

Oshawa House Where Four Children Burned to Death

This is the Oshawa, Ont. house which sheltered 21 and where four children of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Grant were burned to death. Upstairs windows indicate where the small children were trapped. Positions of the little bodies after the flames had died indicated that three of the children had tried to shield themselves from the flames. All died of suffocation. Father was at work, and the mother had gone to a neighbor, Mrs. Margaret Burns, to borrow clothes-horse for washing.

Mother of victims, Mrs. Gordon Grant, is prostrate with grief, in doctor's care.

Past Nuptial Shower For Mr. and Mrs. MacLellan

—Well over 100 neighbors and friends assembled at the recently completed new home of Mrs. Bernard C. MacLellan, on Wednesday evening, Nov. 22nd, to extend congratulations and best wishes to her son, Justin and his lovely bride and give her a warm welcome to the community. At an appropriate hour Mr. Sidney Heckbert, very capably stated the whys of the assemblage and asked Mr. Allan MacLellan to read the address, with which a well-filled purse was presented by Mr. Peter MacLellan. Little Miss Ona Mill conveyed sentiments to the bride with a bouquet of roses.

All joined in the singing of "For they are jolly good fellows" and many songs old and new with Miss Helen MacDonald at the piano. All partook of tea in Mrs. MacLellan's usual good style and the ladies assisted in serving.

Opening with the "Wedding Keel" the remainder of the evening was very pleasantly enjoyed in 'en promenade' to the melodious harmony of violin, guitar, piano, with intervals of accordion selections by the numerous musicians: Bernard MacKinnon, Erskine Hunter, Mrs. Allan Murphy, Mrs. Lorne Campbell, Mrs. Wm. Hickey, Mrs. Edgar Hickey and family, Edgar Arnold, Brenda, Rozita, until the wee sma' ours when all departed leaving their best wishes with the newly-weds and vowing it one of the most enjoyable gatherings of the season.

The youngsters were trapped in the apartment by a single door that wouldn't open: Linda, left, and Joan, centre, were among the victims: Donna, right, was playing on the street when the fire gutted the apartment and escaped harm. A brother, Bobby, died in hospital from injuries.

Community Party Honors Donald MacKay

A large crowd gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Cole, New London on Sept. 14th, to bid farewell to "Don" son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacKay who had recently joined the navy.

Don was escorted to a seat of honor by Eric Carr and Billy MacEwen and Mr. Harold Dunning capably acting as chairman called upon Robert Mayhew to read an address and a large sum of money, a Ronson lighter and other personal gifts were presented by Nelson Roberts. Don in his usual cheerful and friendly manner thanked all for their gifts and for being present after which "for he's a jolly good fellow" was sung. Lunch was then served by the ladies.

The rest of the evening was spent in social chat and dancing. The following is the address. Dear Don: We your friends of Clifton and vicinity have gathered here tonight to bid you farewell as you are about to enter into the service of our King and Country. You will be greatly missed in your home and community where you have grown to manhood in our midst, and where your example for good has always been helpful to others with whom you have come in contact. We hope and pray that while you are separated from us on land or sea that God's guidance may be with you and protect you wherever you may be, and when the war is over bring you back safely to home and loved ones on P. E. I. Please accept these gifts as a token of love and respect which we have for you.

Your friends of New London and vicinity.

Sunday November 26th at 4 p. m. The president opened the meeting with prayer. Treasurer's report showed a substantial sum in bank. On approved motion a contribution of $10.00 is to be paid toward furnishing a room in Prince County Hospital and the usual donation to T. B. Lesgue, Missionaries of Mary.

The Children's Aid Society correspondence was discussed and members were appointed to canvass funds in the different centres to which an additional amount from the sub-division is to be added.

The usual Christmas remembrances were considered, also the purchase of some flowers for the altars.

Plans for a lecture in the hall and a Pantry Sale and Bazaar in Kennedy's Store, Kensington were made.

Meeting was followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.
