

ROSES AND THORNS

I had just settled down to do some serious studying last Sunday night in the Robertson Library; it was about 8:30 pm and I was looking forward to a couple of hours of productive studying. After about ten minutes I was really starting to get "into it", "good thing" I thought to myself, "exams are really getting close", when all of a sudden, to my complete surprise I found myself in total darkness. Thinking that we were experiencing yet another power outage I got out of my seat only to discover that the other people in the library were preparing to leave... the library was closing, At 9:00pm! If I had been a regular visitor to the library I no doubt would have known it closed a 9:00pm but that is not the point. I ask you all, are you satisfied with a library that closes at 9 o'clock on Sunday night? In the past I have always found Sunday night a most popular study time among students and with X-mas exams rapidly approaching I'm sure many students will be wanting to spend as many hours as possible in the library which is the only place where many students can go to study, I'm sure if enough of you voice your opinion on this matter we could have something done about it. Go for it!

Bouquet of Thorns: Tony Carroll for his column in last week's Sun. Tony, your remarks were in bad taste, even slanderous, clean up your act and print an apology! Also the editors of this paper for letting such a thing be published.

Bouquet of Roses: Trevor Crawford for a beautiful goal in overtime last Sunday. Trevor's been a very consistent force for the Panthers over the past seasons. Also congrats to Trevor on the new addition to his family. Have a cigar!

Panther Notes: -
- Not too many days of classes left; time to hit the books.
- Both the hockey Panthers and Lady Panthers Basketball teams are doing pretty decent of late.
- Guess it was a good time at the Junior Class Curling Bonspiel in Cornwall last Friday.

- Engineers are having a pub tonight!
- Only one Main Event left before Xmas. Dec. 2 if I'm not mistaken.

Have an enormous week!
