SUPREME COURT.

THURSDAY, Feb. 14.

The Supreme Court met this morning. Judgment was given in the suit of Henry D. Waldman vs. the City of Charlottetown, tried before the Chief Justice in January, when the plaintiff asked a rule nisi to set aside this nonsuit was argued on Tuesday last. The case arose out of the action of two policemen arresting the plaintiff in his own shop on a charge of drunkenness. The plaintiff sued the city for false arrest and on the trial the plaintiff was nonsuited on the ground that the policemen when making the arrest were not acting as the agents of the city but in the public interest and on the ground that the act was an unauthorized act, as the by-laws did not authorize the arrest of a person found drunk in his own house. During the course of the argument both Mr. Davies, Q. C., for the city, and Mr. Peters for the plaintiff, admitted that the city had the power of both appointing and dismissing the policemen, and this was conceded by the Court. The Court today discharged the rule nisi to set aside the nonsuit, with costs.

Albert Brennan, appellant, vs. Peter Broderick, respondent.—The appellant was convicted of a violation of the Canada Temperance Act some time ago, and on the appeal coming on at Summerside in June Term last, he paid part of the fine and agreed to pay the balance. A rule nisi to set aside a warrant was issued from the Supreme Court to enforce payment by distress, and in default of sufficient distress, to imprison. The appellant asked for a rule nisi to show cause why the warrant should not be set aside. The Court grants a rule returnable Easter Term next. Mr. McQuarrie for appellant, the Attorney-General for respondent.

Samuel Garrigan vs. Joseph Malligan.—Action for ejectment, tried at Summerside. Verdict for plaintiff, Mr. Peters, Q. C., and with him Mr. McQuarrie for plaintiff, show cause against a rule for nonsuit. Mr. Davies, Q. C., and Mr. E. Macdonald for defendant in support of rule.

The Deaconess Hospital at Cleveland, O., was totally destroyed by fire one day last week. Three patients and one nurse lost their lives. The nurses got out safely almost at the start, with the exception of Minnie Baumer. When her sister nurses called for her that the building was on fire she cried: "No, I will not leave my patients; I will die first." She was nursing a man named Krause, who was also burned to death. She sat by the side of the sick man until death came to both of them.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND IN P. E. ISLAND.

Annual Meeting of the Diocesan Church Society.

Reports of the Clergy in Town and Country.

The annual general meeting of the Diocesan Church Society of Prince Edward Island was held last evening in St. Paul's Schoolroom. There was a fairly large attendance. Rev. Mr. Daniel, of Charlottetown, and Rev. Mr. Woodland, of Georgetown and Cherry Valley, were the only clergymen present from the country parishes. Rev. William Hamlyn, Rector of St. Paul's, Charlottetown, occupied the chair. After devotional exercises, Mr. Percy Pope, Secretary of the Society, read the general report of the committee, as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

Your committee in meeting you again after the lapse of another year is glad to be able to report that the work of the church has been steadily maintained throughout the Island. The vacancy in Summerside parish, caused by the resignation of the Rev. F. E. J. Lloyd, has been filled by the appointment of the Rev. Dr. Osborne. It is gratifying to note that the church has been able to have our ministerial ranks recruited by a man of Dr. Osborne's recognized ability. In the country parishes, notwithstanding the general depression in business circles, a fair measure of increased activity is observable. At Ellerslie a new church is in course of erection. Cherry Valley and Georgetown have enjoyed a greater number of services than heretofore, and it has been found practicable to establish the church at Souris, matters there being so far progressed that the contract is about to be let for the erection of a church, the site having been kindly given by the Knight estate.

Since we last met we have again had brought forcibly before us the uncertainty of human life, having had, in common with yourselves, to mourn the loss of two of the oldest and most prominent members of our society, the Rev. Dr. Fitzgerald, who, for so many years practically conducted the affairs of the society, and the Hon. Judge Hensley, always one of the most active members of our executive, who, as Vice-President, had of late years so often presided over our meetings in this room. However, we must not dwell on those without hope, feeling assured that of them it may be truly said, that to live was Christ, to die was gain.

ST. PAUL'S, CHARLOTTETOWN.

Rev. W. Hamlyn refers to erection of a new building from plans by Mr. W. C. Coyne, and says that it will be a handsome and imposing structure. The ordinary work of the Church has proceeded with its usual regularity. The Sunday School, Band of Hope, Loyal Circle of King's Daughters and other societies in connection with the Church are doing well.

ST. PETER'S, CHARLOTTETOWN.

The Silver Jubilee of this church was celebrated last year and special efforts were successfully made to increase the amount of the rectory fund. The usual services have been conducted, the various societies have done good work, and the number of pupils attending the day schools has increased. Catching the children every Sunday by the Priest Incumbent continues to prove satisfactory in every respect and many of the children have joined the Scripture Union. Mr. Fred Scovill, B. A., lay reader besides doing parish work and teaching in the school, has assisted the Rev. E. T. Woodland taking services at Cherry Valley and Souris.

ALBERTON.

Services in this large parish have been regularly maintained. Special services were held for a week by the Rev. T. B. Reagle, and were productive of much good. All the churches in the mission are now free from debt; and it is hoped that the indefatigable labors of the ladies will result in the liquidation of the debt. ($300) upon St. Peter's before the next annual report. The rector travelled, last year, nearly 4,000 miles, made 400 visits, and held 204 services. He acknowledges the kindness of the people.

WORKING BILLS.

Church work in this parish has been very encouraging in the past year. Services have been regularly held, congregations and communicants increasing. At Ellerslie a new church is in course of erection, and at Lot 11 the parishioners continue to take a lively interest in church matters. At Northam the congregation continues to grow larger. The rector acknowledges many kindnesses on the part of the people.

NEW LONDON.

Rev. Thomas Lloyd reports that things have gone on fairly well. Sunday schools at Kensington and French River have done good work. St. Mark's, Kensington, has been painted outside and papered inside. Thanks are due specially to the ladies of the parish, and to the organist and choir of Kensington and French River. The kindnesses of many friends are acknowledged.

CHARLOTTETOWN AND LONG CREEK.

Sunday school work has been faithfully and regularly carried on in four different parts of the parish. The attendance at Springfield and Chappelltown was somewhat better than in 1893. Encouraging interest has been taken in the Bible classes held by the rector. Many of the young people are members of the Scripture Union. Meetings of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor have been held as regularly as the roads and weather would permit. The rectory and churches, and the churchyard at Springfield have been improved. A successful mission was held in St. Elizabeth's Church by the Rev. W. Hamlyn. Messrs. R. B. Stewart and Chadwick Stretch have been licensed as lay readers, and with their aid regular Sunday services are held at St. Thomas' Church, Long Creek. A neat stone font has recently been added to the furniture of this church.

GEORGETOWN AND CHERRY VALLEY.

An advance, though slight, has been made in these parishes. Additional ser-

VICES have been given.—Mr. Easton of Georgetown continuing to give his efficient help and Mr. Scoville having very kindly consented to give one Sunday in each week to Cherry Valley and Souris. Two hundred and twenty-six public services were held in the past year.

The clergy generally refer to the Bishop's visit last summer and to the benefit resulting therefrom.

The Rev. James Simpson moved, seconded by H. J. Candall, Esq., that the reports be adopted and printed.

Mr. L. H. Davis, M. P., took exception to a remark in the report of the rector of New London. In this he was supported by Judge Fitzgerald, who moved in amendment that the New London report be eliminated. The amendment was carried, and the report adopted as amended.

Charles Palmer Esq. was elected Vice-President in the room of the late Hon. Judge Hensley.

Rev. E. T. Woodland moved and Hon. F. Brockton seconded a vote of thanks to the leading collectors and others. Carried.

The Rev. Dr. Osborne then delivered a highly interesting address on "Missionary work in the Diocese of Algoma." He described in picturesque and eloquent terms the conditions of missionary work and the experiences of the missionary among the lumber camps and along rough mountain roads, in lonely huts and the shanties of newly planted towns. At the close a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the reverend doctor.

On motion of the Rev. James Simpson, seconded by Mr. L. H. Davis, M. P., there was resolved in effect, that in view of the gradual withdrawal of grants from the Home Society, the country parishes be impressed with the necessity of increasing the amount of their own contributions. It was desired, a deputation of clergy and laity be appointed for that purpose. Carried.

LEAGUE OF THE CROSS CONCERT.

The Concert in the Lyceum last night was largely attended—the building being packed to the doors—and the splendid programme presented was carried out to the satisfaction of all. The stage decorations were very pretty. The vocal solo "Thinking" was sung by Mrs. Byrne in her usual good style, and Mrs. Blake's rendition of "How Sorrow Thy Young Days Shaded" was also good. Miss Sullivan's vocal number was exceedingly well rendered; and Mr. Fred H. Heitz contributed a capital piano solo, "Why Sentinels Mourn," directed by Miss Bennett and Mr. Charles Harman was sung in a splendid manner, and Mr. Geo. A. Dixon's vocal solo, with violin obligato by Miss Macdonald, was a treat.

The violin trio, "Barracade," by Macdonald, Miss Hill and Mrs. Dixon was skilfully played. The instrumental duet (autoharp and mandolin) by Misses Joy Smith and Mavis Coody was also well played. The pianos by Miss Annie Quirk and the piano duo by Mrs. Dixon and Miss Emma Quirk were excellently rendered. The different numbers by the League Band were played in a highly creditable way, and five of the boys gave an instrumental quintette capably. The Misses Hornsby and Messrs. Hornsby contributed another instrumental quintette—two violins, two cornets and piano—which they played in an excellent manner. The story of "The Painter of Seville" was well told by Miss C. Kelly, and Mr. T. A. McLean recited "The Fireman" with even more than his usual ability. The Choral Society gave two choruses in good style, the voices blending well. The accompanists were Miss Amy Moore, Miss May Sullivan, Mrs. Dixon, Miss Josie Smith and Mr. Blanchard. The stage was decorated by Mrs. Dixon and Miss Emma Quirk, the carpet and most of the furnishings being from the establishment of Jas. Paton & Co.
