HERE I COME

Stewart MacKay, better known to residents of Prince Edward Island as "The White Hunter" has been honored by the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company, his parent firm, with a ten day trip to Nassau. The award was made to the White Hunter for finishing first in a Dominion-wide contest . . . and is in recognition of his outstanding sales efforts over the past six months. The White Hunter, in turn, realizes full well that his great success is due to the response of the people of the Island . . . and in recognition of their support of his business, he is offering extraordinary "Thank You Values" from now until Christmas. He's set an all-Canadian record for deals . . . how can YOU lose? Check this page for your greatest ever appliance deals.
