A LESSON TO PARENTS.

Little Charlie was dying. The death-damps were gathering on his brow; his pulse was growing so faintly, so incoherently shorter every moment. His knee that in a little time his spirit must go into an untimely state; O, the hour of death, with old or young, prepared to meet his God; and now what should he do? Who would help him? Life was passing rapidly away, and he was so young for his soul's salvation must be done quickly.

He agonized parents were by his bedside. On their knees they were kneeling, and as often he had always ready sympathy and advice now he was in sore trouble. He had come to a dark, dark valley; on this side or that he had to leave his home; he had not a friend to help him; he had the love of Him who is the red and staff of those who trust Him in that hour, and who carries the "lamb in his bosom," and who says, "I will be with him and will comfort him."

He turned his eye glaring in death upon his mother: "Mamma, will you pray for me?" "My son, I cannot pray." "Oh, what an answer to call that troubled heart whose pulses were beating fainter and fainter. He had his little child being after his father's head, and said, "Papa, will you pray for me?" "Oh, my boy, I cannot pray." Poor little trembling heart, upon whom will lean in this dread hour!

He knew not where that little boy's soul is now. We can only hope in the mercy of that Saviour who said to the thief on the cross, "To-day shalt thou be with me in paradise." But O mother, O father, will you risk the risk of seeing your little ones on a death-bed, without having taught them how to meet the end of their earthly being, and hearing your darling's voice begging you to pray for him, and be obliged to answer, "I cannot pray, my dear child." O, be of you, from this day let your children hear your voices in prayer. I beg of you, by all the mercies of our Heavenly Father, to be as those to whose charge have been committed young immortal souls, let them not launch out into the sea, and be perished, leaving mother's and a father's prayers to wait on their way.

The sale of Dickens' "Little Dorrit" is said to have greatly exceeded in England, on account of the attacks on evangelical religion which it contains.

THE LOCOMOTIVE.—Edith Horton, the Jezebel blacksmith, says: "I will see one of these creatures, with masses of brass and muscles of iron, trot from town to town, spunky about, saluting the long train of cars with a dozen sonorous puffs from his nostrils, fall back gently into the carriage, and then, with a sudden dash, and foaming upon his iron track, his great heat a furnace of glowing coils, his implacible boiler boiling, his iron wheels, and driving wheels, and moving his sinews—he pants to be gone. He could 'snake' St. Peter's across the desert of Sahara if he could be fairly hitched to it; but that is a little absurd, and I am addressing men in the saddle, who hold him in with one finger, and can take away his breath in a moment should they be so minded. I am always very much interested in this man, for, begrimed as he may be with coal, diluted in oil and steam, I regard him as the genius of the whole machinery, as his little mind and his big steam are one."

BISHOP MARLEY had a good deal of the humor of Swift. Once when the footman was out of the way, he ordered the coachman to fetch some water from the well. To this the coachman objected that his business was to drive, not to run on errands. "Well then," said Marley, "bring out the coach and four, set the pitcher inside, and drive it to the well."—a service which was several times repeated to the great amusement of the village.

Why is the letter U the gayest in the alphabet?—Because it is always in fun. Why, but why is it the most unfortunate in the alphabet?—Because it is always in trouble and difficulty.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF ASTHMA!!! OF AN OLD LADY SEVENTY FIVE YEARS OF AGE.

Copy of a Letter from Misses Weston, (Bank Store), Toronto, dated the 9th October, 1854. To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—Gratitude compels me to acknowledge to you the great benefit I have derived from the use of your Pills. My mother was afflicted for upwards of four and twenty years with asthma and spitting of blood; it was quite agony to see her suffer and hear her cough; I have often declared, that I would give all I possessed to have her cured; but although I paid a large sum for medicine and advice, it was all to no purpose. About three months ago, I thought perhaps your Pills might benefit her; at all events I resolved to give them a trial, which I did; the result was marvellous; by few degrees, my mother became better, and after persevering with your remedies for nine weeks, she was perfectly cured, and now enjoys the best of health, although seventy-five years old. I remain, Sir, your obliged servant, (Signed) THOMAS WESTON.

REMARKABLE CURE OF DROPSY.

AFTER BEING TAPPED THREE TIMES. Copy of a Letter from Elizabeth Smith, Esq. Inglewood, New South Wales, dated the 10th October, 1854. To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I desire to add my testimony to the value of your Pills for Dropsy. For nine months I had retained the greatest torture. My chest and abdomen were tapped three times, and finally given up by the medical men. I tried many medicines, but all to no purpose. I was reduced to a mere skeleton, and with no more strength in my limbs than a child just born. It was then, that I thought of trying your Pills, and I tried your Pills, and I commenced using them. The result I can scarcely credit even now, although true it is. After nine whole days of rest, I felt much better, and by persevering with them, at the expiration of two months, I was completely cured. I have since enjoyed the best of health. Yours sincerely (Signed) ANTHONY SMITH.

To an English Lawyer, Sir—

I am happy to say, that your Pills have restored my health, after suffering for nine years from the most intense general Biliousness, and my liver and bowels were also much deranged for several months. I tried many medicines, but they were of no good to me, until I had recourse to your Pills, by taking which, and following the printed directions for seven weeks, I feel much better, and other means failed to the establishment of my bowels, constipation, and friends. I shall ever feel grateful to you for the relief you have afforded me, and will recommend your Pills to all sufferers, feeling it my duty to do so.

I remain, Sir, your humble servant, (Signed) WILLIAM REEVES.
