We have been furnished, by the Deputy Collector of the Port of Bequeque (Henry Lawson, Esq.,) with the following correct statement of exports therefrom, from May 1, to Dec. 1, 1867. The column giving the estimated value is our work. We may have in some instances overrated some of the articles, though we think not, while in many others we may have rather gone below the mark.

Table with columns: Exports, Amounts of, Estimated Value. Lists items like Oats, Potatoes, Eggs, Butter, etc.

Exports from Cascumpec.

Through the kindness of the Collector of Customs for the Port of Cascumpec, John M. Clark, Esq., we have been furnished with the following list of shipments from thence. This, though, does not by any means show the whole of the exports from that port, as large quantities have been shipped to Charlottetown, Summerside, and, we are told, to Port Hill.

London, Dec. 30. The Great Powers of Europe have determined to ask Napoleon the basis of the Conference to which they have been invited by him, and through which France seeks to negotiate a Treaty for the settlement of the Treaty of Italy.

It is stated that the inability of General Menabrea, the Prime Minister of Italy, to construct a Ministry, is now the principal cause of delay in perfecting arrangements for the meeting of the Conference.

The "Paris Patrie," in an editorial this morning, earnestly denounces those who assert that the Conference has been abandoned. Pierre G. F. Lepay, the distinguished French Engineer, who was at the head of the Imperial Commission for the Universal Exposition, has been made a Senator of France by an Imperial decree.

A gun shop in Cork was broken into last night by a party of eight men, and rifled of its contents. A considerable quantity of arms and ammunition was secured by the robbers, who were undoubtedly Fenians.

London, Dec. 27, noon. Another of these fiendish outrages which have characterized the operations of the Fenians, has just been perpetrated in Dublin. Telegrams from there received to-day has the following particulars:—An unusual large number of letters have been received at the post office at Dublin directed to prominent officials, and each one of those letters was loaded with explosive materials, designed to kill the person addressed. Several of the policemen of the city were horribly mangled by the explosion which occurred when they were opened. It is not known how many of these dangerous missiles have been despatched. Considerable excitement prevails both in Dublin and elsewhere through the country on this last outrage. The authorities are actively engaged, and will no doubt probe the matter to the bottom.

The London Times this morning has an editorial article on the Fenian question, in which it does not less than thirty thousand special constables have been sworn in, and are now serving in London. The writer calls on the provincial cities and towns to imitate the precautionary measures of the metropolis.

A despatch from India announces the departure from Bombay of General Napier for Masowah, to take immediate command of the British expedition now advancing into the interior of Abyssinia.

It is reported that the Sublime Porte has offered to the Ottomans an autonomous Government, and has named Prince Christian as its head.

Paris, Dec. 27. The Monitor to-day contains an official notice to the effect that the coupons of the Italian bonds will be paid.

Paris, Dec. 27, eve. The Pope has enjoined the Rothschilds against paying the coupons on the Italian bonds in this city.

London, Dec. 29. The Fenians seem to be usually active all over the country. Nearly every hour in the day despatches are received by the authorities, announcing either a contemplated movement by the Brotherhood, or its actual occurrence.

Despatches of quite a serious nature have been received from Cork, giving the details of another Fenian coup de main. Friday night, about midnight, a large party of men, with blackened faces, stormed the Mortello Tower, near Cork. The guard at the Tower was overcome and scattered, and the victors hastily collected together a considerable quantity of arms and ammunition, and escaped with it without molestation.

The late operations of the Fenians has had the effect of rekindling the public excitement, which had nearly died out. Many innumerable rumors are afloat, including one that a Fenian cruiser had been seen off the Irish coast, and was chased away by the British war vessels.

A man was arrested in this city on Friday evening, on a charge of having fired the fuse which caused the recent terrible explosion at Clerkenwell. From information in the hands of the authorities, it is believed that the true culprit has at last been established.
