

THE WESTERN GUARDIAN

PRETORIA COUNTY OFFICE
3 Summer Street, Summerside, Phone 8031
New, Subscriptions, Advertising Representative
GEORGE CLOW and GEORGE WOTTON
House Phones: 8032 and 8033
The Guardian may be bought at any of the following stores in Summerside:
Bell Bookstore, Summer Street; Gourlies Drugstore, 21 Central Street; Kelly's New-stand, Water Street; Mark Gaudet, 67 Granville Street; Alyre Doucette's Grocery, Second Street; Island Motor Transport, Water Street; Vince's Grocery, 130 Russell Street; Enman's Self-Service Drug Store; Fred's Grocery, Convent Street.
K. L. Waite in Kensington.
WEST PRINCE OFFICE
Alberton: Frank Weeks, Representative.
Phone: 68-2 Office and 68-3 House.

WEANER pigs wanted from 25 to 40 pounds. J. George MacKay, Albany, phone 29-21.
POSTPONED ANNUAL MEETING of Kelt Memorial Presbyterian Church, Malpeque, will be held Friday, February 6th, at 7.30.

AT HOME—Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hynes, Malpeque, will be at home to their friends at their home in Malpeque on Tuesday, February 3 from 2:00 to 4:00 and from 7:00 to 10:00 p.m., occasion being their Golden Wedding anniversary.

VISITING S'IDE — A.C.I. Budd Enman, stationed with the R.C.A.F. at Rockcliffe, Ontario, who is at present spending a month's leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Enman of Springhill, is visiting with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C.E. MacKinnon, Summerside.

ZION Y.P.S. PRESBYTERY—Zion Y.P.S. held its regular weekly meeting last evening. The meeting opened with the devotional period which was under the leadership of Jessie MacEwen and Anna MacPhail. Hymns sung were "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind", and "The Sands of Time Are Sinking". The repeating of the Lord's Prayer in unison closed the devotional period. After an enjoyable crockinole party, lunch was served. The meeting closed with "Blest Be The Tie That Binds".

AT ROTARY — Mr. William Cairns of Freetown, was guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Summerside Rotary Club yesterday, and was introduced by Rotarian E. P. Foley, M.L.A., who was in charge of the program. Mr. Cairns gave an interesting outline of his study of agriculture in England and on the European continent last summer. Gabriel Chaisson was welcomed as a new member of the club. Guests included Rotarian Arthur L. MacPherson, and non Rotarian guests were Messrs. Brad Cairns, Scott Cairns and Wyman Cairns.—S.

TRINITY Y.P.U. MEETING—The regular weekly meeting of the Trinity Y.P.U. was held last night in the Social Hall. The meeting was under the direction of Richard Carson, convener of citizenship and community service. The meeting opened with a lively recreation period followed by a short business meeting and worship service. Further plans were made for a Memorial Field. A few rounds of Bible Baseball were then directed by Richard Carson. The meeting closed by singing "Blest Be The Tie" and Mr. Johnston pronounced the benediction.

PERSONALS — Mr. Albert Waugh of Wilmet Valley is improving after an attack of virus pneumonia at his home.—S.
—Mr. James McKenna of Kinokora is a patient in the Prince County Hospital and has been there under treatment for the past three weeks. His many friends wish him recovery of his good health.—S.

Mrs. J. Y. McFadyen has returned to her home in Kensington from Tignish where she was called by the illness and subsequent death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. (Dr.) Wickham.—S.

NORTHAM AND VICINITY — Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Raynor of Greenmount, were visitors at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon McArthur.
Miss Jessie Raynor, R. N., Summerside, was the recent guest of her sister, Mrs. Eldon McArthur.
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Baker were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cotton on January 26, the occasion being Mr. Cotton's birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent.

The many friends of Miss Elizabeth Ann MacLean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacLean, regret to hear that she is a patient in the Stewart Memorial Hospital Centre with pneumonia.
Mr. and Mrs. Reagh Birch and family, Birch Hill, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Graydon Grigg on January 27.
Mr. Norman Ford spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Seaman Ford, Arlington.
Mr. James Milligan and Mr. Charles Newcombe were visitors to Portage on January 24, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Major Milligan.—A. W.

DELIGHTFUL COMEDY AT CAPITOL THEATRE, SUMMERSIDE — Paramount's delightful new Technicolor comedy, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" now at the Capitol Theatre, is the gay purveyor of one of the happiest stories ever put on film. The laugh-loaded dialogue of celluloid hilarity, which stars Leo Genn and Don Taylor, involves fifteen hundred Marines, three beautiful, well-protected girls and their straight-laced father.
This involvement of such an unusual assortment of characters occurs on a remote South Pacific island where the Marine Corps plans to build an airfield. What adds to the delectable merriment embodied in the tale is that the only inhabitants of the tropical paradise are these three sisters and their father. The girls have never seen a man of their own age. The Marines have not had their eyes on a femme in over two years of fighting, and the father is literally going out of his mind in a frantic effort to shield his daughters from what he feels is imminent danger.
However, when father, portrayed by Leo Genn, says no fraternizing, the girls refuse to take no for an answer. The Marines, being gallant young men, back them up and the fun begins. According to advance reports, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" is chock-full of romance, comedy, beautiful color and scintillating dialogue.

Death Yesterday Of Summerside Business Man — The death occurred at his home in Summerside yesterday of Mr. G. Edgar Clark, one of Summerside's most prominent business men and who was held in the highest esteem by friends and business associates alike for his many sterling qualities and his friendly nature.
The late Mr. Clark, who was in his 79th year, was born in Victoria, P. E. I., a son of the late Captain George and Mrs. Clark. He came to Summerside nearly 60 years ago after he had learned the tailoring trade at Crapaud Corner under the late John Williams. Here he worked for a time in the employ of the late William A. Stewart and later for a brief period he moved to Newcastle, N. B., where he resided and carried on his trade.
Returning to Summerside he formed a partnership with the late Corey Steeves and for some years they maintained a business stand on Water Street. On the death of Mr. Steeves he became associated with the late William Buchanan and for some years the well known firm of Clark and Buchanan represented the finest in tailoring excellence in the Maroons.
On the death of Mr. Buchanan in 1929, Mr. Clark took over the business in his own name. He was the local representative of the well known Tip Top Tailors brand of clothing.
He was for some years a member of the Oddfellows Lodge and up until a few years ago was the superintendent of Sunday School and a member of the choir in the United Baptist Church.
He leaves to mourn his wife, the former Clara Taylor of Summerside; one son George, Summerside; one daughter, Olga (Mrs. P. W. Ranger, Providence, R.I.), who arrived home some days ago.
Mrs. Clark is survived by Mrs. Jack Beale (Lionel) of Stoneham, Mass. and Mrs. Thomas Keddy (Emma), Dover, Mass.
The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon from his late residence to the United Baptist Church for service commencing at 2:00 p.m.
S.

PARAMOUNT'S DELIGHTFUL NEW Technicolor comedy, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" now at the Capitol Theatre, is the gay purveyor of one of the happiest stories ever put on film. The laugh-loaded dialogue of celluloid hilarity, which stars Leo Genn and Don Taylor, involves fifteen hundred Marines, three beautiful, well-protected girls and their straight-laced father.
This involvement of such an unusual assortment of characters occurs on a remote South Pacific island where the Marine Corps plans to build an airfield. What adds to the delectable merriment embodied in the tale is that the only inhabitants of the tropical paradise are these three sisters and their father. The girls have never seen a man of their own age. The Marines have not had their eyes on a femme in over two years of fighting, and the father is literally going out of his mind in a frantic effort to shield his daughters from what he feels is imminent danger.
However, when father, portrayed by Leo Genn, says no fraternizing, the girls refuse to take no for an answer. The Marines, being gallant young men, back them up and the fun begins. According to advance reports, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" is chock-full of romance, comedy, beautiful color and scintillating dialogue.

PARAMOUNT'S DELIGHTFUL NEW Technicolor comedy, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" now at the Capitol Theatre, is the gay purveyor of one of the happiest stories ever put on film. The laugh-loaded dialogue of celluloid hilarity, which stars Leo Genn and Don Taylor, involves fifteen hundred Marines, three beautiful, well-protected girls and their straight-laced father.
This involvement of such an unusual assortment of characters occurs on a remote South Pacific island where the Marine Corps plans to build an airfield. What adds to the delectable merriment embodied in the tale is that the only inhabitants of the tropical paradise are these three sisters and their father. The girls have never seen a man of their own age. The Marines have not had their eyes on a femme in over two years of fighting, and the father is literally going out of his mind in a frantic effort to shield his daughters from what he feels is imminent danger.
However, when father, portrayed by Leo Genn, says no fraternizing, the girls refuse to take no for an answer. The Marines, being gallant young men, back them up and the fun begins. According to advance reports, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" is chock-full of romance, comedy, beautiful color and scintillating dialogue.

PARAMOUNT'S DELIGHTFUL NEW Technicolor comedy, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" now at the Capitol Theatre, is the gay purveyor of one of the happiest stories ever put on film. The laugh-loaded dialogue of celluloid hilarity, which stars Leo Genn and Don Taylor, involves fifteen hundred Marines, three beautiful, well-protected girls and their straight-laced father.
This involvement of such an unusual assortment of characters occurs on a remote South Pacific island where the Marine Corps plans to build an airfield. What adds to the delectable merriment embodied in the tale is that the only inhabitants of the tropical paradise are these three sisters and their father. The girls have never seen a man of their own age. The Marines have not had their eyes on a femme in over two years of fighting, and the father is literally going out of his mind in a frantic effort to shield his daughters from what he feels is imminent danger.
However, when father, portrayed by Leo Genn, says no fraternizing, the girls refuse to take no for an answer. The Marines, being gallant young men, back them up and the fun begins. According to advance reports, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" is chock-full of romance, comedy, beautiful color and scintillating dialogue.

PARAMOUNT'S DELIGHTFUL NEW Technicolor comedy, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" now at the Capitol Theatre, is the gay purveyor of one of the happiest stories ever put on film. The laugh-loaded dialogue of celluloid hilarity, which stars Leo Genn and Don Taylor, involves fifteen hundred Marines, three beautiful, well-protected girls and their straight-laced father.
This involvement of such an unusual assortment of characters occurs on a remote South Pacific island where the Marine Corps plans to build an airfield. What adds to the delectable merriment embodied in the tale is that the only inhabitants of the tropical paradise are these three sisters and their father. The girls have never seen a man of their own age. The Marines have not had their eyes on a femme in over two years of fighting, and the father is literally going out of his mind in a frantic effort to shield his daughters from what he feels is imminent danger.
However, when father, portrayed by Leo Genn, says no fraternizing, the girls refuse to take no for an answer. The Marines, being gallant young men, back them up and the fun begins. According to advance reports, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" is chock-full of romance, comedy, beautiful color and scintillating dialogue.

PARAMOUNT'S DELIGHTFUL NEW Technicolor comedy, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" now at the Capitol Theatre, is the gay purveyor of one of the happiest stories ever put on film. The laugh-loaded dialogue of celluloid hilarity, which stars Leo Genn and Don Taylor, involves fifteen hundred Marines, three beautiful, well-protected girls and their straight-laced father.
This involvement of such an unusual assortment of characters occurs on a remote South Pacific island where the Marine Corps plans to build an airfield. What adds to the delectable merriment embodied in the tale is that the only inhabitants of the tropical paradise are these three sisters and their father. The girls have never seen a man of their own age. The Marines have not had their eyes on a femme in over two years of fighting, and the father is literally going out of his mind in a frantic effort to shield his daughters from what he feels is imminent danger.
However, when father, portrayed by Leo Genn, says no fraternizing, the girls refuse to take no for an answer. The Marines, being gallant young men, back them up and the fun begins. According to advance reports, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" is chock-full of romance, comedy, beautiful color and scintillating dialogue.

PARAMOUNT'S DELIGHTFUL NEW Technicolor comedy, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" now at the Capitol Theatre, is the gay purveyor of one of the happiest stories ever put on film. The laugh-loaded dialogue of celluloid hilarity, which stars Leo Genn and Don Taylor, involves fifteen hundred Marines, three beautiful, well-protected girls and their straight-laced father.
This involvement of such an unusual assortment of characters occurs on a remote South Pacific island where the Marine Corps plans to build an airfield. What adds to the delectable merriment embodied in the tale is that the only inhabitants of the tropical paradise are these three sisters and their father. The girls have never seen a man of their own age. The Marines have not had their eyes on a femme in over two years of fighting, and the father is literally going out of his mind in a frantic effort to shield his daughters from what he feels is imminent danger.
However, when father, portrayed by Leo Genn, says no fraternizing, the girls refuse to take no for an answer. The Marines, being gallant young men, back them up and the fun begins. According to advance reports, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" is chock-full of romance, comedy, beautiful color and scintillating dialogue.

PARAMOUNT'S DELIGHTFUL NEW Technicolor comedy, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" now at the Capitol Theatre, is the gay purveyor of one of the happiest stories ever put on film. The laugh-loaded dialogue of celluloid hilarity, which stars Leo Genn and Don Taylor, involves fifteen hundred Marines, three beautiful, well-protected girls and their straight-laced father.
This involvement of such an unusual assortment of characters occurs on a remote South Pacific island where the Marine Corps plans to build an airfield. What adds to the delectable merriment embodied in the tale is that the only inhabitants of the tropical paradise are these three sisters and their father. The girls have never seen a man of their own age. The Marines have not had their eyes on a femme in over two years of fighting, and the father is literally going out of his mind in a frantic effort to shield his daughters from what he feels is imminent danger.
However, when father, portrayed by Leo Genn, says no fraternizing, the girls refuse to take no for an answer. The Marines, being gallant young men, back them up and the fun begins. According to advance reports, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" is chock-full of romance, comedy, beautiful color and scintillating dialogue.

PARAMOUNT'S DELIGHTFUL NEW Technicolor comedy, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" now at the Capitol Theatre, is the gay purveyor of one of the happiest stories ever put on film. The laugh-loaded dialogue of celluloid hilarity, which stars Leo Genn and Don Taylor, involves fifteen hundred Marines, three beautiful, well-protected girls and their straight-laced father.
This involvement of such an unusual assortment of characters occurs on a remote South Pacific island where the Marine Corps plans to build an airfield. What adds to the delectable merriment embodied in the tale is that the only inhabitants of the tropical paradise are these three sisters and their father. The girls have never seen a man of their own age. The Marines have not had their eyes on a femme in over two years of fighting, and the father is literally going out of his mind in a frantic effort to shield his daughters from what he feels is imminent danger.
However, when father, portrayed by Leo Genn, says no fraternizing, the girls refuse to take no for an answer. The Marines, being gallant young men, back them up and the fun begins. According to advance reports, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" is chock-full of romance, comedy, beautiful color and scintillating dialogue.

PARAMOUNT'S DELIGHTFUL NEW Technicolor comedy, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" now at the Capitol Theatre, is the gay purveyor of one of the happiest stories ever put on film. The laugh-loaded dialogue of celluloid hilarity, which stars Leo Genn and Don Taylor, involves fifteen hundred Marines, three beautiful, well-protected girls and their straight-laced father.
This involvement of such an unusual assortment of characters occurs on a remote South Pacific island where the Marine Corps plans to build an airfield. What adds to the delectable merriment embodied in the tale is that the only inhabitants of the tropical paradise are these three sisters and their father. The girls have never seen a man of their own age. The Marines have not had their eyes on a femme in over two years of fighting, and the father is literally going out of his mind in a frantic effort to shield his daughters from what he feels is imminent danger.
However, when father, portrayed by Leo Genn, says no fraternizing, the girls refuse to take no for an answer. The Marines, being gallant young men, back them up and the fun begins. According to advance reports, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" is chock-full of romance, comedy, beautiful color and scintillating dialogue.

PARAMOUNT'S DELIGHTFUL NEW Technicolor comedy, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" now at the Capitol Theatre, is the gay purveyor of one of the happiest stories ever put on film. The laugh-loaded dialogue of celluloid hilarity, which stars Leo Genn and Don Taylor, involves fifteen hundred Marines, three beautiful, well-protected girls and their straight-laced father.
This involvement of such an unusual assortment of characters occurs on a remote South Pacific island where the Marine Corps plans to build an airfield. What adds to the delectable merriment embodied in the tale is that the only inhabitants of the tropical paradise are these three sisters and their father. The girls have never seen a man of their own age. The Marines have not had their eyes on a femme in over two years of fighting, and the father is literally going out of his mind in a frantic effort to shield his daughters from what he feels is imminent danger.
However, when father, portrayed by Leo Genn, says no fraternizing, the girls refuse to take no for an answer. The Marines, being gallant young men, back them up and the fun begins. According to advance reports, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" is chock-full of romance, comedy, beautiful color and scintillating dialogue.

PARAMOUNT'S DELIGHTFUL NEW Technicolor comedy, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" now at the Capitol Theatre, is the gay purveyor of one of the happiest stories ever put on film. The laugh-loaded dialogue of celluloid hilarity, which stars Leo Genn and Don Taylor, involves fifteen hundred Marines, three beautiful, well-protected girls and their straight-laced father.
This involvement of such an unusual assortment of characters occurs on a remote South Pacific island where the Marine Corps plans to build an airfield. What adds to the delectable merriment embodied in the tale is that the only inhabitants of the tropical paradise are these three sisters and their father. The girls have never seen a man of their own age. The Marines have not had their eyes on a femme in over two years of fighting, and the father is literally going out of his mind in a frantic effort to shield his daughters from what he feels is imminent danger.
However, when father, portrayed by Leo Genn, says no fraternizing, the girls refuse to take no for an answer. The Marines, being gallant young men, back them up and the fun begins. According to advance reports, "The Girls of Pleasure Island" is chock-full of romance, comedy, beautiful color and scintillating dialogue.

Summerside's Mayor And Town Council

Mayor Wedge

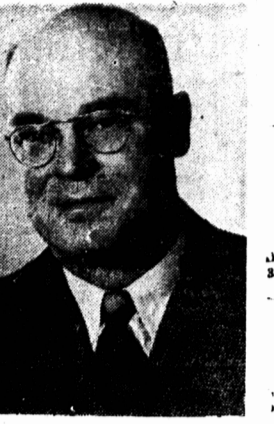

Coun. Jenkins

Coun. Steele

Coun. Perry

Coun. Lidstone

62nd Wedding Anniversary

—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Jeffrey, St. Eleanor's, today observe the 62nd anniversary of their marriage. Mrs. Jeffrey celebrated her 55th birthday one week ago. Mr. Jeffrey will be 89 in July. They had a family of twelve children, all of whom, with one exception, are alive.
All except three of the remaining members of the family are living abroad. These three are, Miss Effie at home; Roscoe in Summerside, and Albert in Miscouche.

Coun. Dr. Clark

Coun. MacDougall

S'ide British Consols Trophy Curling Results

The following are yesterday's lineups for the curling competitions for the British Consols trophy held at the Summerside Curling Club: (The competition is a double knockout round robin, and two of the four teams competing will play against other Island centres at the Summerside Curling Club, February 9 and 10, the winner to enter the MacDonald Brier competition to be held later in the winter).
Freddie Folland (skip) 300 201 303 000-12
Gerry Hayes 040 010 020 105-13
J. E. Morrison 010 010 000 000-2
H. R. MacFarlane 201 301 112 211-15
The Hayes rink will play the MacFarlane rink, and the Folland rink will compete against the Morrison rink at 2 p.m. today, with games also at night if necessary.

R.C.A.F. Flyers Defeat Freetown Royals 10-9

—The R. C. A. F. Flyers defeated the Freetown Royals in a regular South Shore Hockey League fixture at the Bedeque rink on the night of Feb. 1 by the score of 10-9.
SUMMARY
First Period
1—Freetown, Taylor (Mill)
2—Freetown, Taylor (Campbell)
3—Freetown, Mill (Taylor)
4—R. C. A. F., Pickering (Taylor)
5—R. C. A. F., O'Rourke (Pickering, Ferguson)
6—Freetown, Mill (Taylor)
7—R. C. A. F., Taylor (O'Rourke)
Second Period
8—R. C. A. F., Henry (W. Mill)
9—Freetown, Mill (W. Mill)
10—R. C. A. F., O'Rourke (Taylor, Henry)
Penalty: Dunning.
Third Period
11—R. C. A. F., Adams
12—Freetown, Mill (Taylor)
13—Freetown, MacMurdo (Taylor)
14—R. C. A. F., Taylor (Pickering, O'Rourke)
15—Freetown, Taylor
16—R. C. A. F., Adams
17—R. C. A. F., Taylor (Pickering, O'Rourke)
18—Freetown, C. Mill
19—R. C. A. F., Polier (Adams)
Referee—Kelly and Hunter.
METER RAIDER
TORONTO, (CP)—Police said Tuesday a criminal with a master key that will unlock any parking meter in downtown Toronto is behind thefts of $230 from the machines last week. Crude, hand-

Light Vote

Continued from page 1
The Water and Sewerage Department will be administered by the commission or by the council as follows: East Ward: for Council, 95; for Commission, 117; Centre Ward: for Council, 65; for Commission, 51; West Ward: for Council, 219; for Commission, 184; totals: for Council, 379; for Commission, 352.
According to information available last evening it appears that the Water and Sewerage Commission will function for one more month before it is officially disbanded and its duties assumed by the Town Council.
The present Town Council is composed of Mayor Henry W. Wedge, Councillors Wm. E. Jenkins, James L. MacDougall, (all re-elected by acclamation); Clarence J. Steele (re-elected in yesterday's election); and Dr. Hillard E. Clark, Andrew Perry and Donald Lidstone.
Members of the Water and Sewerage Commission are: Edgar Cannon (elected yesterday), Robert B. Dewar, and Roland Sheen.—S.

Bedeque Notes

Congratulations are extended to Mrs. Carrie Schurman on the occasion of her 83rd birthday, on January 28.
—His many friends and relatives are pleased to know that Mr. Edwin MacFarlane, Fernwood, who has been confined to his home for some time through illness, is making gradual improvement.
Rev. J. K. Campbell, North Bedeque, Rev. G. K. Ward, Rev. E. S. Weeks and Mr. Irving Toombs, Mr. Allison Proffitt, Freetown, lay representatives, attended the meeting of the P. E. I. Presbytery, in Charlottetown, on Tuesday, February 2.

Electric Power For Tignish

—Approximately one hundred homes and business firms in the village of Tignish will shortly enjoy the convenience and many advantages of electricity for the first time as employees of the Maritime Electric Co. Ltd. begin the work of connecting power consumers to the recently completed transmission line.
Yesterday the local hotel, a private home and two service stations were the first to be hooked up in a very few days with good dusty branch director, said Saturday. He has advised farmers to check their grain during the winter.
REGINA, (CP)—There is every indication that the rusty red grain beetle again will infest stored Saskatchewan grain this year, R. E. McKenzie, provincial plant industry branch director, said Saturday. He has advised farmers to check their grain during the winter.
URGES GRAIN CHECK

TOO MUCH NIGHT WORK

WINNIPEG, (CP)—Andrew Murphy of Winnipeg has resigned as Manitoba representative and organizer of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, effective Feb. 1, because the post has meant too much night work, too many meetings and lack of home life, he said Friday.

HOUSE FOR SALE At Alberton South

Bungalow, 5 Rooms Two Acres Land Work Shop $2700.00 —Apply— Mrs. Edward Gallant, Alberton South

BORDEN RINK TONIGHT

O'Leary Maroon Sisters vs. Borden National Sisters Skate after

KENSINGTON RINK

Farmers League Stanley vs. Graham's Road Game 8:30 Sharp Skate after

CAMEO THEATRE Kensington

Wed.-Thur. 7:15-9:15. Alan Ladd, Deborah Kerr in "THUNDER IN THE EAST" Bank Drawing Thursday Night worth $15.00. If no winner Tuesday, worth $30.00.

CAPITOL Summerside

Tonight 7:15-9:15; Thursday 3:30-7:15-9:15

IF YOU'VE EVER RAISED THREE ATTRACTIVE DAUGHTERS ON A LONELY TROPIC ISLE.

Advertisement for "The Girls of Pleasure Island" movie, featuring a woman and children on a tropical island. Text includes: "Color by TECHNICOLOR", "LEO GENN DON TAYLOR", "DOROTHY BROMILEY AUDREY DALTON JOAN ELAN", "ALSO LATEST NEWS REEL".

Dress Carnival BORDEN RINK

FRIDAY, FEB 6th At 8 P. M. Prizes for best costume Admission 30 cents Skate after

REGENT TODAY 3.30-7.15-9.15

Advertisement for "Moulin Rouge" movie, featuring a woman in a red dress. Text includes: "ROMULUS presents JOSE FERRER", "John Huston's MOULIN ROUGE", "Color by TECHNICOLOR".

ADMISSIONS — Matinees: Children 25c Adults 50c Evenings: Children 50c Adults 75c Passes and Mystery Melody Tickets suspended for this engagement.

IMPLEMENT DEALER WANTED

COCKSHUTT FARM EQUIPMENT, LIMITED

Require an implement dealer for Summerside and vicinity. A large volume repair trade and customer contact already established, a full line of power machinery and small implements offer an excellent opportunity for the right party. Only applicants who are well acquainted in this district need apply. Mail all replies to B. K. Llewellyn, care of Clifton Hotel, Summerside, or Box 186, Charlottetown.

EVENING OFFICE HOURS

Patients please note change in Evening Office Hours. Dr. W. E. Callaghan will be in office Monday, Thursday, Saturday evenings. Dr. H. B. MacNeill will be in office Tuesday, Friday, Saturday evenings. Emergencies will be attended to at all times.

Professional Cards

T. EARLE HICKEY Chartered Accountant Canadian Bank of Commerce Building Summerside, P. E. I. PHONE 2388

W. Albert Robertson Chartered Accountant P. E. I. MUTUAL BUILDING Granville at Water Street Summerside

E. E. PARKMAN Opt. D. R.O. OPTOMETRIST Glasses Fitted - Eyes Examined Office Hours: 9 to 12 - 1 to 5 and by appointment. PHONE 3287 REGENT THEATRE BLDG. Summerside

B. F. HUNTER R. O. OPTOMETRIST Summerside, P. E. I. Complete Visual Analysis Glasses Fitted PHONE 3116 SMALLMAN'S BUILDING

A. Raymond Grant, B.Sc. OPTOMETRIST Complete Visual Analysis Glasses Fitted 238 Water Street, Summerside Above Maurice Mill's Men's Wear Phone 3530

DR. J. A. DSIROD DENTIST Dental X-Rays Smallman Building SUMMERSIDE Dial 2366

Dr. H. B. MacNeill PHYSICIAN & SURGEON Water Street (Opposite Holman's) Hours: 11:00-12:00 A.M. Daily. 2:00-4:00 Daily Except Wed. 7:00-8:00 Tuesday, Friday Saturday. And by appointment. DIAL 7058