

A New Canadian Industry.

We have been shown some samples of oilcloth goods, which have been turned out at the Kingston factory, and which appear to be of excellent quality.

Irish Affairs.

THE PRIESTS AIDING MR. PARNELL'S LAND PURCHASE AND SETTLEMENT COMPANY.

A London cable despatch of the 14th inst., says several of the Irish boroughs are taking advantage of the Easter recess to give a welcome to their representatives in Parliament.

Power of an Elephant's Tail.

Two young ladies were gazing at the white elephant as it stood enthroned in all its sacred splendor, and surrounded by the mystic emblems of his holy character and the adoring priests who were kneeling devoutly on every side.

Ethetic London has been paying a pilgrimage to the bridal dress of Mrs. Oscar Wilde. The shrine where the nuptial garment was exhibited, was the show-room of a fashionable French dress-maker in Regent-street.

A Pennsylvania editor writes to a friend:—'I still support my reputation by publishing a newspaper, and my family by sawing wood.'

Gems of Thought.

Angry friendship is not infrequently as bad as calm enmity. Instead of fighting misfortune, we too often make it prisoner. It is a very easy thing for a man to be wise for other people.

It is but an ill-filled mind that is filled with other people's thoughts. He that would be well spoken of himself, must not speak ill of others.

A stagnant soul, like a stagnant pool, breeds insects, and reptiles, and slime. He who gives himself air of importance, exhibits the credentials of impotence.

It little becomes the feeble to be unjust; justice is peculiarly the shield of the weak. Praise is sometimes as hurtful as censure. It is as bad to be thrown into the air, as to be cast into a pit.

The example of a ruler should have the force of law, and the laws of a ruler should be enforced by his example. Truth—the open, bold, honest truth—is always the wisest, always the safest, for anyone in any and all circumstances.

If we could read the secret history of our enemies, we should find in each man's life, sorrow and suffering enough to disarm all hostility. Consideration is the small coin of kindness and affability; it is current everywhere, with all and always brings back a little friendship.

We do not have great trials and sharp agonies and heroic works to do every day. It is very small strokes that make the diamond shine. Have the courage to speak your mind when it is necessary that you should do so, and hold your tongue when it is prudent that you should do so.

No man is so foolish but he may give another good counsel sometimes; and no man is so wise but he may err if he will take no others counsel but his own. Friendship hath the skill and observation of the best physician, the diligence and vigilance of the best nurse, and the tenderness and patience of the best mother.

Resolve not to be poor. Whatever you have, spend less. Poverty is a great enemy to human happiness. It certainly destroys liberty, and it makes some virtues impracticable and others extremely difficult. A woman of 77 years, in Belfast Me., is suing a gay deceiver of 79 for $3,000 damages for alleged breach of promise of marriage.

AYER'S PILLS.

A large proportion of the diseases which cause human suffering result from derangement of the stomach, bowels, and liver. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS act directly upon these organs, and are especially designed to cure the diseases caused by their derangement, including Constipation, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Headache, Dizziness, and a host of other ailments, for all of which they are a safe, sure, prompt, and pleasant remedy.

A Sufferer from Headache writes: "AYER'S PILLS are invaluable to me, and are my constant companion. I have been a severe sufferer from Headache, and your PILLS are the only thing I could look to for relief. One dose will quickly move my bowels and free my head from pain. They are the most effective and the easiest pills I have ever found. It is a pleasure to me to speak in their praise, and I always do so when occasion offers."

The Rev. Francis B. Harlowe, writing from Atlanta, Ga., says: "For some years past I have been subject to constipation, from which, in spite of the use of medicines of various kinds, I suffered increasing inconvenience, until some months ago I began taking AYER'S PILLS. They have entirely corrected the defective habit, and have vastly improved my general health."

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS correct irregularities of the bowels, stimulate the appetite and digestion, and by their prompt and thorough action give tone and vigor to the whole physical economy.
