OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

PASS SECOND YEAR EXAMS.—In the results of the final examinations of the School of Household Science at MacDonald College, appears the name of Miss Edith H. Shaw of Charlottetown, who successfully passed her 2nd year Bachelor of Household Science; also Miss Flora H. Gordon, Charlottetown, both young ladies standing high in their different classes.

—SAD BEREAVEMENT — Mr. Benjamin Moreshead of O'Leary has the sympathy of friends in the death of his wife Susan Moreshead which occurred in the Prince County Hospital on Friday night. The deceased had been in poor health for some time. She was a native of Lot 11 and was the daughter of the late Albert Boyle of Lot 11. Besides her husband she leaves one little daughter three years of age, also four brothers and three sisters. The remains were conveyed to her late home for burial.—S

GRAND ORANGE LODGE CONVENTION—Hotel accommodations will be taxed to the limit to provide for the delegates to the Grand Orange Lodge Convention during the week of June 22. Mr. Inman reports that several hotels are alread booked up to capacity. Representatives will gather in Charlottetown from all parts of Canada and Newfoundland for the first time in eighteen years.

Miss Thelma Hamill, who has been visiting this past month with her sisters in Boston and New York, has returned to her home in Kinkora.

It was with a feeling of regret that the people of Hartsville and vicinity learned of the death on Sunday, April 26th, of Mr. William Clarkin, an aged and respected resident of that place. Although the deceased was not feeling well and was bedridden for several months, yet his family and friends held hopes that he would recover sufficiently to enjoy a longer sojourn here below. However, about the middle of April, he contracted la grippe which, in spite of the careful nursing he received, eventually proved fatal.

RETURN FROM CONVENTION—Peter Holland, Station Agent at Souris, with Mrs Holland, have returned from New Orleans, La., where he attended the annual convention of the Order of Railway Telegraphers. Mr. and Mrs. Holland left here on May 1st and enroute stopped off at Chicago where Mr. Holland attended a meeting of the General Committee The convention in New Orleans lasted for three weeks. 500 delegates were in attendance which with friends and members of their families brought the number up to over 2,000, from Newfoundland to the Canal Zone.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER — An enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Myers, Hazelbrook, when a miscellaneous shower was held on Friday evening, May 15th, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Myers, whose marriage took place recently. Mr. Charles Rankin called the people to order, and made a very fitting speech. A well-laden basket was carried into the living room by Mrs. Seymour Myers and Mrs. Harry Horton. The gifts were opened by Mrs. Harry Horton and the verses read by Mrs. Harold Carver. The groom, on behalf of his bride, thanked the people for the lovely gifts. All joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows." A dainty lunch was then served, and the remainder of the evening was spent in games, music and dancing.

—W. C. T. U. MEETS—The annual meeting of the local W.C.T.U. was held at the home of Mrs. (Dr.) Alexander MacNeill on Thursday afternoon with quite a large number present, the President, Mrs. (Dr.) J. F. MacNeill, presiding. The devotional period was led by Mrs. Sharp after which the minutes and business of the various departments of the work were submitted and received. The election of officers followed and resulted in reelection in each office except the president who resigned and this vacancy was filled by the election of Mrs. J. S. Hinton. The officers for the ensuing year are: President, Mrs. J. S. Hinton; Vice President, Mrs. Maynard Schurman; Secretary, Mrs. Percy Bowness; Evangelestic, Mrs. Sharp; Treasurer, Mrs. L. R. Allen; Flower Mission, Mrs. Alexander McNeill; Scientific Temperance, Mrs. C. D. MacCallum; Traveller's Aid and Pianist, Mrs. George Pickering; Temperance in the Sunday School and Press Secretary, Mrs. George MacPherson.

The death of Gordon A. Matthews occurred early Sunday morning May 31st at his home in Kensington at the age of 75 years. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Donald Matthews of Albany and is survived by a half brother, Mr. Ewen Matthews of Brandon, Manitoba.

He was an up-to-date and prosperous farmer at Albany, where he spent the greater part of his life, until ill health caused him to retire from active work. A few years ago he moved to Kensington where he remained until his death. The funeral was Tuesday afternoon, June 2nd., a short service was held at his late residence, after which the remains were taken to Tryon Presbyterian Church where a service was held. In the absence of his Pastor, the Rev. Wm. O. Rhead of the Kensington Presbyterian Church, the services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Genge of Tryon. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Thomas Stewart, Frank MacKay, Arthur MacKay, Edward Sobey, James Mullaly and Ray Cameron. Interment was in the family plot, Tryon [illegible]

—ATTENDED MARITIME CONFERENCE—Mrs. Thomas Mitchell of Summerside was present at the Ordination Service of the Maritime Conference of the United Churches in Canada, which was held on Sunday at Sackville, N. B., where her son, Mr. Thomas Mitchell, B.A., was ordained. Others present from Summerside were Mr. and Mrs. George Sheen, whose son Mr. Jack Sheen, B. A., was also ordained.—S

—REPAIRING RIFLE RANGE—Mr. F. E. Wilds engineer from the Department of National Defence is at present in Summerside superintending the repairing of the Rifle Range at the west approach to Summerside. The stop butts and sea wall are to undergo a thorough overhauling and to be put into first class condition. The rifle range has been allowed to fall into a bad state of repair.—S

—RECEIVES PRESENT FROM LIEUT. GOVERNOR DEBLOIS — Miss Eleanor Currie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Currie of Summerside, who was one of the principal performers in the High School play received a beautiful box of chocolates from Lieut. Governor DeBlois with his compliments. His Honour in his letter to Miss Eleanor praised the work of the children who took part in the play, and expressed his great pleasure in the performance.—S

—VISITING HER HOME—Miss Sue Meadows left last week for Stewiacke, N. S., where she will spend some time at her home before sailing for England, where she intends taking a post graduate course in music. Miss Meadows who takes a great interest in the junior choir of the United Church, Summerside, was the guest of honour at a party given by Mrs. Robert Gordon and Miss Helen Davies shortly before her departure. A farewell gifts and address was presented to Miss Meadows on this occasion. Her many friends wish her a pleasant trip and safe return.—S

—W. M. S. MEETING—The regular monthly meeting of the W. M. S. of Trinity United Church was held on Tuesday afternoon in Epworth Hall, the President, Mrs. T. M. Linkletter, presiding. The theme for the worship service was "The Fellowship Created by the Spirit of Jesus." Those taking part were Mrs. Townsend, Mrs. L. R. Allen, Mrs. George Bowness, Mrs. W. K. Llewelyn and Mrs. Loman Adams. After the devotional period Mrs. Linkletter, who was a delegate to the conference branch held in Halifax in May gave a complete and interesting report of the meetings. The meeting closed with prayer.

A combined store and dwelling house owned by B. W. Leard, Alberton was destroyed by fire of undetermined origin early yesterday morning. Loss was estimated at $3.500 partly covered by insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. Leard, only residents of the house, were away spending the weekend with friends when the fire started. A neighbor awakened by the smell of smoke, sounded the alarm. Flames spread quickly through the old two-storey building and when fire-fighting equipment arrived on the scene, the interior of the house was blazing.

Firemen were unable to control the fire and had to concentrate on protecting nearby buildings. A store belonging to Herbert Corbet was barely saved.

TUESDAY

BRILLIANT PUPIL — J. Arnold Purdie, B.A., son of Rev. Dr. Purdie, Principal of the Anglican Bible School, Winnipeg, former pupil at West Kent School, has passed his second year in Theology at Wycliffe College, Toronto, with noteworthy honors. Nephew of Mr. Victor Purdie of this city, the young student won the College Gold Medal in Homiletics, a gold watch for Pastoral Theology, and was presented with a set of books by the Upper Canada Tract Society for his work on the History of the Philosophy of Religion. Already a Bachelor of Arts, Mr. Purdie will graduate in Theology next year.

A raging fire which swept through 500 acres of valuable Wood Islands timberland was under control and dying out last night after it had caused damage estimated at $17,000. Believed to have been started by burning sawdust near a lumber mill, Prince Edward Island's first forest-fire of the season blazed for more than 12 hours and threatened Bayne Village before 200 men directed by Mounted Police from Montague were able to halt its race.

Wood Islands was the only Prince Edward Island district which had not had rain in the past few weeks and the fire, raged fiercely in the parched brush and had extended over nearly a mile front before it was discovered. A 30-mile wind hampered efforts of the fire fighters.

Volunteers gathered from all sections of the district and Mounted Police from Montague went out early yesterday to direct their efforts.

Water was drawn by horse and cart to the fire front from all streams and wells in the vicinity by farmers who came to the scene and the R. C. M. P. helped build back-fires in the path of the inferno.

Bayne Village which lay directly in front of the flames was threatened with complete destruction until the fire was brought under control last evening.

Last night two-score or more men patrolled Wood Island district. A constant guard will be maintained until all danger of [illegible]

ORDAINED AT TIGNISH YESTERDAY—Oswald Murphy of Tignish, graduate of Quebec Seminary and St. Dunstan's University, Charlottetown, was elevated to the priesthood at an ordination service at his parish church yesterday. Bishop J. A. O'Sullivan of Charlottetown conducted the ordination ceremonies. Monsignor G. J. MacLellan, V.G., Summerside, preached a special sermon for the occasion.

After 15 years' absence from the Province, Mr. W. P. Pineau of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Gleichen, Alta., is visiting his mother, Mrs. John Callaghan, Bayfield St., City. He is accompanied by his young daughter, Miss Maureen. Mr. Pineau will be remembered by many in this City, especially by former members of the League of the Cross Band, of which organization he was a popular and valued member before taking up residence in Western Canada.

In the passing of Mrs. John B. Wood of Mount Tryon the community lost one of its oldest and most esteemed citizens. Deceased who was born on August 12, in the year 1850 had been in good health up until some four years ago when she was stricken with total blindness, but despite that affliction she had been able to get about in the summer season until last autumn. Since that time she has been gradually failing until the end came very peacefully in the early morning of June 1.

COMMITTED TO SUPREME COURT—William Phillips of Charlottetown was committed Saturday to stand Supreme Court trial on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death two weeks ago of Shirley Smallwood, eight-year-old Bunbury school girl. Preliminary hearing, twice adjourned, was completed before Magistrate G. J. Tweedy. The charge against Phillips was laid after the school girl died in hospital from multiple injuries suffered when she was struck on the road near Bunbury schoolyard by an automobile driven by the Charlottetown man.

VISITS PROVINCE AFTER 30 YEARS—After an absence of thirty years Mr. Fred Smith of Regina, Sask., is visiting in the Province and renewing old acquaintances at his former home in Lower Newtown and in the surrounding districts. He is assistant manager of the International Harvester Co. in the western capital. Mr. Smith notes with pleasure the many improvements in Charlottetown where he spent a winter attending college before the call of the west lured him to seek fame and fortune there. While in Charlottetown he was the guest of Mr. Harry MacDougall, an old school chum. The two friends spent a very pleasant day in the Belfast District recently visiting mutual friends and recalling half forgotten events.

How the $10,000 appropriated by the Government to be expended by the City for the beautification and improvement of Government Pond, will be expended is to be investigated and an outline of the proposed project made by the public property committee under the chairmanship of Coun. E. A. Foster the City Council decided at the regular monthly meeting last night. The committee will bring in its report at a special meeting to be held probably in about two weeks time.

His Worship Mayor Turner told the meeting that the City was to receive the money to be used under the direct control of the Council.

Coun. Chandler said that $5,000 had been voted by the Federal Government and $5,000 by the Provincial Government. The premier suggested, Coun. Chandler said, that His Honour Lt.-Gov. DeBlois and an architect be asked to add their suggestions to the deliberations of the council as to how the Pond should be improved.

The many friends of Mrs. Maude Matheson will be pained to hear of her death on May 22nd last at Los Angeles, California. She had not been feeling well for some time and was taken to the hospital for treatment but in spite of skilled medical attention she sank rapidly and passed away on the above date. The funeral took place on the 26th from the Little Church of the Flowers in Glendale and interment was at Forest Lawn Cemetery, one of the most beautiful spots in California, where many of her former P. E. Island friends listened to the impressive service. The floral pieces were many and beautiful.

Mrs. Matheson was a daughter of the late William VanIderstine of Montague, P. E. Island. Four sisters remain to mourn their loss, Mrs. Alice Clay, Dundas, P.E.I., Mrs. Nettie Beer, Vancouver, B.C.; Mrs. Carrie McKay, Kelowna, B. C.; Mrs. Pearl Anderson, Edmonton, Alta.

John P. Matheson of 10 Hunt Terrace, died at the Melrose Hospital, May 15th, 1936, after an operation and an illness of eight weeks. He was born in Dundas, P.E.I., seventy-three years ago and had been a resident of Melrose for thirty-two years, coming from Boston. He was a past noble grand of Irving Lodge I.O.O.F., Manchester Unity of Boston.

Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Mary A. Matheson, two daughters, Mrs. Lexie Klappert and Charles MacKay, both of Melrose, four sons, Malcolm of Brookline, Gustavus of Huntington, Cal., Daniel and John W. of Melrose, seven grandchildren, two brothers, Alexander of Middleboro, Mass., and Robert of Dundas, and two sisters, Mrs. Madge Best of Los Angeles, Cal., and Mrs. Milton Jardine of Dundas.

Services were conducted Sunday afternoon at the family home by Rev. W. C. Campbell, pastor of the [illegible] numerous relatives and friends attended. Officers of Irving Lodge I.O.O.F. Manchester Unity conducted their ritual.

Interment was in Wyoming cemetery and there were many floral tributes.

The funeral of the late Mrs. John B. Wood took place on Wednesday from her home in Mount Tryon and was very largely attended. Rev. J. L. Lund, who conducted the service, delivered a most inspiring message and the following beautiful hymns were sung, "Rock of Ages," "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and "Shall We Gather At the River." The latter was the favorite hymn of the deceased. Mr. Arthur McKay also sang with much feeling, "Will the Circle Be Unbroken." The pallbearers were Messrs. Hamilton Leard, Reginald Dixon, Charles Lord, George Wood, Elmer Gamble and Austin Toombs. Interment was in the United Church Cemetery at Tryon.

A marriage of much interest took place in St. Mary's Church, Summerside at High Noon yesterday, when Miss Muriel Lily Scot Jackson, eldest daughter of Lieut. Com. T. H. Scot Jackson and Mrs. Jackson of Ryde, Isle of Wight, England was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Stanley Arthur Morrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roderick T. Morrison of Summerside.

The church was very prettily decorated for the occasion.

Ven Archdeacon C. de W. White, D. D., performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends and a large congregation.

The bride looked very winsome in a light navy blue dress with dark blue hat and coat. Her bridal boquet was lily of the valley and white forget-me-nots.

The bride was given in marriage by Mr. Reginald Ellis.

Miss Ruth Morrison, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid. She wore a pretty dress of shell pink crepe and brown hat and carried a boquet of forget-me-nots.

The citizens of this community were shocked to learn of the death of Mr. Joseph Frizzle which occurred in Moncton City Hospital early Saturday morning. Although the deceased had been in poor health for some time, his demise was unexpected. Mr. Frizzle is survived by his wife and daughter Evelyn; also three brothers, Robert Frizzle, Bale Verte, Sam Frizzle, O'Leary, Jim Frizzle, Rose Valley, P. E. I. and three sisters, Mrs. Robt. Reeves, Freetown, Mrs. Hugh Gamble, Bradalbane and Mrs. Hilbert Lohnes, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon from St. James Presbyterian Church, Rev. J. A. Kennedy, the pastor, was assisted by Rev. G. W. Tilley. Both clergymen paid fitting tribute to the deceased, he being a great lover of nature, especially of flowers, which he tended with great care in Fernhill cemetery, where he had been the caretaker for a number of years. Many beautiful floral tributes testified to the esteem of his many firends. The choir sang "The Lord's My Shepherd," "Abide With Me," "Now the Labourer's Task is O'er" and Mrs. H. C. Grant sang a solo "In the Beautiful Garden of Prayer." The pallbearers were Hilbert Lohnes, Sam Frizzle, Robt. Frizzle, Lee Gamble, Robt. Reeves, and Fred Oulton. Interment was in Fernhill Cemetery.

An enjoyable banquet was held by Weneeda Lodge No. 115, I. O. O. F. at the Strathcona Hotel, Port Elgin, last Friday evening, in celebration of the 25th anniversary of the Lodge. A delicious supper was served by members of Elgina Rebekah Lodge. Over fifty members were present, including eight members who joined May 30th, 1911. Brother R. B. Chapman, Noble Grand, was the toastmaster and the following toast list was observed.

The King, proposed by the toastmaster, response National Anthem; Grand Lodge, proposed by H. C. Grant, P. G., response by A. S. Robinson, Past Grant Master of the Grand Lodge of Moncton; "Our 25 Year Members," proposed by M. T. Anderson, P. G., response by Hon. Fred Magee, F. H. Copp, M. L. A., Walter Waye, P. G., B. F. Wells, Fred Turner and C F. Fitzpatrick; Our Guests, proposed by F. C. Fitzpatrick, response by Rev. Mr. Lockhart, P. G., Mr. McLeod, N. G. of Prince Albert Lodge and others; The Ladies, proposed by W. H. Anderson, P. G., response by E. Butcher, P. G.

AT ROTARY—"The Sagas of Fundy" was the subject of an interesting address given by Rev. H. L. Denton, pastor of the Baptist Church at the Rotary luncheon yesterday. The speaker, who is a native of Digby, N. S., and whose boyhood days were spent in that locality, said that the latter abounded in legends, fish stories, tragedies and near tragedies, romances and humor. Rotarian Harry Rogers presided yesterday, and the guests were R. P. Gorham, Cedric G. Boulter, Charlottetown, Rotarian W. A. Morrell of Amherst, and P. E. Schantz, Toronto, Assistant General Commercial Supervisor of the Canadian Telegraphs. This was a red letter Stork Day at Rotary, no fewer than three happy fathers, Rotarians Leslie Stacey, Fred Ainsworth and George J. Tweedy receiving the emblematic silver birthday mugs. Dr. Lantz, a previous recipient, presented one mug to Ainsworth, who passed another to Tweedy, the recipients making feeling and fitting replies. Walter Grant and J. M. Murley were appointed delegates to the district conference at Moncton. As the Gyros have found themselves unable to join with the Rotarians in conducting the boys' camp at Canoe Cove this year, the matter [illegible] deal with. The beautiful silver shield presented by District Governor Percy Turner to be awarded to the club in the district showing "most outstanding achievement in Rotary service", was exhibited at the meeting.

A very pretty out-of-doors wedding took place Saturday afternoon at 1.30 when Miss Edna Grace Macmillan, youngster daughter of Mr. John D. Macmillan and Mr. Arthur Gordon Banks, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Banks of Annapolis Royal, Nova Scotia, were united in marriage.

The wedding took place at Inkerman, the summer home of Mr. A. R. Gillis and Mrs. Gillis, sister of the bride.

The service was held under a trellis of apple blossoms and cherry blossoms, Rev. G. Carlyle Webster officiating.

WEDNESDAY

SUPREME COURT OPENS JUNE 30—With a criminal docket including two manslaughter cases and one of robbery with violence, June term of Supreme Court for Queen's County will open in Charlottetown, June 30.

LOADING CARGO—The S. S. "Gaspesia" Capt. Carom, arrived in port yesterday from Montreal with a large general cargo for this port and a large number of round-trip passengers. After loading potatoes the steamer will sail on return, calling at Summerside for a shipment of potatoes from that port.

Many friends will regret to learn of the passing of Peter J. Gillis, a highly respected member of Arlington, Lot 14, whose death occurred at his home on Tuesday morning at 84 years of age.

The late Mr. Gillis was a life long member of the district and a prominent farmer, who kept himself well informed on the topics of the day. He had a pleasing personality and will be sincerely mourned in the community. There are left to cherish the memory of an affectionate father, five daughters, Mrs. Whalen, Kildare, Ida, New York, Pauline, Boston; Hilda, School Inspector for West Prince, and Jessie at home. Miss Pauline arrived home on Saturday. Mrs. Gillis died some years ago and a daughter, Sister Mary Pauline passed away in Montreal a little while ago. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved daughters.—S

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Paul's Church, Summerside on Wednesday when Miss Mildred Gaudet, daughter of Stephen Gaudet of Summerside was united in the Holy Bonds of matrimony to Mr. Alfred Gaudet of Miscouche. Mgr. G. J. MacLellan, performed the ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass, in the presence of a large congregation.

The bride looked very charming in a white satin dress with the conventional veil and orange blossom. Her bridesmaid, Miss Edna Gaudet, sister of the groom, was dressed in a flowered chiffon dress with picture hat to match. Mr. Freddie Gaudet, the bride's brother was best man.

Immediately after the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home.

Later in the day the wedding party were guests at the home of the groom.

Previous to their marriage the bride was a guest of honor at a shower at the home of Mrs. Walter Sonier when she was the recipient of some lovely and numerous gifts.

The marriage took place early this morning at Trinity United Church of Mr. Arthur B. Seaman, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Seaman of Alberton, to Miss Edna Precella Duncan, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Duncan, City. The Rev. Hugh Miller performed the ceremony in the presence of immediate relatives and friends.

The bride who was given in marriage by her brother, Sheldon Duncan, looked exceedingly winsome, wearing a gown of turquoise blue lace with accessories to match and carried a bouquet of white carnations and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Lona Duncan, sister of the bride, wore pink silk organdy with matching accessories and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

The groom was supported by his cousin, Mr. Rundell Seaman.

A reception at the bride's home attended by intimate friends followed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Seaman left on a motor trip to Montreal, Toronto and Niagara. The bride travelled in a navy blue crepe costume with hat and shoes to match.

PASTORAL CHANGES—The month of July will see several changes in the personnel of the United Church ministry in P. E. Island. On July 2 Rev. A. E. MacKenzie will be inducted as assistant minister in Trinity Church, Charlottetown, taking the place of Rev. J. W. Barbour who goes to Maitland, N. S. On July 3 three inductions will take place—one at Hunter River where Rev. W. A. MacQuarrie comes to take the place of Rev. F. E. Boothroyd who goes to Shediac, N. B. Mr. MacQuarrie is a son of this Province and will be warmly welcomed again to his native soil. On the same day, July 3, Rev. M. K. Charman who comes from Truro and is well known in Charlottetown will be inducted into Alberton Pastoral Charge succeeding Rev. G. A. Ross, D. D., who due to ill health is retiring from active duty, and Rev. Fred Young will be installed into the Tryon Charge, succeeding Rev. J. L. Lund, who goes to LaHave, N. S. Later in the month, July 17, Rev. D. J. Morrison of Cape Breton will be inducted into Hampton Charge in succession to Rev. Geo. Ayers who after many years of faithful service will retire [illegible]

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Alex McDonald was held Monday morning from his late residence, Glenfinnan, to St. Patrick's Church, Fort Augustus, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. D. P. Croken. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Albert Robertson, Wm. Trainor, J. A. McDonald, Daniel McDonald, B. Fisher and Frank Trainor. Service at the grave was conducted by Rev. Geo. McDonald.

The death occurred in the Prince County Hospital, Summerside, on Friday, May 5th, of Mrs. Benjamin Moreshead, O'Leary. Mrs. Moreshead was formerly Miss Susan Boyle of Conway. Her father predeceased her last winter. There are left to mourn besides her mother, brothers and sisters, a sorrowing husband and daughter, little Joan, three years of age. Mrs. Moreshead enjoyed life and took an interest in community and church affairs and will be missed by a wide circle of friends. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon, the services being conducted by her pastor, Rev. A. F. Baker. After a brief service at the home of her sister, Mrs. William Campbell, the remains were taken to the United Church where Mr. Baker delivered a message of comfort to the mourners. Interment was in Knutsford cemetery. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved relatives.—O.

—SAD BEREAVEMENT — Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Farmer of Kinkora have the sympathy of their many friends in the death of their youngest child, Norbitt Garfield, aged 2 months and one week, who passed away early Sunday morning. Three brothers, Allison, Siemon and Lowell and three sisters, Bernadette, Frances and Phylis are left to cherish the memory of a little brother. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon in the R. C. Church at Kinkora, Rev. M. J. Smith conducting the service. Many friends attended the service and expressed their sympathy to the bereaved parents.—S

Discovery of the bleached skeleton of a man, believed to be a shipwreck victim years ago, had been made on the shore of Little Miminigash Capes near Bloomfield, R. C. M. P. in Charlottetown learned yesterday. There will be a "routine investigation" Charlottetown headquarters announced.

The skeleton was dug from the beach by Bloomfield residents after a boy walking along Little Miminigash shore came upon a skull half-buried in the sand. A pair of shoe soles was also dug up near the same spot.

Whiteness of the bones and condition of the shoe soles gave evidence that the skeleton had lain buried many years. No one has been missed from Bloomfield district for almost a quarter of a century and opinion was held the skeleton was probably that of a sailor, victim of a shipwreck, whose body had been washed ashore.

The bones were believed to be the remains of a young man. Examination of the skull showed the wisdom teeth had only started growth.

Mounted Police investigation will be conducted by Alberton detachment today.

The fifteenth annual meeting of the Registered Nurses Association of Prince Edward Island was held yesterday in the Canadian National Hotel. Fifty-one members were present. The president, Miss Anna Mair, R.N., presided. Satisfactory reports from the different committees were read and approved.

Miss Anna Mair, R.N., of the Prince Edward Island Hospital was re-elected president of the organization. Lawrence MacLellan S.S.J., son of Mrs. Elizabeth MacLellan and the late Archibald MacLellan, Indian River, will celebrate his First Solemn High Mass in St. Mary's Church, Indian River, on next Sunday June 14th, at 10 o'clock Fr. MacLellan made his theological couse in Washington, D.C. and was ordained to the Holy Priesthood by the Most Reverend John M. McNamora D.D., on Tuesday, June 9th, 1936, at the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, Washington, D. C. After spending a vacation with relatives and friends at Indian River, Fr. MacLellan will join his brother priests of the Josephite Order to labor for the salvation of souls. Rev. W. V. MacDonald, D.D., P.P., Hope River, will deliver the sermon for this solemn event.

MINISTER OF RAILWAYS TO VISIT PROVINCE—Hon. C. D. Howe, Minister of Railways, will shortly make his first visit to Prince Edward Island to look into the province's railroad transportation problems. Every year during the motoring season, passenger traffic on Prince Edward Island lines of the Canadian National Railways drops almost to a standstill and it is expected the Federal Railways minister will look into conditions principally with a view to promoting better methods of competition with motor transportation services well-patronized during the summer months. Increased use on the Island railway lines of "jitneys" (light, motor-driven passenger cars) was seen as a means of regaining passengers lost to the automobile.

The death occurred suddenly at his home at Birchwood Street, Charlottetown, yesterday of Malcolm Henry Compton, 20, eldest son of Mrs. David Compton.

About 5.30 yesterday morning one of his younger brothers heard him apparently in distress and called his mother. When she reached his side he was unconscious and passed away a short time later. Death was due to heart disease the doctor said.

The young man was the son of the late Mr. David Compton and Mrs. Compton. Since the death of his father six years ago he was the support of his widowed mother and his young brothers and sisters. For four years he was a valued member of the crew of the C. G. S. Brant and about two months ago was transferred to the S. S. Charlottetown. This week he had been laid off the car ferry and had been home one day before his death.

The deceased was a young man of sterling character and a great favorite with all his fellow workmen, his friends and his acquaintances. His early passing in the prime of life is greatly to be regretted and much sympathy is being extended his mother and his brothers and sisters. Besides his mother he is survived by two sisters and three brothers all at home. Namely, Esther, Wellington, Philip, Matilda and David.

The funeral will take place from his home, Birchwood Street, this afternoon at 2 o'clock.
