Chilled Soup Good Now As Starter For Meals

By IDA BAILEY ALLEN
"My husband is used to eating in good restaurants where the food looks glamorous. How can I prepare good dinners in forty-five minutes that look and taste oomphy?" inquires our bride of the week.

"This young bride will find the oven her best friend for cooking dinner," observed the chef. "The entree and vegetables can be baked in the same oven. Often the dessert can be, too, or even a hot bread when she has learned to work fast."

"All food should be well seasoned. ASSORTMENT OF SPICES
"For this purpose, she will need as a starter an assortment of spices including allspice, fresh ground black pepper, Tabasco, Worcestershire sauce, powdered garlic and onion powder, fresh lemons and a few surprise gourmet ingredients such as preserved ginger."

"At this season, a fine chilled soup is a spectacular first course, chef," I told him. "Let's give her your newest creation."

Frosty 5-Minute Tomato Buttermilk Soup: In a bowl, beat together ½ a 10½ oz. can cream of tomato soup, ¼ c. cold butter-milk, ½ tsp. chili powder, ¼ tsp. salt and 1-16 tsp. ground black pepper. Chill.

Ladle into small glass bowls. Top with 1 tsp. dairy sour cream and dust this with paprika.
For flavour, present in a large stemmed glass lined with crushed ice.

Tomorrow's Dinner: Frosty tomato buttermilk soup, lamb chop bake, onions, spiced sliced carrots, soufflé potatoes, tossed green salad (optional) petits fours (from bakery), gingered pears with ice cream, hot or iced coffee or tea, milk.

All measurements are level; recipes proportioned to serve 2 for 4, double ingredients.
Schedule for preparing meal.

Lamb Chops: Preheat oven to 400 degrees F. Dust 3 shoulder lamb chops or 5 rib chops with flour, seasoned with salt, pepper and a very little garlic salt if desired. Brown quickly on both sides in ½ tsp. margarine.

Place on 7 by 11-in. heat-resistant baking dish.
Carrots: Scrape and slice 6 medium-sized carrots. Dust with salt, pepper and ¼ tsp. ground allspice.

Drain 1 buffet can onions. Arrange vegetables around chops. Stir ¼ tsp. beef broth powder into 1 s. boiling water and pour in. Cover and place in oven.

Serve in baking dish. Garnish with water cress.

Gingered Pears: Open 1 buffet size can pears. Turn into small baking dish with the syrup. Sprinkle with 1 tsp. crushed fine-grated lemon rind and 1 tsp. chopped candied or preserved ginger.

Bake 15 min., then chill.
Present in wide dessert dishes. Top with butter pecan ice cream.

Soufflé Potatoes: Place the contents 1 pkg. frozen French soufflé potatoes in a baking pan heat-bake according to pkg. directions.

Suggestion of Chef:
Pass crisp crackers spread with ham pate with the chilled soup.

VALEDICTORIAN

Netherwood School for Girls, Rothesay, N.B., held its graduation exercises Wednesday, June 18. One of the traditions of the school is the colorful circle of uniformed students at the exercises. The finale of the precision marching and drill was the traditional expulsion of graduates from the circle. Two small juniors first escorted the head girl.

The minister of lands and mines, the Hon. N.B. Buchanan, delivered the address to the graduates. He was photographed for the Saint John papers on the lawn chatting with the headmistress, Mrs. Mary Crimmins, and two honor graduates. These pupils were Wendy Armstrong, class valetictorian, and Mary Chapman an outstanding music student in addition to her high academic standing. She contributed a piano solo from Brahms to the program of the day.
