KOSYGIN, THE HUNTER

Premier Alexei N. Kosygin of Soviet Russia stands with furrowed brow after shooting a pheasant while hunting in the Rambouillet woods behind the 12th century chateau where once the kings of France resided. Kosygin carried his own double-barreled shotgun on the trip which was a break during an official visit to France. He bagged six. Minister Andrei Gromyko, also turned nimrod for the day. got 16. (AP Wirephoto by cable from Paris)

One Man Held After Shooting

LUSKVILLE, Que. (CP) - Provincial police have detained a 45-year-old civil servant on a coroner's warrant as a material witness following a tavern shooting Tuesday night in which one man was killed and another wounded.

In custody is George Hayes, a federal agriculture department chemist and father of seven children who lives in this community 20 miles west of Ottawa.

Dead is Emile Lebrun, 46, described as a bystander when a man began shooting in the tavern with a .308-calibre rifle following an argument. Also shot and in hospital at Hull with a shoulder wound is Kenneth Broutin, 41, of Wyman, Que.

Emile Lebrun was having a beer with Luskville Mayor Albert Tremblay and Philippe Alton at a table about 10 feet from the tavern's back door. His 24-year-old son Andre was at a nearby table with some friends.

BY THE FLOOR
Andre said that when a man came through the tavern's back door and started shooting "I hit the floor."

"My father did not move from the chair," he considered the man his friend."
