IN MEMORIAM

FRANCIS LEO HUGHES

Citizens of Kensington and surrounding districts mourned the death on November 7th of one of its better known and highly esteemed residents when Leo Francis Hughes passed away in the City Hospital in his 73rd year.
For forty years Leo Hughes had been butler and cheesemaker in the Kensington Co-operative Dairying Association factory and in this way had long and happy association with the citizens of Kensington and with the farmers in the surrounding country.
His work was above reproach and he brought honor to his home town by repeatedly winning prizes for his butter and cheese. His expert technique was passed on to the many apprentices who worked with him and they in turn have continued to make prize winning butter and cheese. Prior to coming to Kensington he had made butter in factories at Kinkora and Reid's Corner.
Several years ago he was obliged to retire due to ill-health but he was able to be active around his home until a short time before his death when he entered the City Hospital where everything possible was done to make him comfortable.
On November 7th he passed his Eternal reward fortified by the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church of which he was a devout member. He was married to Lena Mulligan of Kinkora, who with their family of six children will mourn his death and cherish the memory of a devoted husband and father. The children are, (Myrtle) Mrs. Joseph Macdonald, Parkdale, (Blanche), Mrs. O. B. Darrah, (Winipeg), Man. (Ernie), Mrs. Elric Campbell, Charlottetown, (Shirley), Mrs. James Gallagher, Toronto, Ont., (Everett), Sudbury, Ont., and Wayne, Sault Ste Marie, Ont. A sister, Mrs. John Green and a brother Emmett, also are left to mourn.
On November 10th, his funeral was held to the Church of the Holy Family, Kensington Requiem Mass was sung by Rev. R. F. MacDonald. Rev. Father Croken of Kinkora was present in the sanctuary. Burial was in Kinkora cemetery. The pall bearers were Borden Greenan, P.N. LeBlanc, Keith Walte, James L. Saunders Sr., Wilbert Lawless, and Bert Kelly.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Leo Hughes wish to extend their sincere and heartfelt thanks to their many friends and neighbours for the many kind deeds shown to them during their recent bereavement, to all who sent flowers, Mass cards, and enrolls, letters and cards of sympathy.
