

PROUD FISHERMAN

Wayne Peters is the proud owner of a four pound and a three quarter ounce trout shown above. Wayne, who lives at 313 Grafton Street in Charlottetown, caught the whopper Saturday morning in the Bonshaw area. Peters said that he used minnow bait to catch the 20 inch long fish.

warplanes over Cuba are an un-concealed violation of the sovereign rights of an independent state, a violation of the United Nations Charter and of generally recognized standards of international law," the article charged.

"This is a most dangerous policy which could lead to the risk of a new sharpening of tension in the Caribbean area. . . .

WILL SIDE WITH CUBA

"Gentlemen, do not try to intimidate us. If Cuba is subjected to a treacherous attack, the Soviet Union will not put up with it and will side with Cuba. It has declared this before and confirms this now."

Izvestia said it is an inalienable right of Cuba "to take the necessary measures to put an end to the intrusion of foreign warplanes into its air space."

"If the provocations are continued against Cuba," it said, "the responsibility for them will be borne by those who organize these provocations."

The U.S. has said it intends to continue the flights.

President Johnson told a Washington press conference Tuesday the flights are essential to determine whether any new offensive missiles are being installed in Cuba. The Russians withdrew their nuclear-armed medium-range rockets in the 1962 confrontation.

This followed up a declaration by Premier Castro in a Havana speech Sunday that Cuba no longer would tolerate violations of its air space by American planes.

REJECTS DEMAND

The Cuban government demanded in a note to Washington, relayed by Swiss diplomats, that the flights be ended. The U.S. state department rejected the demand.

The Izvestia article said: "It is completely clear that there can be no real improvement in Soviet-American relations at the expense of the lawful interests of our friends, including the interests and lawful rights of the republic of Cuba."

The reconnaissance flights are viewed by the U.S. as a necessary substitute for on-site inspections demanded in 1962 by President John F. Kennedy's administration.

Castro rejected the on-site inspections, despite the fact the Russians urged them to accept them.

PILOTS STRIKE

ROME (Reuters) — Pilots of Alitalia, Italy's national airline, staged a four-hour strike Tuesday in protest against the company's use of a foreign crew on a North Atlantic cargo route. The strike affected take-offs from Rome to airports within Italy and abroad, but incoming traffic was not delayed.

Russian Paper Denounces Reconnaissance Over Cuba

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet government's official newspaper has denounced U.S. reconnaissance flights over Cuba and reiterated that the Soviet Union will side with Fidel Castro's island country if it is attacked.

Izvestia stepped into a controversy between Havana and Washington with a long article sharply condemning the aerial surveys of Cuba that the United States has conducted periodically since the missile crisis of October, 1962.

The article was signed by "observer," which means someone influential in Premier Khrushchev's regime. And its headline was: "No one is allowed to violate the sovereignty of Cuba."

In Washington, a state department spokesman declined to comment.

"The flights of American
