A DRUMMER usually carries his own drum and beats it; but in some parts of Ireland at Land League processions the drummers refused to do duty without the assistance of carriers. No claim against them existed, and this action, added to many others of similar character, and also the advantageous features of their present policies, places them in the foremost ranks of Life Insurance Companies; inspires confidence in its integrity and stability, and so their volume of business is increasing everywhere, as well as on this Island.

STUART ROGERS will give one Entertainment only on this Island. He will appear at the Academy of Music, in this City, on Wednesday evening, October 18th. Hitherto Mr. Rogers' entertainment has been confined to impersonations of imaginary characters. In addition to a new programme of these sketches he will present an imitation of the noted "aesthetic," Mr. Oscar Wilde. This impersonation will be given in full costume, an extract from Mr. Wilde's lecture, "Art for Art's sake," will be recited, and the most careful attention paid to "make up," manner and delivery. It is not intended in any sense as a burlesque sketch, but a faithful portraiture and an accurate imitation of this celebrated personage.
