

A French Fishery Outrage.

BRITISH VESSELS ATTACKED BY FRENCHMEN AT NEWFOUNDLAND—AN INVESTIGATION BY ADMIRAL COMMERRALL.

Admiral Commerrall, of the British flag-ship, is investigating the outrage recently perpetrated on four British vessels by French fishermen, headed by a shore captain, at Cape Oaions, on the north-east coast of Newfoundland, early in August. Four British fishing vessels anchored at Cape Oaions for cod-fishing. As soon as they launched their skiff a number of Frenchmen ordered them to weigh anchor and quit. They refused, whereupon the Frenchmen began to unbend their sail, seized their oars, and carried them ashore. Having stripped three vessels, they boarded the schooner Comet. Capt. Aylward showed fight, delivering some lusty blows on the Frenchmen, and putting them to flight. The assailants then attacked Capt. Aylward and crew with boat hooks and gaffs, severely mistreating them. They then stripped his vessel. Two days after a French war cruiser arrived, and after inquiry restored the sails and gear to the vessels, but ordered them to quit the harbor. All the vessels retired under protest. The people of Newfoundland are indignant at the outrage which may lead to international complications.

A Wise Horse.

The following incident is actually true: A long line of horses stand ready harnessed to take the street cars around an up-grade corner in Boston. The horses are so placed in a line so as to be taken each in its due turn. Just now the driver detailed for the purpose was out of sight around the corner, a horse, whose turn it was next, deliberately walked down the line and placed himself as the last in the line; the last thus to be used. As he watched closely, he noticed that it was but one horse that did this. It so invariably, and not until the driver was out of sight around the corner, as to make it impossible that it was done to escape work. Could a horse be that intelligent anywhere outside of New England. As to the morality of the act, alas, alas!

Household Hints.

A lump of alum dissolved in the water in which you wash light blue stockings will prevent their fading. A delicate way to vary the invalid's daily toast is to heat a little clear, sweet cream and dip the toast into it. SWEET PICKLED CUCUMBERS.—For sweet pickle cucumber that will not shrivel, peel cucumber, steam as soft as liked, and let stand over night in a weak brine. In the morning drain and put on vinegar enough to cover, and let stand over night; again in the morning drain. Take to one pint of vinegar, three pounds of sugar and one ounce of cassia buds. CHILI SAUCE.—Eighteen large ripe tomatoes, two onions as large around as a common teacup, four green sweet peppers, chop onions and peppers fine, four teacups of vinegar, two tablespoonfuls of salt, four tablespoonfuls of sugar, two tablespoonfuls of ginger, two tablespoonfuls of cinnamon, one tablespoonful of cloves, one tablespoonful of allspice, and one nutmeg. Boil one hour. This makes three quarts.

The Great French Remedy, Dr. LeDuc's Periodical Pills. For the cure of Leucorrhoea or White's E.cessive or painful Menstruation, Green Sickness, Falling of the Womb, Catarrh of the Uterus or Vagina, Hysteria, pain in the Back, or Piles, or for the purpose of invigorating and giving tone to the Genesive Organs, two pills should be taken twice daily, or in very debilitated conditions, one pill three times a day. To effect cures in chronic cases it will be necessary to continue the use of the remedy for some months. A reasonable trial will create sufficient confidence in the remedy to insure its being taken until a permanent cure is effected. STARR KIDNEY PAD CO., 31 King Street, W. Toronto, All Druggists.
