

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

NOVEMBER 19, 1896. BUSINESS PROSPECTS.

A rising market in the Old Country, a boom in the United States, and the N. P. continuing in operation throughout Canada, all contribute to brighten the prospects of trade.

BUTTER.

Those of our farmers who are devoting their attention to the dairy are now diverting the current of their operations from cheese to butter.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Prof. Robertson, the Agricultural and Dairy Commissioner, says that the improved lands of Canada are capable of feeding twenty-five millions of people.

NEWS NOTES.

Great devastation has been caused by floods in Bosnia. Mne Adeline Patti, during the course of her career, has earned $5,000,000.

The sudden revival of commerce in the United States is attributed to the enforcement of protection. Charles Annand, son of the late proprietor of the Halifax Chronicle, died suddenly in London on Tuesday.

Gen. Booth, of the Salvation Army, announces that the Army is to extend its operations to the whole of the Malay peninsula.

The distress in India is increasing. There have been no rains in the famine districts, and the price of grain is rising.

Placards have been posted in Crete, Island of Crete, inciting the Mussulmans to engage in a holy war against the Christians.

The London Chronicle's Vienna correspondent says that Austria and Germany are negotiating to abolish the sugar bounties.

Monday was a hot day in Boston. The thermometer at the weather bureau's headquarters showed a record of 71 degrees.

The Quebec legislature opened on Tuesday. The session promises to be a long one. It is stated that the debt will be consolidated.

Ontario winter wheat sold at 90c at a point in the western part of that Province on Saturday. In the middle of June it was selling at 65c.

A good deal of snow fell in Western Ontario last week. In London there was nine inches on Saturday and good sleighing.

Gold in large quantities has been discovered in the interior of New Guinea by Sir William McGregor, the Governor, who recently travelled across the continent.

King Oscar II, of Sweden and Norway has erected a granite monument on the spot where Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Yeaman, of New York, met their death on July 4 last.

Advices from Havana state that Captain-general Weyler continues to advance into the mountains of the interior, Pinar Del Rio and that Maceo avoids giving battle.

Police Inspector McGowan, of St. John's, N.H., has gone to Montreal to arrest Captain DeLoraine, the steamer Tiber for colluding with the schooner Maggie, whereby 13 lives were lost.

Dr. J. R., and Mrs. Dowell, of Halifax, celebrated their golden wedding on Tuesday. This is the third consecutive golden wedding celebrated in the family, an unique event in Canadian history.

selling for six pence and in a few cases for seven pence. Words come from Moncton that the Dutch child was out for a short time on Tuesday morning and was able to walk a distance of several hundred yards, attended by her nurse.

The newspapers at Rome publish reports of a sensational elopement which has caused a great scandal in the highest society. The Princess Elvira, daughter of Don Carlos, pretender to the Spanish throne, recently came to Rome to visit her sister.

Thomas E. Hall of Baltimore, has sued the Sassafras River steamboat company for $25,000 for causing him to lose his vote on election day. Hall says that on October 19 he bought a round ticket from Georgetown to Baltimore, and return, and in coming on the steamer, the wrong company was taken by the purser.

President-elect McKinley is not a college graduate, but he tried to be. He entered Alleghany College, at Meadville, Pa., at the age of 16. He left before a year elapsed, on account of his health, and did not return, but taught a country school at Poland, his birthplace.

Mr. Arthur Balfour, the government leader in the British House of Commons, speaking at Rochdale on Tuesday, dwelt upon the difficulty of effecting a concert of the powers over Armenia. England, he said, had no ulterior object or desire for aggrandizement and it was a misfortune for the whole world that she had been erroneously credited abroad with ambitious aims.

The London Chronicle publishes a summary of the agreement of the settlement of the Venezuelan boundary dispute between the United States and Great Britain. The agreement, as published by the Chronicle, is very short, covering only three pages of printed matter as given out, and entitled "Heads of the proposed agreement between Venezuela and Great Britain for the settlement of the Venezuelan boundary question, as agreed upon between Great Britain and the United States."

There are four separate heads to the agreement. The first head provides for the appointment of an arbitration tribunal to determine the boundary between Venezuela and British Guiana.

The second head provides for the appointment of a tribunal consisting of two to be nominated by the justices of the supreme court of the United States, two to be nominated by the supreme court, and the fifth a jurist, to be selected by the other four.

In the event of their failure to agree, Oscar II, King of Sweden and Norway, is to select the fifth member. This fifth member may be a judge of the said courts and he will preside over the tribunal as its head.

The third head of the agreement directs that the tribunal shall investigate all the facts necessary to decide the controversy as to the extent of territory known to belong respectively to the United States, Netherlands and to Spain at the date Great Britain acquired Guiana.

The fourth head provides that the arbiters shall ascertain all the facts necessary to arrive at a proper decision, and shall be governed in their findings by the three short rules, the most important of which provides that actual holdings or a prescription of 50 years shall make good the title.

The arbiters are empowered to give effect to settler's rights. In establishing facts the ordinary rules of law shall prevail. The agreement is dated November 12 and is signed by Mr. Olney and Sir Julian Pauncefote.

The agreement will be the basis of a treaty to be concluded between Great Britain and Venezuela. In fact it will be a treaty in itself, only requiring clauses to be added relating to the procedure, the composition of members of the tribunal and other minor routine matters.

The Chronicle has a dispatch from Washington which says that Mr. Olney has urged Senator Andrade, the Venezuelan minister there, to go to Caracas to get President Crespo and the Venezuelan congress to accept the agreement. This dispatch also says that Mr. Olney wishes the resumption of diplomatic relations with Great Britain by Venezuela.

A Graduate of Toronto University Says, "My children have been treated with Scott's Emulsion from their earliest years. Our physician first recommended it, and now whenever a child takes cold my wife immediately resorts to this remedy, which always effects a cure."

Mail and Empire: It is to be hoped, that Mr. Fisher will see that the utmost vigilance is exercised to defeat the attempt of the United States cheese makers to drag the quality and the reputation of Canadian cheese down to the level of their own.

The London Daily News publishes a dispatch from Odessa, saying that an order has been received from the Russian Admiralty at every Russian port, for all naval reserve officers to hold themselves in readiness to assemble at Sebastopol if they are summoned at any time in December.

No official confirmation has been received at Ottawa of the report that their Royal Highnesses, the Duke and Duchess of York, are to visit Canada next year. It is possible, however, that when Lord Aberdeen returns there may be definite news on the point.

London bakers brought the failure in England's food supply home by raising the price of bread some six pence last week, though the rise, though not having affected the supply of flour they had on hand. In the cheapest districts bread has risen from three and a half pence to four pence for a four pound loaf, with the exception that it will go up to five pence. In the more fashionable quarters bread is
