Police To Make Clean-up of Dogs Running At Large

"We have no intention of getting tough in the matter of dogs at large by accident, but those habitually at large are in for a clean-up," said Chief MacArthur yesterday in speaking of the activity of the police department in that respect. Since the drive began on July 1st to reduce the dog nuisance to "nil", more than 25 dogs have been picked up, six being destroyed. Fourteen have been reclaimed by their owners, and the remainder are still impounded. Even the tax had not been paid on many of these, so the pick-up has served a dual purpose. The by-law states that "the owner or keeper of any dog, shall report in writing to the City Clerk, giving a description, which will be kept in a book prepared for that purpose." Dogs habitually at large may be destroyed by the police, said Chief MacArthur, "but of course no one who really values his dog will suffer from this by-law, as he will be glad to co-operate and avoid such an unpleasantness."

Annual Picnic For The Blind

Under the auspices of the Charlottetown Auxiliary of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind the annual picnic for these handicapped residents of the Province was held yesterday in the National Park. Through the co-operation of the National Park superintendent, one of the roomy Park kitchens was placed at the exclusive use of the picnicers for the afternoon. A full bus load of cheerful blind folk made the trip to the seaside resort and enjoyed themselves immensely. Under the supervision of Mr. John Proude, a Charlottetown college student, the picnicers participated in games and competitions, and most of them figured in the prize list. Lunch was served an excellent buffet lunch, and took part in a spirited sing-song. Besides the members of the Auxiliary a number of visitors attended the well-planned outing. These included Mrs. T. W. L. Prowse, wife of the Lieutenant-Governor, Mr. and Mrs. W. Chester McLure, and Mr. Jackson Dods of Montreal. Mr. and Mrs. McLure had not failed to attend the annual picnic for several years. The visitors expressed pleasure that some of the blind folk were able to go bathing during the afternoon as well as to take part in races and other competitions. They had words of praise for Mr. Proude for his clever handling of the races especially. Mrs. P. T. Prowse, president of the Auxiliary, had the assistance of the following members of her executive, Mrs. Ernest Coffin, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Rodd, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. H. F. McPhee, treasurer; Mrs. J. A. Gillespie, secretary. Other members of the Auxiliary who attended and gave a helping hand were Mrs. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, Mrs. A. W. Hyndman, Mrs. Judge Duffy, Mrs. J. J. Morris, Mrs. J. S. Morris, Mrs. J. B. Murley, Mrs. John Garnham, Mrs. David Macdonald. Mr. White, the competent field secretary, exercised overall supervision of the afternoon program. "Bill" McEachern helped out the singing with his clever harmonica accompaniments and solos.

Legion To Hold First Picnic For Veterans' Children

There will be fun at the shore for everyone when the Charlottetown Branch of the Canadian Legion holds its first annual picnic for the children of veterans, Wednesday, July 30th. The site will be Stanhope Beach. Plans are being formulated by the Executive of the local Branch and from the interest evident there should be a good turnout of Veterans and their families. The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Branch are co-operating and preparing a lunch for the little tots. While a bus will be made available for transportation, Mr. Charles Sinclair, president of the Branch, has asked for the co-operation of veterans who may have cars available. He would like them to leave their names with the Secretary-Manager, Mr. F. W. Smith at the Legion Home. At the seashore there will be organized sports, games and bathing and all veterans with their families are cordially invited to take part. It is hoped that this event will prove so successful that it will in future become an annual part of the Legion program.

Dairy Products Act Is Proclaimed At Ottawa

OTTAWA, July 17—The Canada Dairy Products Act, passed by Parliament in 1951, and amended at the last session, was proclaimed by the government yesterday. Regulations were also approved by cabinet and will become law when they are published in the Canada Gazette, probably in about one week. The new act and regulations deal with the interprovincial movement, import and export of dairy products and the use of grade names for creamery butter, cheddar cheese and dry skimmed milk. However, the act does not give the federal government power to prohibit interprovincial movement of margarine and other dairy substitutes. The government had this power under the 1951 act, but it was eliminated from the legislation at the last session. Under the act and regulations, the dairy industry adhere to the following: 1. The minimum milk fat standard for all ice cream must be 10 per cent. The period of validity for a cheddar cheese grade certificate is six months, effective Dec. 1, 1952. 3. The salt content in first grade creamery butter may be varied in accordance with market requirements. 4. Packages for evaporated milk, whole milk powder, and dry skimmed milk must be at a certain standard. 5. The grading of dry skimmed milk may be extended to include packages sold direct to householders.

Death In St. John Of Mrs. F. P. Napier

Mrs. F. P. Napier of 136 Broad Street, Saint John, N. B., passed away on July 14th, 1952 at the Turnbull Home. She leaves to mourn three daughters and two sons, Mrs. N. S. Young, Mrs. A. S. Henderson, William W. Macaulay, prominent South End druggist, and Harry L. Macaulay of the Canadian National Express all of Saint John, and Mrs. Leonard G. The funeral was held on Wednesday, July 16th from Brennan's Funeral Home when the service was conducted by the Rev. A. D. MacLeod, retired United Church minister and former minister of the Carmarthen Street United Church of which Mrs. Napier had been the oldest living member, and the Rev. W. C. V. Martin, rector of St. Mary's Anglican Church, a family friend. The floral tributes and messages of sympathy were numerous and testified to the high regard in which Mrs. Napier was held by all. Two sons, two sons-in-law and two grandsons were pallbearers. Included among the floral tributes from outside the city was a beautiful wreath from the Maritime Electric Co. Ltd., Charlottetown.

Continued from page 1 bank," said Cavanagh, who sighted the sub. "Our skipper, Lt. Cmdr. John H. Stubbs (later killed when the destroyer Athabaskan went down) got her with the slickest manoeuvring I've ever seen. "The range was so short main armament could not be brought to bear but our small arms fire kept sweeping the decks and gashing her hull. As a German went down, another jumped out the conning tower for the main gun. But Michael Scullion of Verdun, Que., kept killing them as fast as they came out. "Finally we got a shell in her and rammed twice. That did the trick." It was after this encounter that Lord Haw Haw gave Assiniboine's crew a roguish complex by announcing that Nazi subs had her number.

Only Casualty

Kenneth Watson of Revelstoke, B. C., killed by machine gun fire in the engagement, was the destroyer's only casualty of the war. Of the 10 captains who guided her, four later became Admirals, one a Commodore, and another, Capt. E. P. Tisdall of Victoria, B. C., now is commanding officer of the Cruiser Ontario.

CLAIM CONFESSION

Continued from page 1 sponsors research and papers on physics and electronics. "The society has offices on Columbia's campus. Assistant District Attorney Carl Grebow claimed a complete confession from Peakes and added: "He felt if he killed a few physicists in New York, he would get publicity and an opportunity to develop his theories." Peakes told police he joined the R. C. A. F. in 1942. He was living in the Detroit-Windsor area at the time. He said he served in the European invasion and was wounded in Belgium and convalesced in a hospital in England. Upon discharge he joined the U. S. forces, serving until 1945. Miss Fahey fell screaming Monday beneath a hail of bullets at the hands of a "thin man" who invaded the campus for what looked like a aimless slaying. "She just happened to be the first person I met in the office," police said Peakes told them. Peakes claimed the society had shrugged off his treaties on electronic means of prolonging human life forever. In his confession, Peakes told of suffering from dementia praecox which won him a mental discharge from the Air Force and a 50 per cent disability pension. Dementia praecox is a form of insanity. Miss Fahey's mother, Mrs. Josephine Fahey, 49, said of Peakes: "If he's insane, I forgive him. If he's sane, I hope they give him the limit of the law."

Cut Ice Cream's Butterfat Content

OTTAWA, July 17—(CP)—Possibility of a return to the five-cent ice cream cone was indicated today with the announcement of new standards lowering the minimum butterfat content of ice cream. Cone prices now vary, selling in many places at 10 cents, and the nickel cone has become a rarity. Under new regulations, butterfat content which previously was 11 per cent for fruit ice cream and 13 per cent for plain, may be lowered to 10 per cent. The new standards, along with certain regulations covering cheese and dry skimmed milk, were announced by the Agriculture Department. The ice cream changes were re-

Regretted Not Having Time To See P.E.I. Farming

One of the regrets of Lord Lovat during his brief visit here was that he did not have the time to investigate the farming on Prince Edward Island. The Chief of Clan Fraser is widely known in Britain as a farmer of note. He has 50,000 acres in Scotland, but not all of it is farmland. There is much that is rocky and hilly, and large sections of it have been opened up for hunting deer, upland game birds and other game. He has a flock of approximately 1,000 black face sheep, a type in which Lord Lovat is breeding. Lord Lovat also is noted for his breeding of cattle with a large herd of Aberdeen Angus. He does a wide business in other parts of Europe and in South America. The distinguished former Commando particularly noted the arrangement of the fields here and remarked on the general beauty of the Province. He was keenly interested in the types of farming done here and remarked to Mr. Walter Shaw, president of the Caledonian Club, that he wished some time were available to meet many of the people and visit breeding farms.

U. S. To Probe Alleged World Oil Cartel

WASHINGTON, July 17—(AP)—Attorney-General James P. McGranery announced tonight a federal grand jury will investigate a reputed seven of the world's largest oil companies. McGranery told a press conference he proposes to seek criminal indictments and at the same time will file a civil anti-trust action designed to end alleged monopolistic practices and restrain the government's successful foreign groups. McGranery named the companies whose activities will be investigated by a grand jury sitting here as: Standard Oil of New Jersey, Standard Oil of California, the Texas Company, Socony-Vacuum, and Gulf Oil, all U. S. concerns, and the foreign groups: Royal Dutch Shell and Anglo-Iranian Oil Company. McGranery said Leonard J. Emmerglick of the Justice Department's trial division will take charge of the grand jury presentation. He called attention to the fact that Emmerglick conducted the government's successful anti-trust proceedings against the Aluminum Company of America about six years ago.

IN MEMORIAM

JANET ELINOR REARDON On April 11th, 1952, people were saddened by the news that Janet Elinor Reardon, beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reardon, Southport, had passed to her eternal reward at the age of fifteen years. For nearly three months Janet had suffered from leukemia which eventually removed her from her earthly existence, and from those who loved her. She died peacefully at the Charlottetown Hospital in the presence of her parents and the Sisters and priests who had assisted her in her illness. She had received the last rites of the Church previously, and died shortly after receiving Holy Communion. Her death was a fitting tribute to the life she had led, and an inspiration to those who were privileged to be at her bedside. Janet received her early education in Vernon River, then in Southport and was a student at Prince of Wales College when she became sick. She was a clever student and seemed fitted for a brilliant future in the world, but God, always picking the beautiful flowers, took her to Himself. Her acceptance of her fatal illness was an inspiration to all who witnessed it. She accepted God's will in the true spirit of obedience which characterized her whole life. Her virtues of patience, kindness, and charity were exemplified in her last weeks, as they had been during the years that she was in good health. She is survived by her parents and by the following brothers and sisters: Michael, Patrick, Judith, Catherine and Pamela. The funeral was held on Monday, April 14th in St. Dunstan's Basilica. It was largely attended and a guard of honor was formed by the Girl Guides of which Janet was a member. Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Patrick McMahon and services at the grave by Rev. Francis Corcoran and Rev. Francis Bolger. May she rest in peace.

Card Of Thanks

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reardon and family wish to thank their relatives, friends, and neighbors for the flowers, Mass cards, letters and messages of sympathy, also for the many acts of kindness they received during their recent sad bereavement.

Confederation Chairs To Be Restored To Original Condition In PEI Chamber

Plans are now underway for restoring the original chairs in the Confederation Chamber and Premier J. Walter Jones said last night he was expecting the arrival of a specialist in the work. Although the Premier did not name him, he stated the visitor would examine the seats and determine what steps would have to be taken. A recent visitor to the Province, Mr. V. B. King of Woodstock, Ont., was very much interested in the historic Chamber where Canada was born. Learning that the chairs used by the Confederation Fathers were becoming greatly worn and there was some danger that they might not be preserved in their original form if they were allowed to deteriorate further, Mr. King immediately offered to share in the cost of having the work done. His proposal was reported to The Guardian at the time. Mr. King suggested that if other Canadian graduates of well known universities, in voice and piano. The speakers have been selected from a group of Salvationists who through long experience and devotion to their work, are especially qualified to conduct an evangelistic campaign. Major and Mrs. B. Pedler, noted Salvation Evangelists, will be in charge of the party. Full particulars will be released when plans have been finalized at Territorial Headquarters in Toronto.

Salvation Army Officers Here

Brigadier Cornelius Knapp, Divisional Commander of the Salvation Army, accompanied by Mrs. Knapp and Major M. Gooding arrived in the city yesterday afternoon in connection with the evangelistic meetings which are to be held from coast to coast in Canada between September 5th and 15th. Tentative arrangements have been made whereby the fullest co-operation on the part of the city churches will probably follow. A team of Salvation Army evangelists will include in their Canadian tour a visit to Charlottetown and other parts of the Province. Top talent musicians have already been chosen to accompany the party, including several graduates of well known universities, in voice and piano. The speakers have been selected from a group of Salvationists who through long experience and devotion to their work, are especially qualified to conduct an evangelistic campaign. Major and Mrs. B. Pedler, noted Salvation Evangelists, will be in charge of the party. Full particulars will be released when plans have been finalized at Territorial Headquarters in Toronto.

WELLINGTON, N. Z., July 17

(Reuters) — Prime Minister Sydney Holland told the House of Representatives today: "This is not the time to try to squeeze the last drop of blood out of Britain. If Britain fails, we will sink." Holland said he disagreed with John Ormond, chairman of the Meat Producers' Board, who said New Zealand should drive "the hardest possible bargain" with Britain in the forthcoming meat-contract talks. PARIS, July 17 —(Reuters)—A policeman spotted a battered old suitcase floating down the River Seine today. It opened, he said, and found $100,000 in what looked like crisp new United States bills. A laboratory check showed the money was counterfeit. Experts said the ink and paper were bogus though the plates were good.
