It is necessary to remember that there are many so-called Quinine Wines, but that the GREAT ORIGINAL is "Campbell's," and that the genuine bears our signature upon the label. The best proof of its value is the fact that its sale at the present time is larger than ever before.

The following certificate shows how CAMPBELL'S QUININE WINE is appreciated. Having submitted two samples of Quinine Wine, imitations of the genuine, along with a sample of our own, to the Public Analyst, we received the following reply:

"CAMPBELL'S is the only genuine Quinine Wine of the three samples examined at Messrs. Kenneth Campbell & Co's. request."

Interesting Church Ceremonies.

CLERICAL MEETING AND LAYING CORNER STONE OF A NEW EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN ALBERTON.

Wednesday, 24th inst., was a notable day for the parish of Alberton, of which Rev. J. M. Forbes is the popular and hard-working rector.

The day began with holy communion at 8 a. m., at which service a goodly number was present. At 10 30 a. m. the clergy met in council for the fifth time since the formation of the association. Clergy present: Revs. A. W. Daniel (president), W. H. Hamlyn, T. B. Reagh, H. Harper, Thomas Lloyd of Kensington, J. M. Forbes, and C. F. Lowe, Secretary.

The meeting was held in the rectory, and the minutes—after usual office—read and approved.

The President warmly welcomed Mr. Lloyd, rector of New London to this his first meeting with the Association. That gentleman feelingly responded.

A long and animated discussion then took place on affairs of importance to the interests of the Church in P. E. I., and many helpful things said and learned of interest in progressive church work.

The formation of a choral union was suggested, no definite steps to be taken until after the next meeting in September.

The Secretary was instructed to make all enquiries with respect to grants in aid of church work in P. E. Island.

Mr. Hamlyn agreed to read a paper at next meeting on "The attitude of the Church towards unbelief."

On motion, it was decided to ask the Secretary to convey the congratulations of the members to Mr. Simpson of Charlottetown at his approaching marriage in that city. The Secretary feelingly responded, and gave immediate, full and hearty acquiescence to the wishes of the brethren.

Mr. Reagh then invited the members to meet in Milton during the second week in September; and after benediction the best meeting ever held came to a close.

After dinner at the rectory, preparations were immediately made for laying the corner stone of the new church at the corner of Main and Church Streets, in the very centre of Alberton.

The site is splendid in all respects—the very best that could possibly be chosen for miles around. The good rector and people are to be congratulated on this excellent choice of location.

At 4 p. m. the welcome rain being over, the clergy clad in cassock, surplice and stole, left the house of Mrs. Wallace immediately opposite, and in single file walked to the inspiring strain of "Onward, Christian soldiers."

An efficient choir with a good organ were already in position on a raised platform near by. Rev. T. B. Reagh recited the form issued by the Provincial Synod, and when the proper moment arrived the clergy left the platform and proceeded to the spot where hung the freestone block ready to be laid.

Mrs. W. B. Dyer, furnished with an exquisitely made silver trowel, laid the stone, saying in a clear voice: "In the faith of Jesus Christ, we lay this foundation stone in the name of God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Ghost. Amen."

Mr. Reagh then continued the office and the clergy with the choir resumed their position on the platform.

Another hymn was sung, after which Rev. C. F. Lowe delivered the first address, taking for his subject the stone which had been laid that day. After another hymn, Rev. W. Hamlyn gave the second address, congratulating the rector and people for their hard, persistent efforts for God and His Church.

Mrs. Forbes then spoke a few closing words, after which came the Benediction, and the large and attentive congregation went away highly pleased and interested at what they had seen and heard.

At 7.30 p. m. a bright, hearty service was rendered in the old parish church, with the aid of a well-trained and strong-voiced choir of both sexes. Mr. Lloyd performed the instrumental part, and the clergy delivered addresses as follows:

Mr. Daniel on "Bible Study."
Mr. Hamlyn on "Self Denial."
Mr. Harper on "Worship."
Mr. Lowe on "Walking."
Mr. Reagh on "Reverence."

Hymns were sung between each address, and heartily enjoyed by a large and attentive congregation.

The visiting clergy were most hospitably entertained by Mrs. W. B. Dyer, Ellis Bros. at the Terrace Hotel, Mr. Tuplin and Mrs. Forbes at the Rectory.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

She Didn't Do It!

SIR.—There are many good things published in the St. John Progress, newsy and witty, but our Charlottetown correspondent "Jack," when he or she again favors its readers with the gossip and the "laughs" of our city should be more careful of his or her statements. This witty correspondent says that "the steamer Northumberland left Summerside one hour later than the train on Saturday evening (the 20th), and arrived at Charlottetown twenty minutes ahead!" Such an absurd statement carries its own refutation with it, but it is nevertheless calculated to injure the reputation of our railway which is efficient in every particular. The Northumberland arrived at Summerside from Point du Chene and left for Charlottetown at 3.30 p. m. The train was not due at Summerside from the west till 4.25, at which time she duly arrived, and departed for Charlottetown at 5 p. m., or one hour and a half after the boat had left. The train arrived at Charlottetown about 15 minutes before the steamer, as passengers who came by train viewed the arrival of the Northumberland from the Hotel Davies. The Northumberland is a fine boat but she cannot make the passage from Summerside to Charlottetown, a distance of 54 miles, in 50 minutes, as she is represented to have done by "Jack's" story—a speed, however, which can be attained by our railway. "Jack" is generally a good story teller, but his varnishing is not well done this time.
