THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JULY 31, 1879.

Visit of the Vice-Regal Party.

THE Government and people of New Brunswick are being cordially and actively at work making suitable preparations for the reception of the Marquis of Lorne and the Princess Louise. At Fredericton, the seat of Government, extensive arrangements for a grand reception are in rapid progress, under the supervision of the general committee appointed for that purpose. Over the heading, "Fredericton Topics," in the St. John Daily Telegraph of the 29th inst., we have the following, which shows that the Military Department are at their post of duty:—

"PREPARING FOR THE VICE-REGAL PARTY.—All classes are taking a great deal of interest in the preparations for the reception of the Vice-Regal party, and the Marquis and Princess will receive a very hearty and enthusiastic, if not a very grand and imposing, welcome. The distinguished visitors, on landing, will be received by a guard of honor consisting of a hundred men, under command of Captain Cropley; the other officers of the guard will be Lieut. Howe, Loggie and Pinder. The guard will be made up of fifty men from Captain Cropley's company, twenty from Major Staples' and ten from each of the other companies of the battalion. A guard of nine men and an orderly will be on duty at Government House every day while the Marquis and Princess are in the city. It is said that the Vice-Regal party will attend divine service at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in the morning, and at the Cathedral in the evening. The Corporation addresses will, most probably, be presented in the Exhibition Building at 12 o'clock on Monday, and in the evening a Drawing Room will be held at Government House. The Committee appointed to collect subscriptions in the different wards commenced work this afternoon, and it is to be hoped that they will find no difficulty in raising the amount of money that is required."

In St. John city the preparations are immense. Reid's Castle, which is to be the temporary residence of the Marquis of Lorne and the Princess Louise, is being magnificently prepared for their reception. The Central Committee is backed up by enterprising mechanics and other citizens in the erection of arches and other decorations in honor of the occasion.

In this Island there is, we believe, a "growing feeling" among the people generally not to be far behind in regard to the reception of the Royal visitors. Let there be no procrastination about this matter. Let us not have the sound of hammers and the hum of busy men and women going on when the Vice-Regal party are just landing on our shores. For then all preparations must cease, to give place to the sound of the pibroch, the glitter of the military and the enthusiasm of the whole people.

The officers of the Caledonian Club, of this Province, are the only persons as yet who have moved in the matter of reception in this Province. They have arranged for their grand annual gathering in honor of the Vice-Regal party. But the Government, at their Council meetings yesterday and to-day, are, doubtless, maturing their plans for the reception; and the City Council will, of course, consider the matter at their meeting of Friday evening. Action on the part of lodges, companies and private citizens will, of course, depend upon the action of those bodies. All working harmoniously together, under a good organization, there is no doubt that a hearty and sufficiently generous reception can be given our royal and noble visitors without undue expense.

Haman Hanged on His Own Gallows.

The following appears in the Patriot of to-day:—
 "EXTORTION.—The Commissioner of Public Works, most properly called the Unsound, pays a favorite of the Government forty cents a gallon for kerosene oil, when the trade are offering it for twenty-five to thirty cents a gallon."

We inquired at the Public Works Department for information in reference to the above, and we are authorized to say that the present Government has not contracted nor paid for kerosene oil at forty cents a gallon or at any other price, either with a favorite of the Government or any other person. The only contract for kerosene oil now existing is one made by the late Commissioner, on the first of January last, for supplies of kerosene for Queen's, King's and Prince County Jails. The tender of John Quirk, Esq., for forty cents a gallon, was accepted over the tender of J. D. McLeod, Esq., for twenty-eight cents. It is for Mr. W. D. Stewart to explain why Mr. McLeod's tender was passed over, AND THE TAXPAYERS MULCT TO THE TUNE OF TWELVE CENTS PER GALLON. Has there ever been any complaint against the quality of goods supplied by Mr. McLeod? We readily agree with the Patriot that forty cents a gallon is too high a price. But we cannot blame Mr. Quirk in the matter. The Government which accepted his tender over much lower offers, are alone responsible. The charge of "extortion," preferred by the Patriot, does, however, lie at the door of another party, whose dealings with the Government of which he was a member, we are again compelled to expose. The Hon. Thomas Walker Dodd supplied the late Government with a considerable quantity of kerosene oil and charged them forty cents per gallon. This is what the Patriot calls "extortion." We "thank thee, Jew, for teaching us that word." If there ever was a perfect illustration of Haman hanging on his own gallows, we have it in the kerosene oil business. We take it for granted, of course, that Mr. W. D. Stewart inspired the Patriot in this matter. The Patriot was his obedient tool while he was making bad bargains and giving extortionate prices. It is still his obedient tool. But the gallows it erected, at his command, for Mr. Ferguson is the gibbet upon which he has himself been hung. And Mr. Ferguson sits at the gate of the King's palace. So let all evil schemes and evil men be brought to naught, and let men who do right be exalted.

The Meat Fizzle.

We publish to-day Mr. Bridge's letter, and note the impudent editorial in the Patriot. It is established by incontrovertible evidence—which the Patriot has not the fairness to publish—that the Government acted on the reports of the proper officials, and that the contract they made was a reasonable and proper one. Therefore the action of the Government is perfectly justifiable; and it is not necessary to defend it any longer.

Nor is it at all necessary, we think, that we should defend THE EXAMINER against the charge of trying its best to destroy the character of Mr. Bridges. If we are to place any credit at all upon the report of the Patriot—which Mr. Bridges endorses as substantially correct—it was in spite of friendly warning and advice, on the part of the Commissioner of Public Works, that Mr. Bridges published his letter, and so made necessary the publication of all that has been damaging to his character in this controversy.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

UNITED STATES.

NEW YORK, July 29.
 A San Francisco despatch from Colton says General E. Boynton, of Los Angeles, while riding yesterday was stopped by three men, taken off and tied to his wagon wheels. He managed to get his hand loose, drew his pistol, killed one man and wounded the other two. Robbery was his object.

ATLANTA, Ga., July 29.
 Officers have returned from a successful blood hound hunt after one of the murderers of Defoor and wife on Friday night. He confessed to the murder being done by himself, a white man and another negro. Asa Morgan (the prisoner) says he held a lamp while the white man killed the old people. The officers are after the other two. Morgan was badly bitten by the hounds. A large amount of money was obtained by the murder.

GALVESTON, July 29.
 The "News" special from Fort Davis says Major Courtenay skirmished with the Indians at Salt Lake, 75 miles west of here on Saturday. Two soldiers were badly wounded, ten horses were captured from the Indians.

READING, Pa., July 29.
 Miss Lavinia Fry, aged 20, near Ephrata, several miles from this city, was passing along the public road, when a drove of cattle passed by, and an infuriated bull attacked her. Catching her on his horns, he tossed her 20 feet across a creek; the animal then plunged after her, and on the opposite bank again caught her on his horns and threw her over a five rail fence. One horn penetrated the abdomen, her hip bone was broken, and she was so badly wounded that she died shortly afterwards.

MEMPHIS, July 29.
 One hundred and fifty minute men have been enrolled to respond to any call. President Porter, of the Committee of Safety, denies the rumors that the military force will be used to compel the people to go into camp.

LATER.

MEMPHIS, July 29.
 Dr. Collins, inspecting officer, whom the vigilant committee compelled to flee from Lagrange, Tenn., arrived here yesterday. He walked from Moscow, Tenn., to Buntyn station, about 30 miles, without food, as at every station he was met by armed men, who warned him to proceed. A "shot gun quarantine" was enforced against him more severe than that of the State Board of Health.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 29.
 To this date there have been 120 cases of fever, of which 36 have died, which shows a mortality of 30 per cent. The old infected districts of 1873 and 1878 were exempt from the fever until yesterday. A striking instance of immunity from a second attack of the disease is cited in the illness in the family of P. G. Meath. Last year seven members of the family were stricken; twice his children were sent abroad, and of these, Patrick Meath, jr., was prostrated with the disease ten days ago, and soon died; Mrs. Meath, another of those sent away last year, is in a critical condition, while none of the seven who were sick last year have been effected in the least.

NEW YORK, July 29.
 A despatch from New Orleans, to-day, says every train for the North is crowded by fleeing citizens from the yellow fever. The fever originated in the same neighborhood whence it started in years past.

LONDON, July 29.
 Kate Webster, convicted of the murder of Mrs. Thomas, at Richmond, was hanged to-day. She confessed the murder and acknowledged she had no accomplices. Sir Stafford Northcote was present in the Commons last night. The injury from the carriage collision was less serious than reported.

A large portion of the wall of the import dock of the East Indian docks, Blackwell, fell to-day (Tuesday), carrying with it all the hydraulic cranes and quay sheds; damage £100,000.

EDINBURGH, July 29.
 It is reported that Thomas Beyley Potter, member of Parliament for Rochdale and secretary of the Cobden Club, will sail for the United States on Saturday next and will visit the principle free trade centres in the Northern and Western States.

LONDON, July 29.
 A Constantinople despatch says that a terrific fire has been raging since Monday at Orta Keni, a village on the Bosphorus. The Jewish quarter has been destroyed and hundreds of families are encamped on the roads.

The condition of currency for the retail trade in Constantinople becomes more deplorable daily.

PARIS, July 29.
 A despatch to the Journal des Debats, from Constantinople, reports serious riots at Philippopolis. Aleko Pasha was threatened by the people, and has published a proclamation declaring he will return to Constantinople.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 29.
 The assailant of Lieutenant General Drentelen was arrested, and is found to be the same person who, when passing under the name of Pleteveff, committed other offences at Saganzog. He fired on the gen de armes attempting to arrest him.

MADRID, July 29.
 The old man who threw a stone at the King when in his carriage is certified to be insane and has been placed in an asylum. The Government has signed a treaty of commerce with the Republic of Columbia. The negotiations between Peru and Spain, for a renewal of diplomatic relations, are proceeding satisfactorily.

The Civic Election

To the Editor of the Examiner.
 SIR.—I can enjoy a good joke as well as any other person but I really do think that the gentlemen who signed the requisition to Mr. M. A. Camern have carried their joke a little too far by publishing said requisition in your journal.

Many readers of the EXAMINER will remember, Mr. Editor, that some years ago a number of young sports, "just for the fun of the thing," waited up the late William Byers, (a colored gentleman better known as "Black Bill" who resided in that high toned locality called the West Bog) and asked him to allow himself to be put in nomination for Mayor of the City of Charlottetown. Mr. Byers immediately consented and was duly nominated. Election day arrived and much to the surprise of all concerned, the West Bog King was within a hair's breadth of being His Worship, Mayor Byers.

Now, sir, with your permission I would warn those individuals who have asked Mr. Cameron "to run for Mayor," to beware and look before they leap further, otherwise their little joke may be the means of respectable men backing down.

Yours, &c.,
 A TAX PAYER.
