CURRAN - In loving memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather, Farnell, who passed away October 20, 1965. "Remembrance is a golden chain Death tries to break, but all in vain. To have, to love, and then to part, Is the greatest sorrow of one's life. The years may wipe out many things But this they wipe out never, The memory happy days When we were all together. Sleep on, dear dad, and take thy rest, God alone knows what is best." Sadly missed and always remembered by his loving wife, family and grandchildren.

OBITUARY

STERLING A. MACSWAIN (Inserted by the family) Relatives and friends were saddened by the sudden passing at his home in Morell on September 16, 1965 of Sterling Alexander MacSwain in his 66th year. His death was not unexpected as he never recovered from a severe heart attack suffered a year and a half ago but he had been well enough to be up and about and there seemed some hope of his ultimate recovery but God willed otherwise. His long illness had been borne with infinite patience and resignation. A man of pleasing personality and an interesting and well informed conversationalist, his many friends who visited him while he was sick marvelled at his cheerful outlook in spite of the fact that he was seldom free from pain. Mr. MacSwain was born at Mt. Hope, northeast of Dundas at the turn of the century where he was a successful farmer until joining the air force at the outbreak of World War I. At the end of hostilities he returned to Mt. Hope and farmed before moving to Morell where he continued farming and became engaged in the farm machinery business and was the founder of A.S. MacSwain and Sons. He was a member of Morell United Church and of the Canadian Legion. A devoted husband and father, his loss is felt most keenly in the home. He is survived by his wife, the former Marjorie Robbins, two sons, Sterling and Norman, both of Morell and eight grandchildren. Two brothers, J.D. Burnaby, B.C. and Sheldon, of Forest Hill; and four sisters, Hattie, Mrs. G.H. Perry, Alberta; Florence, Mrs. W.W. Anderson, St. Peter's; Belle, Mrs. Russell Hunter, Sidney, B.C.; and Mary, Mrs. L.S. Cox, Charlottetown. Mr. MacSwain was predeceased by an infant daughter, two sisters and two brothers.

Stewart United Church of which she was a faithful member.
