LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

LETTER FROM MR. WEST. Sir,—As the report of the Provincial Auditor's Accounts now is ready to be distributed among the electors, I would advise the farmers when in town, to call at the Public Auditor's office and get one of the reports for asking, before they are all gone, as they were last year. Then the electors ought to call public meetings, appoint the chairman, and get the Secretaries to read it over; and then the men and women can judge for themselves, and become more intelligent. Hoping the Patrons will hurry on before we are sunk in debt.

DAIRYMEN'S ASSOCIATION.—The Farmers' and Dairymen's Association will meet in the Lyceum at Pictou on Friday evening next, the 5th inst, at 7.30 o'clock. Full attendance. Election of officers.

CELEBRATED CASE.—We are asked to announce that the Dramatic Club of St. Dunstan's College will re-produce the popular drama, "A Celebrated Case," at the Lyceum about the middle of May. The drama will be presented under the auspices of the Benevolent Irish Society, and the proceeds will go towards improving the seating accommodation of the Lyceum.

ANOTHER NEW PAPER.—The Canadian Sporting News is the name of a new paper started at Toronto, of which Mr. H. J. P. Good, a well-known sporting writer, is editor. The News is cleanly printed, and is well filled with matter pertaining to the various sports, and it should prove most interesting to all who take pleasure in many sports. THE EXAMINER trusts that the venture may prove successful.

PELL CURT.—This forenoon, John Bell, (Murdock's son) arrested on complaint of Daniel Stewart for attempted larceny, was sentenced to 30 days' imprisonment with hard labor. Frederick Macdonald, a countryman, was fined $50 or 90 days for drunkenness. If Macdonald is found drunk within the city limits during the next twelve months, this fine and another one of $20 or 90 days, respectively, is to be enforced.

SOXS OF TEMPERANCE.—A new division was organized at Pictou on Monday last with the following staff of officers: R. B. Auld, W. P. Geo. Matthews, W. A. Chas Taylor, R. John Sharpe, A. R. S. John Frizzle, A. Con; Staver Taylor, C. S. Sterling Burns, O. S. John J. French, W. P. The Division will be known as Maple Leaf, No. 206, and will meet on Wednesday evening.

VICTORIA DIVISION.—The officers of Victoria Division, Sons of Temperance, were installed here on Monday evening on Monday evening. They are as follows: W. P. G. G. Jany, W. A., Miss Annie Saline; F. S. John Godkin; T. W. P. Colville; R. S. R. M. Campbell; A. R. S., J. J. Chappell; J. Chap, G. H. Backham; C. J. J. Chappell; A. C. Miss Maud Crossman; I. S. A. Dunn; O. S., W. Harris; W. P. W. A. Tanton.

PRIESTLEY'S GOODS.—The ladies of Canada are now asking for Priestley's noted black dress goods as the ladies of Great Britain ask for them in every dry goods store. They are noted for the satisfaction they give in wear and for a certain quite inimitable delicacy, softness and flexibility, which give a charming grace to the figure, and lend themselves to flowing easy lines in the draping which no other goods can match. In these respects Priestley's dress fabrics are unrivalled.

SOCIAL.—The third annual social under the auspices of Division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, will be held on the evening of Monday, April 15, (Easter Monday) in their Hall, Maccauchers' building. The committee of management are doing all in their power to have this social eclipse the former successful ones. Worth's orchestra will furnish the music, and the Messrs. Quirk will be the caterers. Mrs. D. O. M. Reddin, Mr. M. Blake and Mrs. Handrahan will be chaperones.

H. M. S. PENARON is to be given at the Opera House on the 26th of this month. A highly successful rehearsal of this ever popular entertainment was held last night. The performers are taking their several parts well, and everything points to a grand success when the opera is put on the boards in about three weeks. New scenery is being prepared, the costumes of the ladies will be different in style from those used when the opera was formerly presented, and several new features will be introduced, such as some of the best choruses from Olivette, Billee Taylor, &c., given in appropriate places throughout the play. The cast is strong, and we predict the best hit yet scored by the Oddfellows of this city.

A PLEASANT EVENING.—The tea and entertainment in the basement of Zion Church last afternoon and evening was most successful. Tea was provided from five to seven o'clock, and was partaken of by large numbers. The entertainment followed, the programme being as follows: Address, Rev. D. Sutherland; Piano Duets, Misses Hobbs and McLeod; Recitation, Miss Ruby Ratray; Chorus, five little girls; Recitation, Miss Muriel Pickard; Vocal Solo, Mr. J. R. Davidson; Piano Solo, Mrs. Robert Hogg; Dialogue, Miss Toombs, Miss Warren and Charlie Mitchell; Vocal Solo, Bobbie Hogg; Recitation, Ernest Mitchell; Vocal Solo, Miss Amy Mann; Reading, Mr. John Lawson; Vocal Solo, Miss Metcalf; Vocal Solo, Miss Stevenson; Vocal Duets, Misses Davy and Stevenson; Recitation, Miss Amy Ratzenbury. "God Save the Queen" brought the programme to a close. Rev. D. Sutherland presided. The proceedings were under the auspices of Excelsior Temple.
