

GIRDLES THE EARTH,

Cures by Dodd's Kidney Pills all over the Globe.

Mr. John S. Morgan, of Bridgewater, N. S., Saved by Dodd's Kidney Pills after all other Means Failed to Help Him.

BRIDGEWATER, N. S., Feb. 19.—That "Bedless Chain" of proof that Dodd's Kidney Pills are the only Kidney cure known to be infallible, passes through Bridgewater.

Mr. John S. Morgan, a prominent local business man, speaking of the matter recently, said: "There is an endless chain of cures made by Dodd's Kidney Pills, and it encircles the entire globe. Every cure is a link, and there are hundreds of thousands of them."

"I am a link myself. And I can assure you if you are afflicted with any kind of Kidney Complaint, as nine of every ten persons are, your only hope lies in Dodd's Kidney Pills; I should know, for I have been through the mill, and my experience furnishes undisputed proof."

"I had Kidney Disease for eighteen years. I couldn't begin to give you an idea of the agony I endured. It passes all description."

"I tried all the remedies advertised to cure kidney disease. My money was only wasted. I was treated by different physicians. They couldn't even relieve me, much less cure me. My urine was almost black, and scalded horribly, in passing. Rheumatic pains racked every joint. I don't believe any man could suffer more than I did and live."

"As a last resort I tried Dodd's Kidney Pills. On that day my cure began. I felt better each succeeding day. I used twenty boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and was given back my health, strength and vigor. Nothing on earth but Dodd's Kidney Pills could have saved me. They'll save every other victim of kidney disease."

Only One More Month

Our celery will only hold out about one month. Some of the wise ones are ordering a quantity to be kept in reserve for them. We have held on to the best for the last (the famous English Red Celery.) In this respect we resemble children who keep the most dainty part of their lunch to the last and at the rate it is going the time will soon come when there will not even be a last. The moral to the above is quite plain; no need to read between the lines it is enjoy it while it lasts.

We also have Hubbard Squash, Cape Cod and Island Cranberries, Spanish & Canadian onions, Brussels sprouts, red & white cabbage, carrots, beets, parsnips, turnips, beans, peas, parsley, etc.

Lettuce and mushroom in a few days at #ays Stalls Market.

J. J. GAY & SON,

Sothorn's Recitation.

Sir Edward Russell knew E. A. Sothorn, the actor, intimately and in his book, "That Reminds Me," tells many stories of him.

He was dining at Portsmouth or somewhere at a regimental mess to which the officers had asked him with every show of the highest admiration and with no appearance of social superiority. After dinner, as the party sat at wine, one of the officers asked Sothorn to give them a recitation. Now, Sothorn abominated that kind of thing. He wouldn't tolerate being treated as an entertainer when he was by way of being treated as a gentleman. He coldly declined. They pressed him. He hotly declined. Still they pressed him. He expressed his feelings. Perhaps the officers were a little affected by wine. At all events they persisted. They would take no denial.

At last he said in a manner which showed that he was nettled, but yet yielding: "Well, if you won't let me off I must. I'll give you the dinner scene from 'David Garrick.'"

He did. He had never acted it better. They were delighted until, springing to his feet, he made his wild, tipsy exit, just as he did on the stage, and dragged the cloth off the table and with it all the regiment's prized dessert china and decanters and glasses, etc. Great was the smash. The actor did not wait to be applauded or to improve the occasion. The lesson was, indeed, a rough one, and probably only a man with some roughness in his daring humor would have given it, but it was quite deserved.

RAILROAD....

KIDNEY

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Did it ever occur to you that most railroad men die of kidney disease?

Such is the fact, however, and the disease is known among railroaders as "railroad kidney."

The most marked symptoms are weak, lame and aching back. You may think at first that you are only tired; but as this trouble increases day by day, kidney disease, with all its terrors, is fast claiming you as a victim.

Mr. Geo. Cummings, for over 20 years engineer on the Grand Trunk running between Toronto and Allandale, says: "The constant duty with my work gave me excessive pains in my back, racking my kidneys. I tried several remedies until I was recommended by my friend, Mr. Dave Conley, to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Two boxes have completely cured me and I feel to-day a better man than ever. I recommend them to all my friends."

A Penalty For Being Polite.

It is more difficult to be polite in the city of Hamburg than in any other place in Europe. There the most chivalrous man has to think twice before giving up his seat in a car to a lady, as he may be turned off the car for politeness. It seems that the Hamburg trolley cars will seat, according to size, 20 or 28 persons, 10 to 14 on each side. In addition four persons are allowed on the front and five persons on the back platform. When the car is full, the conductor hangs out a sign, "Besetzt," which means "occupied," and is absolutely forbidden to take on another passenger until some one gets off the car.

Sometimes, while the conductor is in front collecting fares, a lady will step on the car which is already "occupied." As there is no conductor on hand to prevent her, the lady steps inside, and the gentleman who may offer her a seat comes out and takes his stand on the platform. When the conductor after going his rounds returns to his post, he promptly requests the gentleman to step off the car, as he has forfeited his seat and the car is fully "occupied." Should he refuse to leave the car he is put off. The policemen on the streets are instructed to watch the cars sharply, and if they find a car carries even one more passenger than its proper complement the conductor is fined 72 cents, which is paid to a charity fund of the street railway company.—Philadelphia Press.

Salt and Horse Radish.

Some people care for nothing but lemon on raw oysters, but there are others who desire horse radish. Usually such folk regard the strongest horse radish as the best, but an experienced vender of the condiment poolpools this point of view.

"Why should the strong horse radish be considered good?" says he. "It brings tears to your eyes and lifts the top of your head off and makes you want to sneeze. It has no taste whatever. The mild horse radish, that which has stood awhile, is the best and pleasantest always."

"There is nothing so foolish as to think that the strong, biting kind is the fresh—that is the reason why it is preferred to the mild sort—for the very stales, weakest horse radish can be made in 20 minutes strong enough to blow your head off. All you need to do is to add salt to it. Try this some time. Just take any old horse radish, dump in a spoonful of salt and then notice the difference. I don't know why salt should have such a powerful effect on the stuff, but no doubt a chemist could tell you that."—Philadelphia Record.

The sprinkling of railway lines with oil is valuable in that rain does not penetrate the oiled outer crust, and that vegetation along the line of the rails is destroyed.
