 20 per cent less price than they now ask for it, but at the same time we would not advise its use, I being that THE GENUINE ENGLISH MANURES AS SOLD ONLY BY US is much the best value. Prices, Pamphlets, etc., on application.

AULD BROS. Charlotetown, April 8, 1896—2av (25) & wky

American Carriages AS CHEAP AS CANADIAN.

AMERICAN CARRIAGE DEPOT LUPAGE'S OLD STAND, QUEEN STREET. FRANK BEALES

St. Lawrence Sugar Refining Co., Ltd MONTREAL.

99 100 to 100 p. c. of Pure Cane Sugar

N RATTENBURY, AGENT

Tyke Serge Suits, 18$ Bisley " " 16

Other English Serges, $14 and $15.

John Macleod & Co. TAILORS.

RIPANS ONE GIVES RELIEF.

LIQUID PAINT IS THE BEST. TRY IT.

Simon W. Crabbe, Stoves & Hardware.

Walker's Corner.

Wood's Phosphodine—The Great English Remedy.

Wood's Phosphodine is sold by responsible wholesale and retail druggists in the Dominion.

Robb-Armstrong Engines.

Robb Engineering Co., Ltd., Amherst, N. S.

ap22—dy 6m