Whim Road And Vicinity. Mr. Jack Clarey recently arrived at his home at Whim Road after a motor trip from Massachusetts.

Miss Marjorie Clarey returned to Whim Road after a brief visit in Montague with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Allen.

Mr. Kenny MacDonald returned to his home at Whim Road after visiting his grandfather, Mr. Kenneth MacKinnon, in Lewes.

Mr. Johnny Clarey who has spent the past several days at the home of Mr. William Johnston, Sturgeon, recently returned to his home in Whim Road.

Mr. Gordon Moore recently redecorated his service station at Commercial Cross, which adds much improvement to the "corner" which is becoming an increasingly busy business centre.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hartman, Long Island, were recent visitors of Mrs. Hartman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Stewart, Killmuir. This is Mrs. Hartman's first homecoming since she left the Island over twenty-five years ago.

An item recently appearing in an Ontario newspaper, "The Orillia Packet and Times" will be of interest to many in this district. The article reads as follows: Charles Moore, aged 15, is rapidly acquiring a reputation as one of Orillia's outstanding younger fishermen. Last spring he caught one of the largest speckled trout ever taken out of district waters, and this past week he came up with a five and one quarter pound bass, which he hauled in from the Park wharf.—(Charles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Moore, former residents of Whim Road.)

Mr. and Mrs. Neils of Montreal and their two children were recent guests of Mrs. Jane Daley, Commercial Cross. Mrs. Neils formerly lived at Commercial Cross, and moved with her parents to Vancouver.

Former Islander Returns. After an absence of 49 years Mr. Clifford Murphy, a resident of Radisson, Saskatchewan, returned to the Island to visit his old home in Morell, now occupied by his nephew, Mr. John O'Neil. He also visited his brother, Mr. Leo Murphy, St. Peter's Bay. Continuing his tour, he went to Boston to see his sister-in-law, Mrs. Leo Murphy, and then to Litchfield, Conn. to spend some time with his sister, Mrs. George McKinnon (Rhoda Murphy).

Mr. Murphy, a prosperous Western farmer, was greatly impressed by the many changes that have taken place in the Island during his absence. However, he states that the same wonderful hospitality exists in his native village, Morell. He was accompanied by his wife, Evelyn, who has never been in this part of the country before and who thought the scenery very beautiful and the people very neighborly.
