THE GRAND DUKE ALEXIS TO GO TO ENGLAND.—A recent despatch says that the Grand Duke Alexis has gone to England to inspect the new frigate just launched for the Russian Government. Messrs. Robert Staver of Summerside, and P. W. Hales, of the P. E. Island Steam Navigation Co., and Archd. Kennedy, Esq., were registered at the Weldon House, Moncton, on Monday.

SAD ACCIDENT.—On the 12th inst. a sad accident happened to Mrs. Charles Tupper, daughter of the Hon. James Macdonald and daughter-in-law of Sir Charles Tupper. THERE was a large attendance at the market on Tuesday. Prices were as follows: Beef (small) from 7 to 14 cts. per lb.; beef (gr.) from 5 to 9 cts. per lb.; mutton, from 6 to 12 cts. per lb.; lamb (gr.) from 25 cts to $1; veal from 3 to 7 cts. per lb.; turkeys, from $1.00 to $1.50; fowls, from 25 to 30 cents each; butter (fresh) from 12 to 16 cents per lb.; eggs from 10 to 13 cents per doz.; hay, from 40 to 65 cents per 100 lbs.; oats, from 44 to 45 cents. per bushel; potatoes from 14 to 16 cents per bushel; flour, from $3.00 to $3.25; oatmeal, from $3.25 to $3.50; chickens, from 49 to 50 cents per pair; ham, 12 to 16 cents per lb.; pork (small) 8 to 12 cents per lb.

FATAL ACCIDENT ON THE RAIL.—St. John papers report that on the 12th inst., as the excursion train of the St. John and Maine Railway was passing Enniskillen station, a man named Patrick McGilligan of Enniskillen was run over, both legs cut in two and his body generally smashed up. He is a married man and has a large family. It appears he was afraid his horse would start and he crossed the track to hold the animal, which was attached to the fence. He passed the track only 10 feet in front of the engine. No blame is attached to the train hands. When the cow catcher struck him he fell on it and the driver, Harrigan, got out and held the man until the train stopped. Harrigan says his train was running 18 miles an hour when the accident occurred. The unfortunate man is dead.

"Good wine needs no bush," and we have no doubt that the favorable impression received by those present in the Market Hall last night will ensure the presence of a large audience this evening, to see and hear the second and last rendition of "Kentuck," by Mr. Stetson, Mr. Armstrong, Mr. Lindley, Miss Van Courtland, and the rest of the Company. "Kentuck" is sensational and no mistake; but, in it, the "right" and the "good" triumph in the end. The acting, taken for all in all, was exceedingly good. Mr. Stetson shows the art of the true actor in not over doing his part. He suits the action to the word, the word to the action, and both to the passion to be exhibited; and is beyond a doubt, a first-class man. Mr. Lindley did the comical capably, and Mr. Armstrong acted the polished villain to the life. As for our old friend, Miss Van Courtland, she is as pretty an artiste as ever—perhaps more so. Some of the audience, as usual, showed their taste and breeding by giggling in the most affecting parts. Giggling is one way of getting rid of overcharged feelings; but it affords conclusive evidence of a neglected education.

 General Garfield has formally accepted the Republican nomination for the Presidency in a letter of acceptance. He points to his record as a test of his devotedness to the principles of the party that nominated him, censures the "pernicious doctrine of State sovereignty," declares the National Government should protect every citizen in exercising his civil and political rights and asserts that the evils which now afflict the South arise from the fact that there is not such freedom and toleration of political opinion and action that the minority party can exercise an effective and wholesome restraint upon the party in power.

Mr. Garfield says: "The present movement of the Chinese to our Pacific coast is too much like an importation to be welcomed without restriction—too much like an invasion to be looked upon without solicitude. We cannot consent to allow any form of servile labor to be introduced among us under the guise of immigration."
