COBALT BULLET
ASSURES MAXIMUM
GROWTH AND WOOL PRODUCTION

PERMACO COBALT BULLETS... the only one-fee way to provide cobalt continuously

SEE THE DIFFERENCE!
All sheep need cobalt continuously to produce Vitamin B12, necessary for good health and maximum growth. Even a borderline cobalt insufficiency can reduce your meat and wool profits.

ONLY 42¢ PER HEAD! The amazing new PERMACO COBALT BULLET remains in the sheep's pasture for at least 12 months, gradually releasing the daily cobalt requirement. Just one dosing combats cobalt insufficiency—at a cost of only 42¢ per animal. In a recent trial, sheep receiving one Cobalt Bullet gained an average of 12.8 lbs. more than undosed animals!

MAKE THIS EASY TRIAL ON YOUR FLOCK
See how much more profitable your flock could be. Dose part of your flock with PERMACO COBALT BULLETS and see the big improvement in the "Bullethead" animals. Order now!

Better Telephone Service Is Sought

SOURIS BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN
In an effort to bring about improvement in the telephone service given to this eastern Kings community, a delegation of citizens will wait on the provincial Public Utilities Commission in the near future.

The decision to take this step was reached at a meeting of subscribers held in St. Mary's Hall last night under the chair-

New Officers Are Appointed At Annual Meeting Of Council

VERNON RIVER — The annual meeting of the Vernon River parish Council of the C.W.L. was held Sunday afternoon in St. Anne's Chapel with an attendance of 30 members.

The president, Mrs. Emmett Wisener in her report thanked the members especially the past president, Mrs. Leo MacDonald for their co-operation and help during the year she also thanked the Rev. Urban Gillis for his guidance, and he was then presented with a spiritual bouquet, by Mrs. Leo MacDonald on behalf of the members.

The treasurer, Miss Catherine MacEachern gave a very satisfactory report, which showed the total amount of funds raised for the year $3,208.23, from which contributions were made to the national and provincial activities of the league, Catholic girls scholarship, Catholic Welfare Centre, St. Vincent's Orphanage, the Missionaries of Mary, the Sisters of the Precious Blood, the Sisters of St. Martha, Sacred Heart Radio program and the Sacred Heart Home.

Interesting and informative reports were heard from the following conveners:

Mrs. Emmett Wisener, spiritual; Miss Catherine MacEachern, finance; Mrs. Cecil Walsh, education; Mrs. Aeneas Curran, membership; Mrs. Chester Walsh citizenship; Mrs. Leo MacDonald, social action; Mrs. Vernon MacIntyre, press and magazine; Mrs. J.A. Morrissey, radio T.V. and films.

The nominating committee of which Mrs. Ches. MacKenzie was chairman brought in the following slate of officers: president, Mrs. Emmett Wisener; 1st vice-president, Mrs. J.A. Morrissey; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. Cecil Walsh; 3rd vice-president, Mrs. Terrence Maganah; secretary, Mrs. Vernon MacIntyre; treasurer, Mrs. George MacPhee.

Councillors are: Mrs. C.J. Redmond, Mrs. Aeneas Curran and Mrs. Chester Walsh.

The Commission will be asked to make an immediate survey of the situation, and several resolutions were adopted concerning the issue, all of which will be presented later to the Commission.

Neither Mr. Gass, manager of the Island Telephone Company, nor Mr. Brennan, secretary of the Commission, were present, though both were invited to attend. Prior commitments required their presence elsewhere.

However, Mr. Brennan requested that a copy of the minutes of the meeting be forwarded to him as soon as convenient.

All agreed that the local operators were doing as good as job as could be expected, considering the facilities at their disposal.
