

Restaurant Is Re-opened After Cleanup Job

A quick clean up job on the part of the proprietor resulted in a Charlestown restaurant being reopened only twenty-four hours after it had been ordered closed by City Health Officer, Dr. W. L. MacDonald acting on information laid down by the Provincial Department of Health.

Lions Club Meeting Held

The regular meeting of the Charlestown Lions Club was held last night at the Queen Hotel with Lion Dr. Angus MacEachern in the chair. At this meeting the winners of the annual Turkey Drive were announced.

C. N. I. B. Auxiliary Holds Party For Blind In Ch'town

At the Clover Club yesterday afternoon the Women's Auxiliary to the Canadian National Institute for the Blind entertained more than thirty sightless people of Charlestown. Mrs. John B. Murley, acting president delivered a welcoming speech, regretting the absence of the President, Mrs. S. G. Peppin who is spending Christmas with her family in Ontario and also the absence of Mrs. W. J. P. MacMillan, Past President and Charter Member of the Auxiliary.

Mrs. T. W. L. Prouse, wife of Lieutenant Prowse and Charter Member was in attendance and shook hands and chatted with each one of the guests. Mrs. Keith S. Rogers acted as accompanist for the vocal numbers on the musical program and did much to make the annual gathering a success. Acting as master of ceremonies, City councillor Mr. Frank O'Neil led the program moving, gay and cheerful. He led a sing song of the Christmas melodies, which was requested by the guests of the day. At the conclusion of the singing Mr. Jack Stevenson, of the Lions Club, presented gifts to all of the guests. He had a cherry wood for each individual. Mr. Joe Wootton well known by personality contributed two vocal solos during the afternoon. The hour-long event ended with the serving of a Christmas Dinner. Well organized committees from the Auxiliary worked smoothly to make the occasion a
