SUMMERSIDE NEWS.

Branch Office, Central St.

MR. J. Heber Haslam, the special agent C. P. R., was about town yesterday.

MR. James Gillespie, post master of Pictou, N. S., is spending a few days in S'side.

ANDERSON & Burrows are now opening new dry goods. Choice groceries at lowest prices.

MR Frank Holman, of St. John, spent Sunday in S'side and returns home this morning.

THE seven-month's child of Mr. J. M. Noonan died yesterday at noon time. The funeral takes place to day.

NINETY-seven going, 26 returning, tells the tale of yesterday's passenger movement, via the Northumberland.

MR Elisha Wright was a passenger by the Northumberland yesterday morning en route to Montreal on business.

MR. D. K. Currie and Mr. J. F. Powers left yesterday morning for a two weeks visit to the Hub of the universe.

Now that a great deal of work is being done on the railroad wharf in the way of new crossings, etc., the sidewalk should not be forgotton.

BUY your school books at Morris' Book Store, a complete stock in every line, slates, copy books, exercise books, pens, pencils, inks & etc.—Leonard Morris, Summerside.

MESSRS. R. Hunt and Captain Barnard went to Miramichi yesterday morning on a business trip. They will have a little pleasure also taking in the Moncton races before they come home.

QUITE a number of horsemen went to Moncton yesterday to be on hand for the races there Wednesday. Mr. R. A. Fitzsimmons took his two-year old Slippery Tom; Harry Craswell his four-year old Almont Wilkes and two year old Gracie Wilkes; R Steele took the now famous Dot, and Bert Large went over with his one-year old Gelding. Mr. Al Lefurgey also went to Moncton.

MR. John Dickieson of this town possesses a horse of more than ordinary intelligence. For about ten days he had been driven in the country and when he came home he was troubled with corns; his feet were sore and needed shoeing very much. Saturday afternoon he was left standing in the stable. In some way or other he succeeded in unloosing the halter from the tie rope, went out into the yard, opened the gate (an old trick of his), and started on a brisk trot down to Mr. Woods' forge on Water street, he having been shod there for the last seven years. Several people near the railroad station saw what they supposed was a runaway and tried to stop him, but he eluded them and never stopped until he had gotten to the usual tieing ring in the forge, giving the inmates quite a surprise by his abrupt entrance. Mr. Woods shod him in his turn, turned him loose and he went home, this time surprising his owner not a little by appearing in his new shoes.

Mrs. Millions's Ride.

When Mrs. Million goes to ride she travels forth in state.
Her horses, full of fire and pride, go prancing from the gate;
But all the beauties of the day she views with languid eye,
Her flesh in weakness waste away, her voice is but a sigh.

FOR Mrs. Million is in an advanced state of catarrh, and all the luxuries that wealth can buy fail to give her comfort She envies her rosy waiting-maid, and would give all her riches for that young woman's pure breat and blooming health. Now, if some true and disinterested friend would advise Mrs. Million of the wonderful merits of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, she would learn that her case is not past help. $500 reward is offered by the manufacturers for a case of catarrh in the head which they cannot cure.

Hamilton, April 20, 1892.

I WAS doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvy affliction of the scalp, they told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snow flakes Hearing of Anti-Dandruff, I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years: when half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and for an elegant, clean and useful hair dressing Anti Dandruff has no equal.
