FALL FOOD Festival

SEPTEMBER 19th - 20th - 21st

The annual meeting of Marian Academy Alumnae was held in the Convent Auditorium at 2 p.m. Sunday the 15th inst. The Sister Directress—S.S.M. Gagnia opened the meeting with a few interesting remarks. Then followed the usual routine of business. The president, Mrs. Felix Des Roches gave her address, followed by the reports of the secretary, Mrs. Sylvère Gaudet, and the treasurer, Miss Eleanor Desroches. All showed a satisfactory balance on hand after all obligations and contributions were paid. The lotteries in aid of funds to help defray the expenses of local Seminary Gerald Steele, were again successful this year amounting to the sum of $118.25. The guest speaker for the occasion was S. S. Hildebert of St. Marian Academy staff, who has just returned from Antigonish, N.S. where she took a course in the scientific education of younger children and methods best suited to achieving success. Needless to say, Sister's talk was enjoyed by one and all. The new Superior—Sr. St. Margaret of Bavaria received a warm welcome from the alumnae members who all wish her many years of happiness and usefulness in their midst. A delicious lunch of ice cream and cake, etc. followed by social chat and the Queen, Phyllis Gaudet accompanist brought the 1957 meeting to a close.
