Ordinary correcting tape

A UPEI Graduate on the March

When UPEI 1988 graduate Jacqueline Duerden decided to proceed into graduate studies, she received offers from eight Canadian universities, including Queens, Western, Simon Fraser, Calgary and Carleton. She chose the Montreal Neurological Institute, which is affiliated with McGill, where she is doing research on the neuropsychology of olfaction.

Jacqueline Duerden

She has received $16,000 in grants.

Yes, her work is proceeding well, and she loves Montreal.

Don't tangle with the wrong correcting tape.

The new Smith Corona Correcting Cassette

Does the thought of wrestling with the same old twisted and tangled correcting tape have you tied up in knots?

Well, look what popped in - the Smith Corona Correcting Cassette. It's an easy-to-load cassette filled with correcting tape you can insert in seconds.

Say goodbye to annoying spools. Say good riddance to awkward threading. The Correcting Cassette even eliminates muttering under your breath.

Of course, there's only one place you can use the Smith Corona Correcting Cassette - on our latest Smith Corona electronic typewriters, like the XD 5500 Memory Typewriter.

You'll find the XD 5500 so simple to use, it makes short work of even the longest typing jobs.

So now, you can not only stop tangling with the wrong correcting tape, you can stop tangling with the wrong typewriter.
